To the Christian Reader.

Christian Reader, Thou hast here presented to thy view, a taste of the ordinary Weeke-dais exercise, of that Reverend man, taken from his owne mouth, whose Pen would have more fully answered thy greatest expectations, could his time (drunke up with continuall waighty, and various employments) afforded him more liberty and leisure, to have fyled over his owne notions: It is hoped they may be of great use unto thee, and the rather, because of the excellency and seasonableness of the Subject, to erect thy hopes, and to put an edge upon thy Prayers, and desires, for the more speedier bringing forth of those great workes, which this and the following Age are to produce. The good that may accrue to thy selfe, and the common cause, produced this Worke into the light; which was not

SEVEN VIALS:

OR

AN EXPOSITION,

with an Application, of the 16th:

Chapter of the Revelation.

And I heard a great voice out of the Temple, saying to the Seven Angels; Go your ways, and pour out the Vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

And the first went and poured out his Vial upon the Earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the Mark of the Beast, and upon them which worshipped the Image.

You have heard in the former Chapter, of the Preparation of the Seven Angels, to pour out the seven last Plagues of God upon the Antichristian State.

In this Chapter, you read a large Description of their Execution of that work, which is,

First, Commanded, Verse 1.

Secondly,
Secondly, Performed, in the sequell of the Chapter.

Commanded, wherein observe that Commandement set forth, Firstly, by the Instrumentall efficient Promulger of it, a great voice [I heard a great Voice.] Secondly, By the Subject-place, whence this Voice came forth, out of the Temple. [A great voice out of the Temple.] Thirdly, By the matter commanded by the voice, [Goe your waies and poure out the Vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.]

This Commandement thus given, was accordingly performed by all the seven Angels, in this whole Chapter. The first Angel poureth out his Viall, ver. 2, and that is, first set forth by the Subject upon which he poured it, [upon the earth.] Secondly, It is amplified by the effect it wrought [There fell a noysome and grievous fore upon the men.] What men? They are of two sorts:

First, [Such as had the Marke of the Beast.] Secondly, [Such as worshipped his Image.]

The words are somewhat da; ke, and there is much variety in the Interpretation of them: I shall shortly open to you, what (by the comparing of this, and other Scriptures together) I take to be the meaning of the Words.

First, when he faith [I heard a great voice] It is a voice of Authority, and Power. And whole can that be, but his, that hath power over all these Plagues, even God himself, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who also have power in the Temple: It is not the voyce of one of the foure Beasts, or the Officers of the Church alone, but a further power doth concur with this voice, such as carried Majestie, and authority with it.

Secondly, [Out of the Temple] It implieth it was a voyce delievered not by one of the foure Officers in private, but came out of Publicke Administration, where onely the Lord speaking, did with Authority let forward these Angels upon this work. And it may further Imply, that it sprung upon some Prayers of the Church in the Temple: for all the voices in the Temple, are either, the voice of the Church unto Christ, or of Christ unto the Church: And if the Lord speake graciously in the Temple: It is commonly obtained in the Praiers of the Church, craving an-

[To the seven Angels.] That is to say, Seven sorts of Gods Messengers.
Messengers, whether Magistrates or Ministers, or whosoever they be that pour out these Vials, they are Angels of God, as being the Messengers of his wrath. Neither is it meant of seven Individual persons, but seven sorts of Persons, that set forward this worke. And withall I doe accord with those that say, that in all these administrations, there is some presence of the heavenly Angels accompanying the men in the worke.

Go to your waies is not in the Originall, but [Goe] pours out the Vials.] The Vials are vessels of large content, but of narrow mouths, they pour out slowly, but drench deeply, and distill effectually the wrath of God: Vessels they are of full and just measure, as all these judgements are dispensed in weight and measure.

Of the wrath of God That argueth, that upon what subject soever these Vials fell, the wrath of God fell together with them, upon the same. And that helpeth not a little to open the place, and to shew the danger of some Interpretations, which doe expound the Sunne ver. 8. to be the Scriptures. If these Vials be the Vials of Gods wrath, how shall any of them be conceived to be poured out upon the Scripture, is the wrath of God kindled against the Scripture? And for the Earth, ver. 2. Some conceive it to be meant of the common sort of godly Christians; but though some sore plagues might befall some of them, yet how can the wrath of God be conceived to be powred upon them? It cannot therefore be meant (as some of good note say) of the Waldenses, and Albugenfes, Hugonets, and Lollards; but the wrath of God falleth upon such, as worship the Beast and his Image: And therefore take that for certaine, that what things soever the Vials of Gods wrath are poured upon, they are such as God is deeply displeased withall.

Upon the earth They thought right, that thought it to bee meant of the common sort of Catholikes: but let us further consider how it commeth to passe that the first of these Angels pourreth out his Viall upon the earth, and the rest upon other things, yet they all have a Commission to pour out the Vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. For the opening of this difficulty (which else might exercise some) we must know, that in this Prophecie sometimes [earth] is opposed to Heaven, and then as by Heaven is meant the pure Church, as Revel. 4. 1. & 12. 1. So by Earth is meant an earthly and corrupt Church. Sometimes also by Heaven is meant, a corrupt state of Religion, wherein heavenly and divine honour is given to Satan, or Idols, as Rev. 12. 3.7. Againe, sometimes Earth is opposed not unto Heaven, but unto some other Element in the World, and so is it in this Chap. The first Angel poureth forth his Viall upon the Earth, the second poureth his Viall on the Sea, &c. So then in this case, the Earth is to be understood in a double sense. In general, of the Antichristian state, or world, Verf. 1. And in the Antichristian World they have some things that represent the Earth, and some things the Sea, and some things represent the Sunne or that World, and some things represent that Ayre of that world; therefore in the particular execution of this Commission, when the first Angel poureth out his Viall upon the Earth, it is upon the lowest and basest Element in the Antichristian world, and that can bee no other, but the lowest sort of vulgar Catholiks, and they were the first that had the wrath of God pour'd upon them, which did afterwards arise higher to the Sea, and then to the Fountains and Rivers of water, then to the Sunne, then to the throne of the Beast, then to the River Euphrates, and last of all to the Ayre, and in all these doth the wrath of God ascend higher and higher, as may afterwards more clearely appeare.

The first Angel went and poured out his Viall upon the earth. This first Angel must be the first sort of Gods Messengers, that did pour out some wrath upon Common Catholics. And doubtlesse such wrath it was, as being poured out, did worke a Noysome and grievous sore upon them that worshipped the Beast, and his Image (as the Text expresseth) They that had the Mark of the Beast (you heard before out of the 13. Chapt.) are such as receive some indelible Character of the Beast; such are their Secular, or Regular Priests, and all that receive religious Orders from the Church of Rome. Who then are they that worship his Image? The Image of the first Beast (you know) is all Nationall, and Diocesan, and Provincial Churches; and they that rule them are the Image of the second Beast: So then they that worship the Image of the Beast, be such as are devoted to the Canons of Popish Churches, who drink them up, and receive them as Articles of their Faith; these are all afflicted with a noysome and grievous sore by the pouring out of this first Viall: For those who did pour it out, they were such as did convince them of the Damnable estate of a Catholike, and taught them, that by ey could go not beyond a Reprobate; and this was the common practice of the Martyrs of Jesus Christ in Queen Mary's time, in Edward the sixth, and in Henry the eight's time, who discovered unto you, that all their Religion was but the worship of God after the device of men, even Will-worship, such as they were led into by the Man of Sinne, who being himself blinde, leadeth those that are blinde, and both fall into the ditch; those that thus discovered the unsoundness of the Religion of these Catholikes, who before seemed to be good Churchmen, and good House-keepers, and good Christmas-keepers, they were the men that poured out this first Viall upon the earth.

And upon this their discovery, there fell a noysome, and grievous sore upon their Catholike Priests, who had borne the common fort in hand, That Ignorance was the mother of Devotion, and such ignorant Devotion was the way of Salvation, when they see that all their People, who were heretofore their honest and good Neighbours, full of benevolence towards them, were now informed, that they lay under a state of deepe Damnation, it was an eye-sore to their Catholike Priests, and all of that Religious Order, a double sore fell upon them.

First, a sore of envy, and malice, against all the Martyrs of Christ, and all that sought for Reformation of Religion; against whom their spirits were so strongly embittered, that happy was he that could bring Fire and Faggot to execute vengeance upon them, that did discover the state of the common sort of Catholikes to be so dangerous. It was a publick speech of Henry the eight, when he spake in Parliament, Complaining of the suits that were made about Religion, There are many (saving he) that are too busie with their new (Sumpfimus) meaning those that clave to that which he counted the new Religion, though withall others he taxed, who doubted (as he said not amiss) much upon their old M..mpfimus. The new Religion (though true) Hee, and they all envied: the Old (though his owne) he despised.

Secondly, there was a noysome loathsomenesse discovered, by these true Witnesses, and Martyrs of Christ, unto the people. Whereby they began to see that the common sort of their Religious Orders were full of Iniquity, of Ignorance, of Covetousnes, of Pride, and of Hypocrify, and that they had laid such a foundation of Religion, as was not Jesus Christ the true Foundation, but had indeed reared up an Antichristian Religion, whereof (as it is said (Isai. 28.19.) it shall be a vexation to hear the Report; A grievous malignant ulcer it was, and the more they stirred in it, the more they were vexed. And this let me further adde, for opening the words, it is an allusion to that noisome force of Egypt that fell upon the Common sort of the people, and upon the Magitians also, Exod. 9. 11. So that they could not stand before Moses; and so it was here, these noisome forces of which we have spoken, did so fall upon the common sort of Catholikes, and upon their common Religious Orders, that they fell before the Angell that poured out this Viall, as Dagon before the Arke. Thus you see the meaning of these words.

Now for the Notes that arise from them. — You may observe that (Chap. 15.7.) One of the foure Beasts gave unto the seven Angels, Seven golden Viols full of the wrath of God, but they went not then, to pour them out, untill they heare a great voice out of the Temple, and now they goe. So that the Doctrine in the first place to be observed, is this.

Doct. 1. Though the counsell and instruction, and aduise of a Church- Officer may be a good invitement, and inducement, and preparative unto a Calling: yet it is the mighty Voice of Christ, specially in Publike Ordinances, that Effectually stirreth up a man to the execution of it. These Angels had counsell and encouragement given them (as you have heard) to goe about this worke, and were furnished with the wrath of God for this ende: but were not effectually stirred up to fall upon the execution thereof, till they heare a great Voice of Christ out of the Temple, (that is in publike Ordinances) then they goe to poure out their Viars.

You shall find this a very ordinary Practise in some things futa-able hereunto in Scripture. Ifaack gave Iacob a Commandement and Instruction to goe to Padan-Aram, Gen. 28.6. And thereupon Iacob went on his way, Vers 7. But the first night that he lodged out of dores, when the Lord appeared to him in the House of God (Verse 15.) and telleth him, That hee will bee with him, and keepe him in all places whithsoever hee goeth, and will bring him bakke againe into this Land: Then Ia-cob (Chap. 29 1.) lifteth up his heeles, and goeth on his wayes; Like a Giant refreshed with Wine to runne his Course. And the like was the Practise of the fame Iacob, when they told him that Iofeph was yet alive, Gen. 45.27.28. his spirit revived, and he said, He would goe down to see him; but first he goeth to Beer-

The first Viall.

Sheba, and there offereth Sacrifices, and consulteth with the Lord, Gen. 46. 1. 2. 3. 4. and the Lord encourageth him to goe downe, bideth him not fear, He will be with him, and there make a great Nation of him, and bring him back againe (and so he did to be buried) thus are his hands fully strengthened in his way: The like also was the case of the men of Samaria, Josh. 4. When the woman had told them that Jesus was the Christ, because he had told her all that ever she did, they believed, because of her saying, Vers. 39. But when they came unto him, and talked with him, then they said unto her Vers. 42. Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the World. Thus the voice of Christ carrieth his people an end in the waies of their callings, with effectuall power unto sudden and speedy execution.

The reason is taken first, from the greater power of the voice Reason 1: of Christ speaking by his Spirit, then when he spaketh by the gifts of his Servants, and therefore Paul putteth a great difference in this case, Acts. 19. 21. The Text telleth us, That he purposed in his Spirit to goe up to Hierusalem, afterwards going on his way, he meteth with certaine Disciples, Acts. 21. 4. and they by reason of the Prophecie of Agabus concerning Paul, ver. 11. fell upon him and wept, and besought him not to goe up to Hierusalem, What mean you (faith he) to weep, and to breake mine heart, for I am ready not to be bound only, but to dye at Hierusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Behold here the Spirit of God had revealed clearely himselfe in the heart of Paul, to strengthen him to goe up to Hierusalem, these Disciples (upon the Prophecie of Agabus, that he should be bound at Hierusalem) said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not goe up: By what Spirit? By the gifts of the Spirit, the spirit of love, and their care of the Churches; but Paul waves them all, for hee had the minde of Christ, by the voice of the Spirit himselfe; this was indeede in times of extraordinary Revelation: but it sheweth you never-thelesse the difference betweene the voyce of the Spirit, and of the gifts of the Spirit, he giveth the greater power to the Spirit, then to the gifts of the Spirit, being such kind of Gifts, wherein humane frailty might be mingled.

The second Reason is taken from the greater power of Gods Reason 2: voyce in Publike, then in private Administration; If one of these Elders speake unto them, it may be but a private encourage-
The first Vials.

Such as the advice of Nathan was unto David, to build the Temple, 1 Chro. 17.2. But had he come, (as afterwards he did) in way of Publick Administration; Hee could not have beene so mistaken as then he was; For therein doth the Lord more specially reveale the presence, and the power of his Spirit, and grace, Matth. 18.18. 19. 20. Therefore it is, That when there commeth a great voice out of the Temple, it carrieth along the Seven Angels to a speedy dispatch of this great worke, of pouring out the Vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

The first Vial may teach us all, that have any private inducements or encouragements to any calling, or worke of God, by any Church-Officer, or Church-Member, not to sleight the same; for these Angels did not sleight the motion, when one of the Church Officers gave unto them the seven golden Vials, but they tooke the Vials. And when they see their time, when there commeth a publicke Voice out of the Temple, then doe they all follow on effectually with their worke, in their seasons. Sleight not therefore private encouragements to good callings, but looke for further provocation and strengthening in them, from the publicke Ministry, even from the voice of Christ in the publicke Ordinances of his Church. Private Revelations without the Word, are out of date, but certaine it is, that God doth speake by his Spirit in private Meditation and Prayers, and conferences with Bretheren; and in all these, comforteth his people with the manifestation of his fatherly goodnesse, yet speaketh nothing, but in his word, and according to it. Now these be good hints, and good encouragements, which God giveth his people in them, and by no meanes to be sleighted, when God sheweth his presence in them: God forbid that any of the sonsnes or daughters of God should put them away. Yet this let me say, though such be faire encouragements, (what private duty soever they come in) whether to beleve on this or that gracious promise of God, or to stir us up unto any other Spirituall work, the servants of God are hereby led to attend the more upon the publicke Administrations of the Church, for the further clearing of the mind and will of God; There will the Lord more clearely reveale himselfe by his Spirit in every Ordinance of his Worship, there doth he delight to poure out all his fresh Springs, Psal. 87. Lat. For there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore, Psal. 133. 3. Eternall life doth he give in the Publicke fellowship.
Th' first Viall.

lowship of his Saints, there doth hee confirm their callings to them, looke unto the Lord therefore for his blessing in this way, and so shall you be faithfull followers of these holy Angels of God, who being privately encouraged, warte for a publike voice to carry them an end in their Administrations, wherein the Lord by the mighty power of his Spirit doth confirm al his Promises, threatenings, and Commandements, and more throughly stirreth up the hearts of all his people to take hold of al that is spoken unto them; therefore if ever you perceive any voyce or spirit to take off a man from Publike Ordinances, and cause him to sleight them, then ever looke at it as a manifest delusion, for every dispensation of God, doth but enkindle a more earnest longing that the Lord should confirm the same by his broad Letters Patents, the PUblicke Word and Sacraments in the Church. Yea so farre doe the Saints of God fland hereupon, that whatsoever is in private onely brought unto them to beleive, they will finde much adoe to rest satisfied in it, until they see it confirmed in publike also. As when men have any speciall grant from their Prince, and have it confirmed by the Privy Sealc, they will not rest therwith, but will go to the Lord Keeper for the Broad Seale; to confirm what was before Sealed to them, though either of them apart be sure, yet both joyned together will make it more sure: Shall men be so carefulfull for this world, and for temporall Patrimonies, and shall Christians take up every motion in private and sleight publike Ordinances? Be not deceived, whatsoever is brought unto you by the spirit of God in private, will cause you to seek more cleare evidence from his loud voice in Publike, where his voice goeth on more strongly and powerfullly, convincing the Conscience, and breaking downe all Temptations and discouragements that might hinder the comfort of God's people.

The use in the 2.place serveth to reflect a just reprofe therefore upon any that shall despite or neglect the Publike ordinances of God in the Church, for you see here that what is confirmed in the whole Church is the great voyce of God, and that without contradiction to the holy Saints and Angels, if therefore the Publick ordinances be undermined and borne wittesse against by any that commeth not from the spirit of these Angels, but from some evill root in the hearts of the sonnes and daughters of men, the report of which is a vexation of spirit to heare there-
The first Viall.

Thus much for the first note. Goe poure out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

And the first Angel went, and poured out his viall upon the Earth, &c.

Here is a world you see described, having an earth and sea, and rivers, and fountains, and sunne, and aire, and they all belong unto the Beast, and therefore the first Viall is poured upon them that had the marke of the Beast, and the last brought in the fall of Babilon: So that from first to last, they are the judgements of God vpon the Roman Antichristian state, as fixe of the seaven scales brought in judgements upon the Pagan Romane world, and the seaven Trumpets, his Judgements upon the Christian world, as they were ruled by Christian Emperours: So are the seaven last Vials poured out upon the Antichristian world; From hence therefore you may note thus much.

That the whole antichristian world, or state is but earthly and not heavenly. For all these Angels are commanded to poure the vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth, and they went not beyond their commission, in pouring them vpon the sea, and Rivers, and fountains, and vpon the sunne, and vpon the throne of the Beast, and the River Euphrates, and the Aire; whereby the Holy Ghost holdeth forth vnto us, that all these are but earthly, the sea is but earthly, the fountains and rivers earthly, their sunne an earthly sunne, and the throne earthly, &c. And though it is true (as some say) poure out any judgement upon any element, and the earth fareth the worse for it: yet take the description of the Holy Ghost, as it is plaine, and it intendeth the antichristian world alone: They are of the world, therefore they speake of the world, and the world heareth them.

Reas. 1. The first Reason is taken from the efficient cause of all their frame and state, which is but from the Earth: all their Doctrine, worship, and government, so farre as it is Antichristian is but humane, if not divellish, Rev. 13. 18. The whole number of the Beast, whatsoever is numbred to belong unto him, is but the number of a Man, humane inventions and will-wisdom, men will have it so, and this is the Summe of all Popish Religion.

Reas. 2. As the whole frame of their Religion commeth from the earth, so doeth it tend to the earth againe, for what doth all drive at, but the maintenance of an earthly Pompious, flately Prelacy; nothing in the world but devices to get money: they are full of covetousness and ambition; both which, what are they, but an open doore to their earthly libertie? these are sensual (faith Luke ver. 19.) not having the spirit: There is nothing spiritual in all their orders, nor in their pleasant sights, sweet smells, delightfull musique, and many goodly Feasts they have, and what are they but to please the tails of men; and all their carved and painted locks, and stones, their goodly Images, what doe they but please mens fancies, And

This you shall finde in the third place, that their best devotions doe but leave a man in an earthly and carnall estate, and therefore the Holy Ghost speaketh boldly, Rev. 13. 8. That all that worship the Beast, their names are not written in the book of life, of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world: There is not a man of them, that knowing and beleeving no more then what he hath from the Beast, can be saved, therefore they thought not amisse who have written, that a Papist by his Religion cannot goe beyond a Reprobate, so then whatsoever is meant by these things in the antichristian world, whereon these vials were poured, all is but earthly; an earthly sea, an earthly sunne, an earthly light, an earthly aire, fitter to choke men (so farre as it is antichristian) then to breath any life into the soules of Christians.

To shew you the vanity of all their endeavours, that study to reconcile Popish and Protestant Churches together, I will say but thus much, you may as soone bring Heaven and earth together, as you can draw Popish and Protestant Religion together; for Popish Religion is all but earthly, and all the Churches of Christ are Heavenly, and therefore when Heaven and earth meete, then will Poperie and Protrolemy meete together.

In the second place let all men beware, lest they have any licourish affection towards the old Religion, as they call it, if you shall hearken to the voyce of such charmers, charme they never so wisely, your best Religion will be but earthly, your prayers earthly, your faith earthly, your obedience will bee earthly, you shall find nothing therein able to answer an Heavenly and spirituall mind: what though they tell you that Protestant Religion loveth case, but as for them, they have their whippings, and scourgings, and fasting, and these (they will say) are no such earthly dainties; Truely these so farre as they are Antichristian are but earthly; they fast from flesh indeed, and from white meats, but they have the dainties of the Apothecaries shops, preserves, and conserves, and such kind of pleasant meats, and what have they done all this while? these their practices are not sanctified of God, and therefore doe leave the souls of men still under carnal delusions, being no other, but earthly and bodily exercises. Go and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the Earth, and the first went and poured out his viall upon the earth. This is upon the lowest and basest element, in the antichristian world. Thence we may observe.

That God in his Judgements upon wicked persons, and states beginneth first with the least and lowest amongst them; this is evident in the Text, first upon the earth, and the sea is next; which like the natural sea is above the earth, and the Rivers, and fountains are higher then it, and the sunne higher then they: and then upon the throne of the Beast, and when we come to open the sequell you shall see that all things goe in a gradation; And in this sort did the Lord deal when hee brought antichrist into the world, Rev. 8. 7. The first judgement came upon the earth; The second upon the sea; The third upon the rivers and fountains of water; The fourth upon the Sunne, then commeth Antichrist the King of the Bottomes field pit, Rev. 9. 11. and here in the 5. Viall his throne is smitten, and upon the sounding of the sixth angell, the foure angels in the River Euphrates were loosened, and here pouring out the 6th Viall, the River Euphrates is dryed up. And the consideration yeeldeth great light to helpe us in the exposition of these seven vials: for by the same steps whereby antichrist came into the world, by the same steps doth the Lord undermine him and bring him downe. For as first the common sort of Christians were corrupted when antichrist was brought in, so first the Common sort of Catholiques are blasted, when antichrist beginneth to fall: The like course did the Lord take in the plagues of Egypt, Exod. 7. 19. &c. He beginneth with the lowest, first to turne their waters into blood, and thereby killeth their fish, but still men subsist well enough, but then he bringeth frogs into all the land of Egypt, and they crawle into their kneading troughes, then he changeth the durt of the land into lice, and that was a great deale more loathsome to men, and at length he killeth all their first borne, and at last overwhelmeth Pharaoh and his host in the bottom of the red sea; and all this is according to the old covenant of his justice, Lev. 26. 18, 21, 24, 28. If you will not for all this hearken unto me, I will punish you yet seven times more for your sins, so he threateneth againe and againe in all those verses, untill at last he bring upon them such fearful and horrible Judgements, that they become an hissing to all nations.
The Reason of Gods dealing thus, is to magnifie Gods patience vnto all; knowest thou not that the long suffering of God leadeth the to Repentance, Rom. 2. 4. It becommeth the Lord to magnifie his patience and when he doeth strike he will not suddenly light up all his wrath, therefore when he commeth to judge Antichrist, he first poureth out his wrath where it is least of all sensible to the great Lords of the Anti-christian world, to magnifie the equity of his Justice, and that he might also leave them without excuse, if the lowest judgments doe not prevale: this God doeth that he might be justified when he judgeth, P/l. 5. 4. Thus though his wrath be revealed from heaven against all ungodlinessse and unrighteounesse of men, Rom. 1. 18. Yet such is the holinesse of Gods proceedings, that hee will shew his patience, and will strike gently upon the least and lowest in estate first, and afterwards hee goeth on further in waiting to waste, untill he have overspread a state with punishment; thus doth hee together magnifie his patience, and justifie his justice, and leave men without excuse.
This may serve in the first place to teach all men in the fear of God, to become wise by light Judgements and gentle afflictions, those which you would thinke may least of all concern you slight them not: nothing more distant from the chiefe men in a State, then the common multitude. A Judgement upon them doth not matter much, if a Famine were upon the common sort of people, Princes and Great men would not be much affected therewith. But the least of his judgements should be warnings unto us, to teach us that the Lord hath taken his Sword into his hand, and will go on in judgement, untill he make the soules of men to tremble. What if a judgement begin upon mens cattell?
That is farre off: It will come next upon your Servants and Children, and it may be, reach to the wife of your bosome; and if all this prevale not, it may be, He will strike you with grievous diseases.
diseases in your body; and if you hearken not for all this, what if he let the Devil loose upon the souls and consciences of men and women? What will the heart of a poor creature do in such a case? O consider this all ye that forget God I least he tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. When the Lord striketh us, it is but the Viall of the first Angel, but when the Lord beginneth, he will go on further; therefore it must be the wisdom of the sons of men to take heed of his strokes afar. This also is the Method of God dealing with his own children: He did not fall upon the conscience of his servant at first, but upon his cattle, then upon his servants, after that upon his children, and nextly, upon his body, and at last, writeth bitter things against his soul. Be we warned therefore by the first hints of chastisements, by small and gentle visitations, and happy they that learn to profit by such, to turn unto God, and to make their peace with him, before his wrath break forth like a devouring fire, and there be none to quench it.

The second use is unto the common sort of Christians, if there be any more poor and common, and of lesser esteem than other: Marke what I say, and take it from the word of the Lord, it becometh you in especial manner to take heed to your religion; for if corruptions grow therein, you will be the first that will suffer by them. And why so? It is because religion concerneth the common sort of Christians, as well as any other: and yet they commonly leave their religion, (as they say) to men that are wiser than themselves; well, if you cannot read in the Book of God the broad characters of salvation, and the way thereof, looke for it, that when the smarting providences of God come upon any state where you are, you shall first taste of them, and then shall you see the necessity of looking unto your religion. And upon this ground it is that Apostle Jude, Vers. 1, 3, writeth unto all the faithful, and exhorteth them, That they should contend earnestly for the faith once given to the saints; otherwise they shall have the first handfall of God's judgments, for they will be soonest corrupted, and shall be soonest punished.

That the discovery of the loathsome, and shamefull sinnes of men, is from the Viall of the wrath of God. For what was this Viall which is poured out upon the earth (that is upon the Common common sort of Christians) It was their conviction of their damnable Ignorance, and Superstition, Idolatry, and Hypocrify;
and this the Lord threateneth, as a judgement unto Jerusalem, Ezek. 16. 37. That hee will discover her nakedness, that those that loved her, and those that hated her should see her nakedness, Thus is his wrath revealed against all unrighteousness of men.

For the Lord is the first cause of all the Evill that is done a-among the sonnes of Men, Amos 3. 6. So that, is men's wickeddiscovered, is their loathsome, sinfull, carnall, corrupt estate laid open? The Lord hath done it.

Because it is the proper worke of the Spirit of God to convince the World of sinne, John 16. 8. and he worketh it by the Law, For by the Law commeth the knowledge of sinne, Rom.

7. 7. And what the Law doth, the same doe the servants of God by the Ministry of it, yet all is the worke of the Spirit of God.

The Viall may be, first to teach the Sonnes of men, to take heed of how you snarle at Instruments of Gods wrath, though it may be, they may sometimes deale disorderly; yet is it your part to see the righteous hand of God, and when men walke according to God, in discovering your wickednesse, there is it;
the righteous hand of God much more. As when the Angels that poured out this Viall, were encouraged by the Officers of Christ in his Church, and so by the Lord himselfe, to shew men that they were full of palpable Ignorance, and superstition.
Therefore let men learne in these cases, to sanctifie the Lord in their hearts, and to acknowledge his hand on them, in such convictions of their sinnefull and shamefull estate and course.

Let it teach all such whose sinnes are discovered at any time, to humble their soules under the mighty hand of God, that as their sinnes have beene discovered by an Angel of wrath: so they may be covered againe by the Angel of peace.

That the discovery of the sinnes of the Common sort of people doth inflict a noysome Boyle upon their corrupt leaders, and guides that allow them therein, There fell a noysome and grievous sore upon the men which had the Marke of the Beast, and upon them that worshipped his Image. When all this wickednesse is discovered in the common Catholikes, then doth the leauednesse of their leaders also grow notorious; what say you

The first Viall.

now to all their Catholicke Priests. Their wickedness appeareth, their Idlenesse, Hypocrisie, Covetousnesse, and wantonnesse, breaketh forth. A grievous sore lay upon them all, to see that all their labours are discovered, to be but a building men up in wrath, the Spirits of the Popish Leaders were greatly disturbed and troubled to see men so busy with their new Sumpsimus. A noysome blemish was it to all their Religious Orders, and to all that did countenance the in the same. Evident this is unto all those that read the Stories of our owne times, or the times of our Fathers, how this noysome sore fell upon their Guides and Leaders, and so it hath done of old, Essay 9. 15. 16. The Leaders of this People cause them to erre: So Jer. 5. 31. The Prophets prophecy falsely, and the Priests beare rule by their means, and my people love to have it so: Thus are their false guides blemished.

The Reason is taken from the duty of the guides of the Church and People, which is to turn them from their evil ways, Jer. 23.22. Therefore if they lead them into evil ways, needs must a noysome sore fall upon them, when the wickedness of the people is discovered.

This may teach all the servants of Christ, to whom the Church of God is committed, to be the more vigilant in all the Administrations of the things of God in his House, that there may remain in it no corruptions that are discerned; but that being discerned, they may be also borne witnesse against, and be reasonably rooted out, and the spirits of Gods people healed: else the forenamed will fall upon the guides of the Church, the people may perish in their sinnes, but their blood will the Lord require at the hands of those that should leade them in the way wherein they should goe. It is not enough for the people to say, it is the fault of their guides, nor for Ministers to lay the blame upon the people, unless they warne them, then indeed have they delivered their owne soules, but if the People perish for lack of knowledge, God will require their blood at the hand of their Guides.

His Verse describes the pouring out of the Viall of the second Angel: For the subject, He pours it on the Sea; and the effect was, the Sea became as the blood of a Dead man, and the effect of that, en the living foules in the Sea, they all dyed. The allusion is, to a like plague upon e Egypt, in the 7. of Exod. 20:21. Where Moses strucke the River Nilus, and it was turned to blood, as here be The Sea became as the blood of a dead man, and all the fish in the Rivers dyed; that is, of all sorts some.

Now for the meaning of this second Viall. First, for the Sea, What is here meant by the Sea? And what by the Sea becomming blood, and as the blood of a dead man? And how is every living soule in this Sea, said to dye by this means? The Sea cannot be meant the ordinary Sea of waters, for you cannot bring any judgement on that sea, that can afflict Antichristians.
ans more then Christians; if you should corrupt all the Sea (as the Papists expound it, and yet they believe all these evils redound to Antichrist.) What hurt will it be to Antichrist more then to the Church of Christ? If all the fish in the sea died, What would it hurt Antichrist more then Christian Nations? cannot Antichrist be supplied with other dainties on the shore, out of the Flocks and Heards, and out of the Fields and Woods, and out of the Ayre from the Fowles there, though he never had any Fish at his Table? That therefore cannot bee the meaning. But the sea is the sea of the Antichristian world, a distinct world from that heavenly state wherein other Reformed Churches stand. The Sea, as you know, is the confluence of all the Rivers and Fountaines of waters; they all finally are gathered together into one place, and are called Sea. And truly the confluence & concourse of all the springs of the Churches, they do meet together in one Religion, that is the common receptacle of all; All my fresh springs are in the Lord, Psal. 87. 7. In that Religion which the Church proffeth: And therefore Religion was resembled in the 4 of the Revel. vers. 6. By the sea of Glass like unto Chrystall, that is, all the Ordinances of God they were so cleare, as that you might see Christs face in them as in a mirrou or glasse, 2 Cor. 3. 18.

Wherein the state of Religion in the New Testament differed from the state of Religion in the old Testament, Where the Brazen sea in Salomons Temple was indeed bright as brasse, but thicke and not transparent, you could not see so clearly the blood of Christ in it; and yet there was a sea of Waters: What to doe? In the 2 Chron. 4. 3. to the end of the 6. verse, which was for the Priests to wash in. Now what is it that can cleanse the Priests, but onely the blood of the Lord Iesus. Now that was resembled by the water in the Brazen sea. Therefore all the Ordinances of Christ, which did hold forth the blood of Christ, to the washing and purging of the Priests and people of God, that is the sea. Now this sea, as you heard in the 15. Chapter of the Revelation, the 2. verse, In the Reformed Churches is a sea of Glass, though mingled with Fire; mingled with some contention, yet the face of Christ might be clearely seene in it. But this sea heere, that is, the Popish Religion, is the confluence of all their Ordinances, as they doe adm-minister the worship of God: And upon this sea, upon this Religion, is the second Viall poured. In the former Viall, FIrst, men stumbled at the lives of Papists, and then upon at the lives of them that led them, at their Priests covetous,nesse, ignorance, and hypocrisy; they liked not their lives, though at first they stumbled not at their Religion, but thought it was the fault of their lives; but soone after, they stumble at their Religion, so that the next Vial is poured on their Religion, the Ordinances themselves, as they are dispenced by them: the Viall is poured on them so farre as they differ from Reformed Churches. Then what? This being the sea, how is this sea come to be as blood? That is, this Religion of theirs is convinced, and discovered to be, not such as holds forth the cleansing blood of the Lord Jesus, as the Sea in Solomon's Temple did: and as the sea of Glass like unto Christ all did, but holds forth the blood of a dead man: A dead Christ, and dead Ordinances to any spiritual life. There is no life, no power, no favour of goodness in it; as the blood of a dead man, which is not like the living blood of Christ, to cleanse and purifie, and to give life; whosever eats my flesh, and drinks my blood hath eternal life, John 6.54. But this is the blood not of the living God, but of a dead man, there is the best of it, and what is that? Fit to pollute and defile, fit tochoake a man, but not to feed him; not to cleanse and purge him. And every thing living is that sea dyed: Every thing, That is every soule that had no other life, but what was bred and fed in that Religion; and had no other Christian life but what he sucked and derived from that Religion, they all perished everlastingly, this is the meaning of the words of the Text.

Now then it may be further demanded for clearing of this meaning, who is this Angell that poures out this viall of Gods wrath on this sea? the sea (you say) is Antichristian religion, for the first began with the earth; this goes up higher, and so higher, and higher, till it come to the throne, and till at length Babylon be fallen: So that all these plagues fall on the antichristian state. But who is this Angell that poureth out this Viall? There be some conceive that they are they who met in the councell of Trent, and gathered all the streames of Popish priests, and their doctrine, and practise, and ratified them all in that Councell; yea some thinke that Bellarmine hath done done the Church of God good service, in gathering the body of Controversies, betweene protestants and popish Churches, and hath delivered them in so many volumes that you might have a whole sea of antichristian doctrine, worship, and government by him confirmed, though I doe not dislike the notion, and it will fall into the true meaning, yet that holds not close to the letter of the Text, for the Text makes all the Angels to be such as come out of reformed Churches, * the Temple open in heaven; members of reformed Churches, all cloathed in pure and white linnen, godly Christians, righteous soules, and girded with golden girdles, established in the truth of the Gospel, therefore they cannot be the Bishops, and Doctors of Rome, nor Bellarmine nor any of them that have held forth Popish Religion in a Popish Church; What then? Then it must bee other Ministers and Professors of reformed religion, who have discovered the religion of the antichristian state to be as it is.

You will say can they turne Popish Religion to blood.

The Doctors of Trent indeed have, Bellarmine makes it worse by maintaining and confirming it. True but can Ministers of reformed Churches be said to doe so. Marke they are fayd to poure out a viall, not by making their religion worse, but making it appeare as bad as it was; They being righteous men, they could not corrupt religion, but discover it, and make it appeare, that all the decrees of the councell of Trent, and of Bellarmine, and such Popish writers; they discovered them to bee nothing but a sea of corrupt doctrine, and worship: all the streams that run in that sea, are all polluted and filthy, that who so lives and dies in them, perisheth everlastingly. And such were all those worthy servants of Christ, that have written either against the Trident Councell, or against Bellarmine, that have convinced their Doctrine and worship to be all polluted and corrupted, and to be such that if a man know and practise, and believe no better he cannot be saved, such hath been Chenmitius, and Junius, Chamier, Whitaker, and Reignolds, Perkins, and Ames, and the rest of the holy Saints of God, that have poured out this viall of Gods wrath, that is, that by their doctrine, and writings from the word have poured out such cleare conviction, and refutation of their doctrine and worship, that to all that are not partial, it appears to be not the bloud of the Lord Iesus, but of a dead man, and therefore who ever lives and dies, in that religion, hee cannot die better then a reprobate, nor live better then an hypocrite, this is the true meaning of the second viall.

The first note that we may gather (I will not be long in it, nor in this place the matter requires it not, in some places it might.)

As upon the corruption of common Christians follows the corruption of religion, so by the discovery of the corruptions of Christians, or upon the discovery of the corruption of common Christians, follows the discovery of corruption in Religion.

This note follows upon the former words, compare this verse with the second trumpet, upon the sounding of the second trumpet, there was brought in corruption of religion, in the Imperial Christian world, as in the 8. Chapter of this booke, and the 7. 8. 9. ver. The first Angell founded, and there followed haile and fire mingled with bloud, whereby all the green grasse was burnt up, &c. The first Angell poured out fire and bloud, that is uncharitableness, and contentiousnesse, and so corruption grew in the spirits of common Christians, and what followed upon that? And thereupon the second Angel founded, and there fell a great mountaine burning with fire, cast into the sea, on the contentiousnesse, and quarrelling of common Christians and their ambition. There grew contention, about primacy in Church Governours, and that so far corrupted the sea (A mountaine of high preferment being cast into the sea) that a third part of the sea became bloud, here was a third part a great part of their religion, specially that which concerns governement, became bloud, very noisome, both their doctrine and governement: so that looke as on the corruption of the lives of Christians, presently religion grew corrupt, so on the discovery of corruption in common Christians. In this second viall follows the discovery of corruption in religion itself, in this second viall: and looke by what degrees, the trumpets sounding, brought in corruption into the Church, by the same degrees, the vials bring forth the discovery of corruption in the Church the vials of Gods wrath discover corruption & pollution in Religion.

The reason of this point is taken from the powerfull efficacy of all religion, to transforme the sincere professors of it, to the like nature with it selfe, looke what the religion is, such...

is the spirit of all that are sincere, and serious professors of it, and therefore if there come in any corrupt doctrine, & corrupt religion, our Saviour tells us, by their fruits ye shall know them, for such as their corruption is in judgement, such will it bee in their lives, in Mat. 7.15. Beware of false prophets, &c. by their fruits you shall know them, a good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit, and so it was with the Pharisees, though they were the strictest sect of the Jewish Religion, Acts 16.5. Yet as they were corrupt in their lives, so their Religion was corrupt, and those that were Prophets to it, Mat. 23.15. They made them twofold more the children of hell then themselves, 2 Tim. 3.13. Evil men and deceivers waxe worse, and worse, deceiving and being deceived; and the ground of that is this, the concurrence of the spirit of God with his owne word, and the concurrence of the spirit of Satan, with his ordinances and instructions, there is a spirit goes with both, that doth assimulate and transforme a powerfull professor of sincere Religion, to be sincere in heart. And the Professors of corrupt Religion to transforme them into the nature thereof: In the 59 of Esay, verse 21. My Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seeds seed, from henceforth and for ever. Gods spirit goes with his owne Ordinances, where ever they are rightly and sincerely received, as alway by some they are, where ever they have free passage, they will have some good issue, and some persons or other, on whom they will worke such a change, in 2 Cor. 3.18. We all with open face beholding, as in a glaffe, the glory of God are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the spirit of the Lord. Consequently if Antichrist come with his delusions, hee shall come with all the power of Satan, whose comming (faith the Apostle, 2 Thess. 2.9, 10.) is after the working of Satan, and with all power of signes and lying wonders, with efficacie of delusions; a signe these delusions are not meereely Nationall, but effectuall, to transforme the heart like unto the minde, their will like unto their judgement, and their like unto both, that you shall have the whole frame of their estate, such as is their Religion: if the lives of Catholike Professors be corrupt,

an evident argument their Religion is corrupt, and if their Religion be corrupt, their lives cannot be found, they that live by that Religion must needs be corrupt: so that upon the discovery of the corruptions of the lives of Catholikes, then men began to scruple their Religion: at first it was fairly interpreted of some Catholikes, that were reformed, and brought to the truth, they thought that all abuses found in the Friars & Monks was but from the lives of men, their religion was better, their religion did not teach them so: and therefore thought still, they might appeal to the Pope himself, as Luther did, they thought it was the ignorance of the Priests, that brought Pardons into the Country to sell them, for groats and shillings; but this was but a charitable opinion, and in truth, the Priests the ministers of that Religion, did but act the spirit of that Religion, the whole heart was sick, and the whole head and body mortally distempered.

The use is thus much, it must be a word of holy admonition and warning to all Professors in this Country, and Church members, to all that profess they came out of England for purity of Ordinances, to be very circumspect, pure, and faithful, and zealous in all their whole conversation: for believe it, you will finde this true, and remember it while you live, if you be corrupt in England, if you be unfaithfull here, if you be worldly minded here, false of your words and promises here, injurious in your dealings here, believe it one of these two will unavoidably follow, either all England will judge your Reformation but a delusion, and an invention of some of your Magistrates, or Elders, or otherwise look at you, as not sincere but counterfeit. This unavoidably you will finde true, you cannot pour forth a Viall of more wrath on Religion, as it is here reformed and established, through the blessing of God, you cannot load it with a heavier Viall of God's wrath; then if here you shall grow worldly, and covetous, deceitfull, and contentious, and unbrotherly, are these your Church members, such & such things were done, but I hope it was not your Church Members, are we not all brethren? Dost our Estates lie much of them in common? Well, what ever things may be, though Christian love will passe by much; yet believe it, if men make no conscience of their bargaines, but that they doe defraud others, If men make no conscience of heavenly mindedness of purity and...

zeale; and think it needs not, but rest in meer formes of Church Ordinances, you will unavoidably, pcure a Viall of Gods wrath, as much as in you lyes, on all the purity of Gods Ordinances, and judge you how dishonourable it is to God and holy religion, and how blame-worthy it is in such as are faulty herein, however you will answer this before the Lord at his comming? For you cannot avoide it, this will be the issue; either we are counterfeit Professors of Reformation, or that our reformation is counterfeit, you say you came over for puritie of Ordinances: But in truth, you did but dissemble, & however you thought, it was not in your hearts, the event proves the contrary; if you be not sincere, but hollow Members of the Church, and corrupt livers, under the government and worship of God here established and ordered, I say, you will force all whose eyes are on you, throughout the Christian world to thinke, these are but the inventions of men; there is no truth, no true heartednesse in the Religion here established: and for the Religion established in England, what ever you talke of humane inventions, we know there is no such unfaithfull dealing, and hollow heartednesse, no such bitterness between Christians. A Ministers Presence is amiable, and his feet beautifull, and where hee comes, it is not thought too homely to be regarded, of better then himselfe. If Religion in our Native Countrey, of them that are sincere, if it hold forth more puritie there, beleevce it, it beares more evident witnesse to the truth of God there, so much as is truth, then as we doe, that professe greater (implicitie; these are but the names of things, but the reality is wanting. It is never to be forgotten, the Argument of the blessed Apostle, the Corinthianstooke offence at him (as they were humerous, though godly men) yet a generation of them were haughty by their great gifts, Paul said he would come to Corinth, he promised to come, but he did not, and they thought he used lightnesse; it was an easie thing with him to be Yes and Nay: What faith the Apostle? When I said I would come, did I use lightnesse, that with me there should be Yes, and Nay? Nay, faith the Apostle, ( I pray you marke it, and I could wish, it were engraven on the tables of godly mens hearts) in the 2 Corinth. 1. 18, as God is true, our word toward you was not Yes and Nay: How doth hee prove that?

For
The second Viall.

For the Sonne of God, Iesus Christ, who was preached amongst you, by us was not yea and nay, but in him was yea, and all the promises of God in him, are Yea and Amen. What is this to the purpose? If the Gospel be preached be not yea and nay, then neither are his promises yea and nay: this is his intention; else his inference is nothing.

I you will say, Ministers and Apostles ought to be such, but this that follows wraps in all professors. Now hee which stablisheth you with us in Christ (it is not Elders onely) and he that anointed us is God, who anointeth with such oile as falls on every member of his body? who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the spirit in our hearts, and makes us every way like himselfe, therefore faith he, I call God to record that to spare you I came not yet to Corinth, otherwise as the Gospel preached by him and Silvanus & Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea, no more was his promise; this is the spirit of Christians, and Ministers, and so of all that are established together with their Ministers, anointed, and sealed and confirmed in grace with their Ministers, and have received, the earnest penny, to bind the bargain of eternall salvation, to faithfull soules; So looke what a Christian doth promise, he is bound by the earnest penny of Gods Spirit, he dares no more alter his words, to the discredit of his profession, then the Spirit of God to lie.

So that consider, if Professors grow corrupt, Religion will grow corrupt; and on the discovery of the corruption of common Christians, corrupt religion will be discovered, else you will be discovered to be carnall professors.

But there will be these two events, either it will cast aspersion on you, and so they will say none are better; the Spirit of the Country is deceitfull in their bargaines, there is no constancie in their words.

Or else that your Religion is corrupt; and this will also fol-
That Religion, which by the blessing of God, and the power of his grace, is dispensed here in simplicity, will be corrupted in the very next generation; you will find your Children after you (of whose state you ought to have as much care, and I think, I may speak it without inconvenience) more than of your owne: you may know the worst of it for yourselves, being nearer the grave many of you; but verily, what will befall your Posterity? They will degenerate: out of measure, by the unfaithfulness of your lives, and unrighteousness of our promises, they will fall to be stark naked in point of Doctrine, Worship, and Government, they will utterly degenerate from their Ancestors, let but us be polluted, and all the waters that come from us will be polluted, it cannot be sweet water that runs through a poisonous earth: if the earth bee unfavourable, the Waters, and Deepes, and Rivers be poisoned, what will the issue bee, all will be corrupt: and therefore as you desire to leave Religion with a blessing, leave it pure in the conversation of Brotherly love, and purity, and faithfulness, and fruitfulnesse, and heavenly mindednesse; that so as Religion alwayes loves to lye clean, as was a grave speech of an ancient Saint, it will not lye naily as a Swine, and a Dogge in a kennell, it must lye sweet and clean: if the hearts and waies of men bee not pure and holy, you shall not alway have the Sea clean, but Religion will grow to Apostacy, and that which is our glory, will be our confusion.

It became as the blood of a dead man.
The faithfull Ministers and Professors of Reformed Religion, by pouring out the wrath of God on Popish Religion, have discovered it not to hold forth the blood of the Lord Jesus, but to bee as the blood of a dead man. That is the Sea, the Antichristian Sea, the confluence of all Ordinances in it, not to bee the blood of the Lord Jesus, which is onely able to purifie and to pacifie the Conscience, no such thing to be found in it. But a blood fit to quicken and give life, John 6. 50. 51. Hee that drinkes of my blood, shall live for ever: but they have discovered it to be the blood of a dead Man.

It was the speech of Master Perkins often in his Sermons, and throughout his Writings (who was one that powred out this Viall) he would say to his hearers, Young Schollers: Popish Bookes in holding forth the blood of the Covenant, they hold it forth in a morall manner, but without the life and power of his death; hee expounds it thus: They will very evidently set forth the cruelty and treachery of Judas, that betrayed him, and the Wordly-mindednesse, and Covetoufnesse, and Ambition, of the High Priests, that bought and plotted his death; they will (faith hee) make bitter invectives against the prophanenesse of the Iewes, that were ready to renounce him, Away with him, away with him, Crucifie him, and declaime against the timorousnesse of Pilate, and bafe-mindednesse, that could not deliver an Innocent; and declaime of the cruelty of the Souldiers, and magnifie the Innocencie of Christ Jesus, and make the people many times to weepe, that Iesus an Innocent man, had beene thus prophanely fould and bought, and thus basely condemned, and cruelly handly: All this might be done, and all but to shew forth the blood of an Innocent man. But to shew the need of Christ's blood, and how they should walke worthy of it, and how they should obtaine it, it is the least part of their discourse, and indeed, no part at all: What is this but the blood of a dead Man, to raise up bitter detestations against the Iewes, and Souldiers, and Pilate, &c. But to raise it up to any powerfull effect in the hearts of Christians, it is not their endeavour that are most devout.

The Reason is first taken.

From their holding forth, not indeed the true Christ: Whether you speake of their Doctrine, Worship, or Government, they doe not hold forth the true Christ. They hold forth Christ God and Man, that is true; so farre they goe with us, and hold that Christ dyed and rose againe, as we doe, but when they come to speake of the Offices of Christ, in which indeed, he is savagingly held forth to the people, there they bring in another Christ, and renounce him; For either take the true Christ, as the true Christ, or else none, for he will not divide staks. Looke at all his Offices, (And I will give you but a touch of them) Take the Mediatourly Office of Christ; they will have other Mediators, of Reconciliation, and Intercession, besides the Lord Iesus. Doth not the Priest every Sacrament of the Lords Supper, offer a Propitiatory Sacrifice (if I may call it a Sacrament of the Lords Supper) this is constant with them.

Now this is to bring in other Christs for Reconciliation, besides the Lord Jesus, Whereas the Apostle in the 10. Chapter to the Hebrewes, the 14. Verse, saith, By one offering, bee hath for ever perfected them that are sanctified: and he professeth, that onely the Sacrifices of the Law were oft repeated, because they could not make the commers thereunto perfect, Hebr. Chapter 10. vers. 1. to the 14. verse. So that to bring in any other Sacrifices, is absolutely to renounce his Mediation and Reconciliation; and they are not ashamed, I confesse, a man might stand and tremble, those that are more devout and zealous Catholikes, they will not owne that Doctrine; but they will owne this, they are not ashamed to entreat Christ by the Merit of the blood of Thomas, to give them a blessed Resurrection; by the blood of Thomas, which for us he did spend, make us to rise whither he did ascend.

Now, if they put on Christians the blood of Thomas, and give them to rise by the blood of Thomas, there is another reconciliation joyved with the blood of the Lord Jesus: and indeed, all Satisfactory Penance, and Whippings, and Masses, what are they all but Copartners with Christ, in helping forward his satisfaction, as if it were not sufficient; other sacrificers, and other sacrifices, every Priest is a sacrificer, and every new sacrifice is to make attomeent.

And so doe I say for his mediatrixship of intercession, you know they join saints, and angels, especially the Virgin Mary, as the mothers and fathers of grace, and pray the Lord to hear for their merits sake, so that take the whole mediatory office of Christ, for reconciliation, and intercession; you must have more Christs then one, and then he is of none effect, if he may not doe all in point of merit and satisfaction; even all the righteousness that he hath taught us to doe, it is unprofitable for such ends, we may profit our brethren, and help our selves by his grace, for many spiritual good ends, but for satisfaction, for merit and the like it is to set up a New Christ, besides the Lord Jesus, thus is his priestly office evacuated. And to his Propheticall office, to bring in other scriptures, as the Apocrypha that he consumes not, besides scriptures, of unwritten tradition carried from hand to hand, and yet many great points of their Religion are built thereon, even all the corrupt doctrine which they deliver by tradition. For his Kingly office, you know, they set up other Lords and Governors of the Church besides him, I mean such governors as neither are the Lords, nor ever were instituted by him, as the Pope, and Cardinals and Primats, and Metropolitans, and the whole rout of Popish Hierarchie from the Apparitor to the Pope, they are of his invention and appointment; and as they have other Lords so...
other Lawes; the whole cannon Law is none of the ordinances of the Lord Jesus, for the government of his Church, much of it contrary to the word of God, and as they have other Lords and lawes, so they have other frames of Churches, Eccumenicall, Catholique Church, Metropolitan, Patriarchall, Archipiscopall, Episcopal, Diocesan, which Christ never ordained in the New Testament, and they have brought Kingly or Monarchical power into the Churches which Christ never gave them, and that not only to excommunication, but to dethrone Princes, and to substitute others in their roomes; and in one word, they are not ashamed to say, it is lawful for the Pope to dispence with the Apostle Paul, and he doth dispence with incestuous Marriages, and with absolutions and notorious sins, for such summes of money, given for some religious, or rather superstitious use, and they will dispence with oathes which God himselfe will not, nor can, he will not suffer Iosuahs oath, and the Princes with the Gibeonites to bee broken, because it was the oath of God with them, therefore they must keepe it, so that here is not more then civill, but more then spirituall power, brought into the Church, so that well doth the holy Ghost say, here is not the bloud of Christ but the bloud of a dead man.

Againe, I might shew the like in other the chiefe streames, whereof their sea consists, that Faith which they have, it is build on the Scripture, and the authority thereof they have from the Church, their faith is build on the Scripture, and the Scripture on the Church, and so the last resolution of it, is but humane authority, and so that faith is no assurance, (for that they say were presumption) but humane credulity, and so for justification and salvation, they will have it by merits, and for worship, worshipping Saints and Angels, and in a strange language, which common people understand no, an unreasonalnable service, so that here is nothing but as the bloud of a dead man they want the vitalls of Christianitie.

It shewes what great reason we have everlastingly to stand out against all compromising with them, and all subjection to anything that pertaines to that Religion, for they have sacred truthes, as they beleev, Father, Sonne, and Spirit, and that Christ is God and man, but otherwise, for the body of all their other Ordinances, they are such, as in very truth, have not the blood of the Lord Iesus in them, but are as the blood of a dead man, as they have them, and corrupt and pollute them.

Lastly, Every living soule dyed in the Sea, why did none live on the earth, but were all dead in this Sea? All that live on the earth, all Catholikes, they live in that Religion, Jesuits, Friars, Every living soule died in that Sea.

The last note then is.

Dott. 3.

A Popish Catholike that lives according to his Religion, and no better, he lives and dies in a state of Death and Damnation: For so faith the Text, Every living Soule in that Sea dyed. If he had no other life, then by that Religion, no other goodness then that which he got from that Sea, living in those waters, which they sucked from that Religion, from the Ordi-ances.

The Reason of the point,

First, from the Grace held forth in that Religion: Secondly, from their Faith. Thirdly, from their Repentance: And Fourthly, from their Obedience; they are all such as are but dead: their very Grace holds forth dead Workes, the Faith of a Catholike, is a dead Faith; their Repentance, is dead Repentance, their Obedience, is dead Works, and that is all their Religion: and in these is the life of a Christian, the life of Grace, the life of Faith, the life of Repentance, and the life of Obedience, if these be dead, what life is there? For the grace of God, By grace ye are saved, not of Workes, Ephes. 2. 8. 9. Now they will not have it of Grace but of Workes, not of living Grace, but of Workes, that is the most general opinion. Nor no redemption of Christians, but common to all alike, Reprobates and true Christians, and the difference ariseth in vocation, and that is out of Workes, out of merit of Congruity, and their Justification is out of Merit of Workes, and Perseverance in Grace, is out of Concurrence of Free will, and Glorification is from Merit of Condignity of Workes, and if all these be of Workes, here is all the grace of God to seek: (what faith the Apostle?) If it be of Workes, it is not of Grace, Rom. 1. 6. And verily, this is the best grace of Popishe Religion: all their grace is of Workes, and then it is utterly evacuated.

What shall I say to their Faith, it is no other but Historically. As that all that is contained in the Word is true: and verily, the Devil believe as much, he knows it to be true, and will tremble, James 2. 19. And if that be the Devils faith, as James faith it is, then woe worth all Popishe Faith; and that faith if you come to apply it, That it shall be a confidence on Christ to salvation, they looke at that as Heretically presumption; what hope is there, that by Faith such should ever be justified, or saved? And for repentance it is like their Faith; such repentance as Judas held forth: as great they require, Confession, contrition, and satisfaction, he did it all; he was not a little broken with the fence of his sinne, and the horror of it: Hee makes confession of it, I have sinned in betraying the innocent blood: he made satisfaction, he brought againe the 30. Pieces of silver, and throwes them downe; away with them, I have sinned, in betraying the innocent blood, this is the best repentance they have: for any repentance that springs from the sight of Gods favour, applied to the faith of Gods people, this they will by no means hear tell of, and yet without faith applied to the soule, by a promise, or word of grace, there is no life in repentance. They see him, whom they have pierced, and mourn for him; they see him pierced by them, and for them, and this mourning is Evangelical and saving.

For their obedience, they looke at it, as such as is able to keepe the whole Law of God, and if they can doe that, they seeke life, then by Workes, not of Grace: and that obedience that is able to keepe the whole law of God, is the Obedience of the Scribes and Pharisees, for they so taught; and therefore our Saviour tells his disciples, Matt. 5. 20. Except your righteousness exceedes the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, yee cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; Such obedience, as that a man is able to keepe the whole Law, and by that to merit, and doe no more then the Law requires, it is the obedience of Heretical presumption, not of confidence and affiance of Faith; that is, obedience of heretical presumption, that is able to keepe the whole law, and make satisfaction to the justice of Christ, and then Christ died in vain, unless he died to make us Saviours of our selves, and that is as notorious as the former.

tholiques that make them believe, they may be saved in that religion, so they live honestly and well; Oh Brethren! doth not the Text expressly say, every one that lived in that sea, died, and died everlastingly; there is no living blood of the Lord Jesus there, there is no saving grace there, but workes all, and there is no lively faith there, but dead faith, no repentance, but hardness of heart, or legall contrition at the very last, nor obedience, but such as is too good for him to apply the Bloud of Christ unto, for it is able to keepe the whole Law, and make satisfaction for the breaches of the Law, or if their owne obedience bee not so perfect, they have some other saints, whose obedience may bee imputed unto them; so that though they abhorre Christs Righteousnesse, to be imputed to them, they have found out a way, that the righteousness of Saints may bee applied, to make others righteous so that they put more honour upon the servants of Christ, (if some of them were the servants of Christ,) then upon Christ: and say it were well their righteousness should be imputed, but that Christ's owne righteousness should be imputed, they looke at it as an putative righteousness, as they are not ashamed to call it so, that see the desperate danger of living and dying in that state, in the Romish religion, in that sea.

Secondly, Let me exhort all Christians to hold steadfastly to the puritie of Religion, whether in our publicke Ministrations, or private conversations, let all favour and reake forth the warme blood of the living Lord Jesus, for there is the difference of our Religion from Popery: Their religion holds forth such a Christ as leaves him and his blood, like the blood of a dead Man: The soue is dead for any true Grace, or Faith, or Repentance, or Obedience, or living Comfort; the heart is still dead, no life of Gods favour, no life from the Word, no hope of Salvation, but all conjecturall, there is indeed the life of Papists, no live-blood of Christ Jesus among them: But for Christians, It is for us to live, as those that are made partakers of the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better.
better things then that of Abel, that doth pacifie, and purifie the Conscience, and both worke effectuallie more and more, untill the soule bee established in perfect peace, thou wilt keepe them in perfect peace, whose minde is flaid on thee, because he trusteth in thee. I speake of perfection that may be attained in our measure, in Esaie 26. 3. So that be diligent to looke up to the Lord Christ, still as out of Grace, to accept us, and by the grace of Faith to receive us, and so drawing the soule to lively repentance from dead works, and quickning and awakning us to lively obedience. In this lively estate, we may walke before him according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his Grace in Christ Jesus.
THE THIRD VIAL

Revel. 16. Ver. 4, 5, 6, 7.

And the third Angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood. And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus: For they have shed the blood of Saints and Prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are worthy. And I heard another out of the Altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

These seven Angels (as you heard) that had the vials of the last wrath of God to pour out, they pour it all out upon the Anti-Christian world, upon the Beast, or some thing or other pertaining to the Beast; for the first that poured his vial on the earth, vexed them that had the mark of the beast; he begins therefore with the beast. And the first Angel poured forth his vial upon the throne of the beast, in the 10. ver. and when the seventh Angel poured forth his vial, Great Babylon came up in remembrance before God, &c. in the 19.ver. So that (in a word) all these vials being poured out from first to last upon the earth, and the earth being the Anti-Christian state, opposite to heavenly and pure Churches, all the vials
The third Vial.

Vials are poured upon the Antichristian world or state. And (as you see) they begin with the lowest elements first; The first upon the earth, the next upon the sea, the third upon the rivers and fountains, the fourth upon the sun in that world, the fifth upon the throne of the Beast, the sixth upon Euphrates, the seventh upon the ayre. Now the second Angel (of which you heard the last day) having poured out his vial upon the sea, it became as the blood of a dead man, and all that lived in that sea, dyed.

The sea (you heard) is the confluence of waters and rivers, and doth hold forth the confluence or concurrence of all the oracles, and ordinances, and means of grace and salvation, or those that are pretended so to be. The concurrence, or confluence of them all to one body, which in one word was their Religion in the old Temple, it was resembled to a brazen sea, wherein the Priests washed themselves; In the Apostolique Church of the New Testament, it is resembled unto a sea of glass, like unto crystal, wherein you might see the face of Christ, as in a mirror; In Reformed Churches, it is a sea of glass, mingled with fire; In Popish Churches, it is as the blood of a dead man; no living blood is there to be found to wash the people in, but as the blood of a dead man, without life, to them that are washed in it, and rather fit to choke, and poison, and kill, then to give life. Now that being the sea; Then here the next vial is poured out upon the rivers and fountains of waters that run into this sea, and derive this sea up and downe the earth, The third Angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters: And the pouring out of his vial, is described, First, by the subject on which it is poured, Upon the rivers and fountains of waters: Secondly, by the effect, and they became blood: Thirdly, the pouring out of this vial is amplified by the testimony given to it, and the effect of it; What is the testimony? It is double, 1. Given by the Angel of the waters, in the 5 ver. I heard the Angel of the waters say, what doth he say? he gives to God the glory of his righteousness, and of his unchangeable righteousness, which art, and shalt be, because thou hast judged them: And the reason of it (he gives) is taken from the equity of the law of retaliation, in the 6 ver. For they have shed the blood of Saints and Prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are worthy. The second Testimony
The third Vial.

...imony by which this pouring out of the Viall is amplified, (and the effect of it is justified) is by another Angell out of the Altar in the 7. ver. who faith Amen to this: Even so Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. For the meaning of the words.

The sea being Religion, the confluence of ordinances, such ordinances as are dispensed in any religion: The rivers and fountains of water that spring from the sea, and return to the sea, and derive all their springs and waters from thence, they are (and it is generally so received, and therefore with more freedom of spirit a man may declare it) these rivers, and fountains of waters are generally conceived to be the Priests, and Ministers of the Popish Church, who carry Popish Religion, as Fountains and Rivers do the Sea, up and down the earth; so do they Popish Religion, up and down the Nations, carry it to and fro, only there is this difference between them, and ordinary rivers and fountains, ordinarily rivers and fountains are fresh, though the sea be salt, but here the fountains & rivers are salt and brackish also; as these salt springs be, that run through salt minerals, which are of like nature with the sea, and these keep their brackishness still: And so it is with these rivers and fountains, they run through the earth, on which the first Angel poured out his vial; they run through the cursed earth, as it is plagued of God, and therefore still retains the like unwholesome streams which are found in the bloody sea: And therefore it is said, that as the sea became bloody, so these rivers also became bloody, and carried but the like kind of water which they received from the sea, corrupt. As the Religion it selfe is corrupt, so are these fountains and rivers, the Priests and Jesuites, whether secular or regular, that is, the Parish Priests of their Churches, or Regular Monkes that are in Religious Orders, or who ever are sent forth by these, they are these rivers and fountains of waters that run to and fro to fill all the world with their sea, with their Religion. It is the same word which the Apostle Peter hath in expressing the nature of false teachers, though there it is wells, yet the words are both one, They are wells without water, meaning, without water of life, carrying their owne drugs and dregs, 2 Pet. 2. 17. A fit expression (therefore) of such kind of Priests or Prophets, as doe convey unwholesome liquor or water up and downe a country. Now of these it is said, that on the pour-ring out of this vial, they became bloud, not onely in regard that their waters themselves are bloud, the doctrine and worship which they doe hold forth to the people are corrupt, as their sea is, (like the plague in Egypt, when their waters and rivers were turned to bloud) but that chiefly in regard of the punishment which they inflict on them for so doing, which is a bloudy death, as bloud is expounded in the 5. and 6. verses, where the Angel of the waters saith, Thou art righteous, O Lord, &c. because thou hast judged thus : Why ? For they have shed the bloud of Saints and Prophets, and thou hast given them bloud to drinke, for they are worthy : So this is bloud which God hath given them to drinke. And that is an usuall phrase, to give a man bloud to drinke, is to kill him : As Tomyris of old said to King Cyrus, Thou haft been a bloud-thirsty man, drink thou bloud which thou hast thirsted. When you give a man bloud to drink, you put him to death. So this Angel, who ever it was, that poured out this vial, he puts these Priests to death, he gave them bloud to drink, both made themselves to undergoe a bloudy death, to drinke bloud, and also made all that received and entertained them, to drinke bloud too; and this was effectually accomplished by Queene Elizabeth, when in the 27. yeare of her reign, in the yeare 1581. by the consent of the Parliament, she made it a Law, that if any Priest or Jesuite, that had received Orders from the Sea of Rome, or any authority from that Sea, should come into the Realme, and goe about or practice to seduce any of the Queenes loyall Subjects from their allegiance, to the obedience of the Sea of Rome, or practice to draw them to that religion, he should be judged guilty of high treason, and suffer in the case of a Traitor; And this was another branch of that Statute, That if any gave entertainment to such Priests and Jesuites (after certain dayes,) and knew them to be such, should suffer as in case of Felonie, without the benefit of his Booke; so that both of them must drinke bloud, both the Jesuites and Priests themselves, and their abettors and entertainers; and the ground was, because they had bloudy intendments in their comming, intending to kill the Queene, or corrupt the State with unwholsome and pernicious Doctrine, to draw the people from their allegiance, to the obedience of the Sea of Rome, that so as it was said, a generation of Catholiques was the corruption of her subjects: To prevent which mischief, this Law was enacted, and so upon this occasion, many suffered that year, and others in after years, most part of her Raigne.

Now what is then the meaning of the next words, I heard the Angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus: so it was bloud recompenced with bloud. This Angel of the waters, it was he or she that poured out this vial on these waters: She with the consent of her Council, and Parliament, they were this Angel of the waters that had this power over these rivers and fountains, and this was accomplished two or three years after, when she set Secretary Cicill on work to write a Booke with this Title, Justitia Britannica, The Justice of Britain, wherein Secretary Cicill, by her appointment, doth make it cleare to all neighbour Nations, (and for that end published his Book in sundry Languages, French, Dutch, and Spanish) that what was decreed in that Parliament was just, according to the Law of God, and the true principles of Christian State Policie, that there was no hope of safety to the Queenes Person, or of peace to the Common wealth, or of liberty to true Reformed Religion, if such persons were suffered to goe up and downe in that pestilentious manner, to pervert and corrupt the people, and withdraw them from their Allegiance, and subject them to the Bishop of Rome; that they did not suffer meerely on point of Religion, though on those points of their Religion which gave them occasion to to work, he doth not deny that neither, but in respect that the frame of their Religion was not compatible to any Protestant State: And the very Booke itselfe holds forth this in effect, that the Lord was just herein; and as the Text here tells us, Thou art righteous, O Lord, because thou hast judged thus: And he attributes not onely righteoufnesse to God in this, but immutability, and constancie, which art, and wast, and shalt be alway. The same from the ancient Law of retaliation, in the 24. of Leviticus, 19, 20, 21. it is there ordained, that look what a man doth to others, it shall be so done to him, Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, &c. They gave thy Prophets.
The third Vial.

and Saints blood to drinke, and now thou hast given them blood to drinke: This is the reason why he acknowledgeth this not only righteous, but according to his old and ancient proceeding, his righteousness ever since Moses his time, and since the world began: that is God's manner, Gen. 9. 4, 5. He that sheds mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed: God alway hath been of that mind; They that put others to death, that shed innocent blood, THEIR BLOOD SHALL GOE FOR THEIR BLOOD, Gen. 9. 6. to that purpose justly speaks that book: it is that which they have found, for they are worthy.

And when he adds further, I heard another Angel out of the Altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments: That is another Angel, a Minister and Messenger of God's justice. This phrase, out of the Altar, in this Book, doth usually hold forth some under-persecution, either going, or new come out of persecution: for so it is expressed in the 6. Rev. 9. I saw under the Altar the souls of them that were slain for the Word of God, and for the testimony which they held. The Altar is Christ, and Christ suffering; and those under the Altar, are they that suffered with Christ for the Word of God, speaking of the Primitive Christians in their first persecution: But here he doth not say, they were under Martyrdom, but they were come out from under the Altar; And that holds forth those Christians in the Low-countreys, who of a long time had been under persecution by Duke Dalva, and other Spanish Princes; Duke Dalva boasts of it, there were 36000. that he had put to death, Hugonites and Protestants; Judge you what the rest might also do; and all for the testimony of Jesus, for holding forth true Protestant Religion; but they were all rescued by the faithfulness of God, giving and blessing the courage of Q. Elizabeth: and now they are got out from under the Altar, and now they are freed from wrestling with such great difficulties as had been like to sink them, if God had not by his stretched out arm rescued them. And looke as in 1584. Cicill set forth that book, so this Angel from under the Altar set forth a Law in 1586. where in by the consent of all the States generally of the confederate Provinces, they enact and enjoyne, that none of the bloody sect of the Jesuites, nor any of their Scholars, whether he be stranger, or borne in the Land, shall have liberty to come into the Country, but be put to capittall punishment as an enemy to the State; and they have been in some measure carefull of that Law, though more in Grave Maurice his time, then since; and so they justly say Amen to the Queens Law, that as she put those Popish Emissaries to the paine of High Treason, hanging, drawing, and quartering, and thus gave them bloud to drink; so this Angel from out of the Altar saith Even so, he saith Amen to it, let it even be so with them, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements; they acknowledge Gods Almighty power, that had given them power to make that Law against them, who had so lately suffered under them; and acknowledge Gods righteous judgements; for that State that makes a Law to the same purpose, which they have found enacted in another State, they doe say Amen to what hath been done, and both the one State and other acknowledge it to be a righteous judgement of God, and the administration, a just law, and a just execution. This (as others have done before me) I take to be the naturall and true meaning of this Vial in the severall parts thereof, without wresting of the words, nor need it be offensive to any that such particular persons are named as the accomplishers of this Vial, considering the matters were not of small importance, but of great consequence and admiration, all states rang of these laws, and it raised all Christendom in combustion, the wars of eighty eight, the Spanisch invasion had speciall respect to this, and had not the Lord borne wittnesse to his people and their Law, in defeating the intendments of their enemies, against both the Nations, it might have been the mine of them both: So you see the meaning of the words of the Text.

The words are many, and though containing much matter in 4 verses, I shall shortly contract and recollect the substance contained in them into one note, and handle that one at this time, as conceiving all the doctrine of these words may be grasped together in one Observation; For though there be liberty of entering into common places of Gods righteousnesse and immutability, and of his justice in retaliation, and of his omnipotencie, out of this Text; yet all these particulars have been spoken to in the former Chapter, in the third verse, and in the fourth, Lord God Almighty, just and true are thy wayes, thou King of Saints. That for God being ever the same, which was and is to come, we have spoken to it divers times before in this book; and therefore though they be Catechism points, which my place calleth me to attend upon; yet I shall not here speak to them, having so lately handled the most of them, but therefore I will only speak to this Doctrine, which contains all the verses. This is the note then,

That upon the discovery of the deadly corruption of the Religion of the Sea of Rome, it was a righteous judgement of God, and such as argued him unchangeable ever, like himselfe; That the Priests and Jesuites who carried that Religion up and down the Nations, should be adjudged or condemned to a bloody death. This is the summe.

For so you see it is upon the discovery of their sea of blood, of the Religion of the Sea of Rome, to be a Sea of blood. We opened and hewed before, that The second Angel poured out his vial on the sea; that is, on the Religion of the Sea of Rome, and discovered it to be as the blood of a dead man, made it manifestly appear, that both their doctrine, and worship, and government, was deadly, and such as was utterly unwholesome, both for private families and States, Church and Common-wealth; and so corrupt, as was deadly; who ever lived and dyed in that Religion, lived an hypocrite, and dyed a reprobate. Now the next Angel that comes, upon this discovery, he pours his vial on the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood: That is, they make Laws to adjudge all that carry that Religion up and down the Nation, to be guilty of blood, and therefore to be put to death, as Traitors and Rebels against the State. And this is acknowledged by the Angels of God, I mean those that are Ministers of Gods Justice, and approve this testimony as authenticall; they acknowledge this a righteous judgement of God, as he that is, was, and shall be alway one and the same. Thus he was wont to carry it, and thus he doth still. In old time, if a man played the false Prophet, and suggested such devices as these, the Lord judged him to death, this was his manner: And so in the New Testament, as in the Old, he condemns all such to death, (and he is most righteous in so doing.) This is the summe.

It was a great while before this, though not full two thousand years, when Zachary prophesied, that God would cut off the false Prophet, in the 13. Zach. 2, 3. and if there were any false Prophet should arise, his father and mother should thrust him through, through, because he spoke lyes in the name of the God of truth, he should not live. And they speak not of his Typical death, that is, of his death by Church censure, or banishment, which have a kind of death in them; but they speak of such a death, as that he was not worthy to live; To cast a lye upon the God of Truth, the Oracle of Truth. But long before Zachary, this was an ancient law of Moses in the 13. Deut. this was a law, that false Prophets, they that turned Religion to the blood of a dead man, that did fundamentally pervert Religion, they should not live. And mind the reason that God gives here, partly in this text, and partly in other Scriptures.

It is taken from the hainousneffe of blasphemy in the 24. Lev. Ref. 1.

16. He that blasphemeth the name of God, shall surely be put to death. Every blasphemer shall be put to death. Now we cannot excuse Popish Priests and Jesuites from grosse blasphemy, they that are acquainted with the Ladies Psalter and Orisons made to her, cannot but acknowledg sundry blasphemous speeches in it, they make their Prayers to the Virgin Mary that shee would requent her Father, and command her Sonne, and that by the power of a mothers right to forgive their sinne, which if this be not blasphemy, I confess I know not what is, and in a high degree, unless they should say, he were no God at all, and that falls not far short of it, to set a creature above God, and yet this is allowed as good devotion in the Church of Rome: It is true, if a man blaspheme out of ignorance, as Paul did, in the 1 Tim. 1. 13. or if a man blaspheme unwillingly, as he did unwittingly, not knowing what he did, and he did compell some to blaspheme, Act. 26. 11. why if he compell them to Blaspheme. those that are compelled, they doe it unwillingly, but if men wittingly blaspheme, knowing what they do, knowing Jesus is God as well as man, and hath power to forgive sins as he is God, and know the Virgin Mary hath neede of a Saviour, as all the daughters of men have, that they shall put upon her the power to command her Sonne to forgive sinnes, this is such blasphemy, that hee that will stand to it, let him die the death; his blood shall bee upon him: If high treason against Princes on earth, may justly be punished by death, verily, this is as dishonourable to the Lord of Heaven, and Prince of all the Princes of the earth.
A second reason is taken from the point of seducement: As all blasphemous heretics, so seducing heretics are to be put to death. In that respect that whole 13. of Deut. is spent about the seducing of false prophets: and he puts a threefold gradation, _If he be a Prophet,_ (therefore though never so seemingly holy by his place and gifts,) yet if _he turn you away from the Lord your God, and draw you from the ways of God,_ what then? _thine eye shall not spare him, he shall surely be put to death,_ from the 1. ver. to 5. from the 6. ver. to 11. _he will have no mercyses of blood to hinder from due execution of Justice:_ but if _it be thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thy own soule that shall goe about to seduce thee secretly, saying, let us goe and serve other Gods which thou hast not known, thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him, thine eye shall not spare him; neither shalt thou conceal him, but thou shalt surely kill him, thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, &c._ from the 12. ver. to the end. If there be never so many that shall joyn, if a whole City shall joyn together in such a course, thou shalt rise against, and destroy the City, and burne it with fire, and leave not a stone upon a stone which shall not be thrown down, in utter detestation of that wickedness: And he gives a notable reason for it, why a seducer should be thus dealt withall, because, faith he, he seekes to turne thee away from thy way, and to thrust thee away from the Lord thy God, to turne thee off either by deceit, or to thrust thee off by earnest perswasions; and therefore lest you should think these false prophets faile onely in the object of worship, and not in manner of worshipping, therefore consider in the 22. Ios. when the two tribes and a halfe set up an Altar by Iordan, although they thought not they would bring in another object of worship, but another manner of worship, (here is but another way of worship, whether mediation or satisfaction of Gods wrath devises,) the whole ten Tribes rise up, and send a sufficent Company or Troop of Militarie men to goe and expostulate with them, and know whether it were true; and either they would reclaime them from it by argument, or make warre against them; and they had cut off two Tribes and an halfe, if they had found another Altar for worship: Now he that lets up another Mediator or Mediation, Saint or Angel, he lets up as great a matter as another Altar; or he that brings in other mens merits, merits, he brings in another Altar: Therefore by the ancient Lawes of that unchangeable God that thought it unsufferable in those dayes, he thinks it unsufferable now that Priests and Jesuites should bring in other Altars, other Mediations and Mediators, as Prayers of Saints and Angels; the Lord looks at it as deeply meritorious of a bloody death, as in former times. He is the same God, and his zeale and jealouzie is deeply provoked against the like kind of viciousnesse now as ever it was then. That is a second Argument.

And yet in point of seducement, this I will say, that if a man upon conviction shall see the wickednesse of his way, and humble his soule before God, and give satisfaction to the Church and State where he shall be convinced, on such conviction and repentance, we find liberty to pardon; but yet stigmatize him, as in the 13. of Zach. If the Prophet shall repent, and say, I am no Prophet, nor the sonne of a Prophet, but an Husbandman, and my father taught me to keep beasts or sheep, and therefore he will not wear a rough garment to deceive; And if any man ask him, What are those wounds in thine hands? he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends, Zach. 13. 4, 5, 6. That shews in such a case they saved his life, but they inflict some punishment on him, to carry away with him. And this is spoken not of the dayes of the Old Testament, but it is written to be done when there is a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the Inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sinne and for uncleanness, in the 1. ver. And in the 7. ver. when the Lord calls for a sword against his Shepheard, and against the man that is his fellow, the Lord Jesus Chrit, and his companions his discipels, He will smite the shepheard, and the sheep shall be scattered, (and those are the dayes of the New Testament) in those times it is, when the Prophets shall be thus cut off that rise up to seduce the people of God.

And a third Reason is taken from the due desert of foulmurthere: There is none of all these Priests, or Jesuites, or Heretiques, that sin in the like kind, corrupting the precious truth of God, in the very foundations of it; but they worry and devour the soules of Gods people, I mean those that should not die, (though Gods elect cannot be seduced) yet those whom we ought to looke at, that should not be thus murthered, and brought to death by such means. In the 7. Mat. 15. Beware of false Prophets which come unto you in sheeps cloathing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves: Is it not an acceptable service to the whole Countrey to cut off the ravenous wolves? what is the wolf to the sheep? is he not the very death of them all that he lights on, or fall in his jaws? so is it with the sheeps of Christ, that fall into the jaws of these Romish ravenous wolves.

It is said of those false teachers, 2 Timoth. 2. 18. They destroyed the faith of some, who concerning the truth, have erred. And in the 2 Pet. 2. 1, 2, 3, he tells us, There shall be false teachers amongst them, that shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and shall bring upon themselves swift destruction, &c. They shall make merchandise of you, as the Church of Rome, and her fountains and rivers doe; they make merchandise of the soules of men, Rev. 18. 13. Now to make merchandise of an Israelite, as in the 21. Exod. 16. it is a capitall crime, He that stealth a man, and killeth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death. Now they fell men, and engage them to perpetuall bondage, under their tyrannie, both in doctrine, and worship, and government. This murther of soules is justly a capitall crime; as Moses said before, If they thrust thee from thy God, and will not let thee walk with him, let not thine eye spare such kinde of corrupters and desperate deluders.

Reaf. 4. The fourth reason is taken from that which the Institut Britannia stands most upon; and becomes States-men to doe; and that is the conspiracie and treason against the State: And that unavoidably, by sufferung such locust to run up and downe the Countrey, to poison the hearts of men, by their corrupt wayes and meanes: for these Ministers, they doe unavoidably, not accidentally, but they unavoidably draw men from their Allegeance due to their Native Prince, to a foraine State: For if a Prince should profess Protestant Religion, (which is the true Religion) and thereupon be excommunicate by the Bishop of Rome, what then? then by the Lawes of their State he is deposed from his throne.

And they doe notably abuse the old type of Leprosie for this: Veziah being once smitten with leprosie, then the High Priest removes him from the Temple of the Lord, and he

he may not be suffered any more to govern; for if once the Lord smite a man with leprosye in his judgement, (and indeed, let herefi be one kinde of leprosye) if the Priest pronounce him so, then he is cut off from the government of the Countrey, then his people are not subject to him, and so subjects are freed from their fidelity to their natural Prince, which is a notable abuse of that place: For God doth not intend that the authority of any Minister or Priest in the Old or New Testament should so farre prevale, that what they did in the Old Testament to Uzziah, should take off Princes from their Government in the New: For even in the Old Testament they still retained the Crown, though their power of execution was delegated to another; and that not by the High-Priests appointment, but by himselfe.

But as things were with them, so though not in the same kinde, but in a typicall way, it befalls Princes in the New Testament. If a man were found a Leper in the Old Testament, hee was sequestred from the administration of his Kingdom, and from his owne house, Leviticus 13.46. he must not live in the Campe, or in the Towne or Village, but alone, and in a separate place by himselfe, (as those that are sick of the Pestilence in our Native Countrey) they are not suffered to live in the towne, but in Pest-houses, unless there be a general infection.

But this thing must not be applyed in the letter to the State of the Church, in the New Testament; for Leprosye was not onely a type of scandalous, infectious sins, but it was also a bodily, noysome, infectious diseaue, and made a man unfit for civill commerce.

Moreover, as Leprosye was also a type of scandalous and infectious sinnes, so the sequestring of Uzziah from the Temple, doth type forth, not that Christian Kings should be separate from their thrones; For he that gives to a man a Kingdom, or any earthly estate, doth not debarre that man from his house, if he be a private man, nor from his government, if he be a publique person.

But what is the Kingdom that is typed out?

It is the Kingdom of the glory of Christ Jesus: If therefore hee be shut out from the holy Temple... of Israel, he is shut out from the Kingdom of Heaven indeed, that is true; for what is done by the Churches of God on earth, is bound in Heaven: But yet Christ Jesus never thought it meete to separate any by any Church power, from communion with his wife and children, those whom nature bound him to; nor from his servants and subjects, whom civil engagements bound unto him; but only from interest in the spiritual communion of the seals of immortality, and yet but for a season, for the healing of his soule, not for the destroying of his person or state, but otherwise to exclude them from their own houses, or Kingdomes, or from any civil right, it was never Gods counsel nor meaning in the New Testament: But now the contrary being the doctrine of the Church of Rome, and on that ground justified. When Princes are excommunicated, they doe depose them, and being deposed, discharge subjects from their allegiance, and then judge you what treason redounds to Christian Princes, and what conspiracie and rebellion groweth in the state of a Kingdom, when some take part with the King depo- sed, and others with him that is substituted by the Pope; and so there is Treason both against Prince, and State, and Kingdom.

And therefore it is an ancient justice of God, that hath so ordered it, that those that draw Gods people from the Allegiance of their Prince, shall be judged Traitors, and suffer paine of death.

Reaf. 5. And for a fift reason, (mentioned in the Text) it is taken from the law of retaliation; that look how men have dealt with others, they should be so dealt withal themselves. Now these Priests and Jesuites, and their Abettors, in the time of Queene Mary, and Henry the eighth, and all the Kings since, the Statute against Lollards in England, as also against the Hugonites in France, if a man were suspected of heretickall pravity, and pronounced guilty thereof by the Church, he was to be delivered to the secular power; onely he might have leave to consider of it: But if he fell againe, there was no hope of mercie, but he must looke for bloud, as if he were no better then a child of death: And yet they were men that never troubled the State, but quietly suffered for their Religion and Conscience: So that these Jesuites and Priests, delivering up so many innocent Lambs of Christ, Ministers of the Gospel, and holy Saints, to the Secular power, to be burnt at the stake in Smithfield, and elsewhere, and the Abettors of these Priests and Jesuites, being very zealous to cut off such Lollards from the land of the living, it is just and right with God, They have given by Saints and Prophets blood to drink, and therefore looke as they have measured to others, it is measured to them, by the ancient Law of God, that is the same, and will be for ever, Rev. 13.10. He that killeth with the sword, must be killed by the sword. So you see this point is plain. That upon the discovery of the deadly corruption of the Religion in the Romish Sea, it was the righteous judgement of God, and such as argued him to be unchangeable, and ever the same, that the Priests and Jesuites which carried the waters of that Sea, that Religion up and downe the Nation, should be condemned to a bloody death: you see the truth of the point, and the reasons of it.

For the use of the point, it may first serve to justify the holy use, and righteous equity of all those laws above mentioned, whether in England or Holland, for putting Popish Priests and Jesuites to death, and there was a like law also made in France, upon the murder of Henry the fourth, that all Jesuites should be put away out of the Countrey, and their studies demolished, &c. but they made it in policie: But the Text speakes of England and Holland, it was a just and righteous law, that these rivers and fountains of waters should become blood: you see there is blasphemy in their worship against the Lord Jesus Christ, they doe seduce the people of God, and turne them from the Lord, and thrust them from him, by their justification by workes, by their callings on Saints and Angels, and trusting in other Nmediators besides the Lord Jesus in the intercession of Saints and Angels: It hath beene a just hand of God, that they that worry (like ravenous wolves) the soules of Gods people, should themselves be worried: that they that have made fire-brands of Christians, should drinke blood themselves; they that over-whelmed Christians in confusion and tumult, it is just with God, that they should be overwhelmed; they that have beene so busie in putting to death innocents, that they should also be put to death: you see this is just with God, it is well becoming to the unchangeable righteousness of God: thus it was in the old Testament, and why should it be changed in the new?

You will say it was but a typicall matter then, and you must

Why I pray you Brethren consider,

1. The Papists are not of that mind, but they execute it in the letter; they have put to death the Prophets and servants of God in the letter; hunted them up and downe; the Inquisition is incomparably more bloody than any other. They do not, nor may not plead any such thing; they believe it is true in the letter. And let me say further, the holy Ghost makes it as true in the letter; this Text is in the New Testament, not in the Old, Thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are worthy: and he speaks of the very blood of the hearts of men: And it is parallel with God's justice of old; it was just then, and it is just now. Zachary intends the days of the New Testament, though written in the Old, that when a fountain is opened to the house of David, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sinne and for uncleannesse, then the father and mother of a false Prophet shall accuse him to the Magistrate, and shall say unto him, He shall not live. Was it an abomination then to speak lyes in the Name of the Lord, and no less than blasphemy, and shall it be more favourably interpreted now? A man may now speak a lye, and bring in a false Christ, a false Mediator, and false means of satisfaction, and false merits; now he may without peril of his life, in the Old Testament he might not. Why but was it not sufficient to have a spiritual judgment? Even they had spiritual judgments then; but God saw it meet to inflict some temporal judgment as well as spiritual, and is now his judgment changed?

Besides, are not Moses Morall Lawes of perpetuall equity, and therefore to be observed in all Ages? Is blasphemy more tolerable in the New Testament, or thrusting men away from God? Is it not as odious now as then? Is not murder of soules as damnable now as then? Is not conspiracie and sedition as damnable and capital now as then? Is not the law of retaliation as just in the New Testament as in the old? and therefore a man would wonder that such frivolous interpretations should come into the hearts of men, to hinder the free passage of the justice of God, on such notorious offenders.

Ob. But you will say, Conscience should not be forced, and men should not be put to death for their conscience.

Answ. Why doe you thinke Heretiques were not as conscionable in the

the Old Testament as now? If any man had a conscience to turn men from God, he would have men of as much conscience to cut them off; if they make no conscience of the blaspheming the name of God, the Lord would have men make no conscience of cutting them off from breathing in the air of God; if men make no conscience of murthering souls, or raising sedition, and murthering men better than themselves, the Lord would have men make no conscience of paying every man in his owne kind.

But let me answer again, But mark what I say, the Lord will easily provide for this, and so he doth: and in England I am sure he hath, (what in Holland I know not, but) he hath provided there, That if a Jesuite or Priest, or their abettors, shall come in, and take the oath of fidelity to the State, and so carry matters before some Justice of Peace, the Law dischargeth them from capitall punishment: And the Law of God in the New Testament is, that such should be once or twice admonished, but if he still continue, the Apostle would have him cast out of the Church; the Church hath no farther power; if they be proceeded with farther, it must be by the Magistrate: Him that is an heretique, after once or twice admonition, reject, knowing that he that is such, is subverted, &c. So that it must be for Fundamental Articles of Religion in doctrine or worship, which are so clearly delivered in the Word, that no man that understands Scripture, and the ways of salvation, but may be satisfied in conscience what is the holy and acceptable will of God in such points; and therefore he takes it for granted, if a man be once or twice admonished, he is convinced of himselfe, he is subverted, he is turned off from the foundation, that now no man is put to death for his conscience, but for sinning against the light of his conscience; his owne conscience hath convinced him, and the light of the Word is so cleare, as cannot but convince him, that the way of God runnes just quite contrary to his interpretation and seducement: And therefore now if you sinne, you sinne against conscience, and therefore you justly suffer for being subverted, and turned off from the foundation, from Christ Jesus, and holding another foundation, and persisting therein obstinately. So there are two things in an heretique, he is both subverted himselfe, as an house from the foundation, it is against the foundation of Religion; and and he holdeth out obstinately against light of conscience, with stubbornness; and now in such a case thine eye shall not spare him. A soul that sins of ignorance, may be pardoned, but if he still continue obstinate, thine eye shall not spare him; the wrath of God now goes out against a person, against a City; if it were against a Tribe, they go about by force of Armes to redresse it; they shall not suffer such in a Country. This is then the Answer to the second Objection, and still justifies the equity of that Law.

Obj. 3. There is a third Objection, Ay, but is it not written, that you shall suffer tares to grow with the wheat, lest while ye gather up the tares ye root up also the wheat with them? Mat. 13:30. Now our Saviour tending to clemencie and moderation, he saith, Let both grow together untill the harvest, &c.

Añsw. Ay, but tares and wheat, they may grow together, but he doth not say, ye may suffer bryars and thorns to grow with them, for then you choak all the wheat: And therefore it hath been a false interpretation of the Popish sort, and taken up by the Ana-baptists, that tares signifie indifferently all sorts of wicked men; but I know none that expound them better then Jerome, and none so well; the tares are very like the wheat in Jury; what they are in other Countries I know not, but they are like to the wheat there, and you will not know the difference in the green blade, nor in the spindling, untill it grows towards the harvest, then you will finde it but an empty ear and thin, and yet it grows so close with the other wheat, and like it, that if you pluck it up, you may pluck up the wheat with it, let therefore both grow together untill the harvest.

What is then meant hy Tares? Not such as sinne through obstinacie, but hyhocrites that are like the servants of God, that you would think they are such; after you discover them, they are empty ears, and hollow, have no fatnesse of graine, and that is indeed none of the wheat. Now let Hypocrites grow together with the Elect, doe not cast them out meerly for hypocrisy, though you finde them halting, unless they break forth to scandalous behaviour, either in doctrine, or worship, or conversation, as they appear to be bryars and thornes; if they be manifest fruits of the curse, away with them, Why cumber you the ground? for else you shall neither have Church censure, nor cal-vill to stand. Such notorious wicked persons, adulterers, Idolaters, railers, refractory and scandalous persons, drunkards, and the like, are not tares; we must not abuse Scripture, that because tares and hypocrites are suffered, therefore refractory, scandalous, notorious wicked men and heretics may be suffered; no, that is not the meaning, they are not ears, you may see them afar off, you shall not need to fear rooting up the wheat by cutting off them, the wheat is nothing like them. So you see the first Use, to justify the equity and sovereignty of such capital punishments on priests and Jesuits, and consequently on such as bring in other Gods, or another way of worshipping the true God, then that wherein we may enjoy fellowship with the true God, the justice and suitableness of it to the holy will of God, since there were any laws made amongst God's people.

For a second Use, it may serve to reprove the carnal and sinful foolish pity that is found in any State, that shall be sparing of spilling such blood of the priests and Jesuits: It is you see contrary to the unchangeable justice of God; the Lord loathes this kind of lenity, and gentleness, and indulgence, and toleration of such kind of persons, and ordinary receiving of them; if men will suffer such in the State, truly they shall do it to the subversion of their own safety and dignities, and disturb their whole State. It is a very sad speech which the Lord utters in the 48. Jer. 10. Cursed is he that doth the work of the Lord negligent; and cursed is he that keepeth back his sword from blood, when the Lord calls us to sheath the sword of Authority in such kind of delinquents as these be; if we shall now spare them, and neglect this work of God, cursed be such. A State shall be separate from God, and a kingdom more and more corrupt and leavened, by such toleration; the wrath of God will break forth, tumults, and seditions, and all kind of scandalous, and unrighteous, and ungodly proceedings will set a whole kingdom in combustion, Church and Commonwealth at variance: There can be no peace to such a State, where such persons are tolerated: And therefore we may fear the righteous hand of God, in disturbing the Country whereunto we owe so much love and faithfulness, if there be a suspending of the holy and righteous Law of God; that these rivers and fountains should drink of blood, for they are worthy.

Thirdly, this may serve to teach all Magistrates and Governours in every Commonwealth, to looke that all your laws, be righteous lawes: If you will act any thing justly, the Lord takes it as his act, he is the actor of it. And therefore though this Law was made by Queene Elizabeth, with the consent of the whole body of the Parliament, and though her Secretary, by her direction and consent, published the justice of the Law, the Text faith, it is the Lord, Thou art just and righteous, just and true are thy wayes, because thou hast judged thus: They have shed the blood of Saints and Prophets, they have given them blood, and thou hast given them blood to drinke, for they are worthy. Even so, faith another Angel, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements. If there be any wholesome and just Law in a Kingdome, the Lord owns it as his owne, and it is to be obeyed as a righteous Law of God; if it be unjust, it is not Gods, for his law is just, an adequate rule of righteousness. So that what ever is lesse then the Law of God, if it suit not with the Law of God, and keep correspondencie therewith, you cannot say it is a Law of God: Therefore Law givers, and Law makers, should ever have respect what doth the Lord our God say: If it be Gods Law, and Gods will, let it be establishd; if not, let it be antiquitated: But if you can finde a hint from the Law of God for it, then let it stand.

And fourthly, this must teach confederate States, or such States, whether neere for co-habitation, or farther off; if they heare of others proceedings, it is good to confirme what they have justly done. Queene Elizabeth makes a Law in the yeere 84. against Priests and Jesuites, the Decree is righteous, when others heare of this righteous section, they make it also a capitall crime for any such persons to be found amongst them; if it be capitall in England, it is so in Holland, they will require it of the necks of them that shall be found delinquent. What then? This is Even so, one State must say, Even so upon the just act of another; and they must record it in their Statutes, unlese there be some apparent dissimilitude, which is not in case of this nature; for there is the same equity in all Ages, and all Nations, and therefore it is for them to say Amen, or Even so to it: And what is that? It is no more but this, If you enact a Law which is in another Countrey, you say Amen to Gods justice in your own Countrey, as others doe in theirs.

The fifth Ufe that you may make of this Point, is, to teach you a tender respect in all lawes to the judicia of Moses, to all the judiciaall
The third Vial.

Judicial laws of Moses, that are built upon moral equity; that is, where the reason of a Law holds in one Nation as well as in another; in the New Testament as in the Old. There are sundry Laws particular to that Polity, which had peculiar reasons for them, as to marry in their kindred, to keep their inheritance to their Tribe, we have not that reason: But where the Laws are of like moral reason, as will hold in all Ages, and in all Countries, as it is in all the capital Laws of Moses, there is no reason why a Jew should be put to death for point of Adultery, or Incest, or for stealing a man, and selling him to a Pagan, more then a Christian. I say therefore, look what was the Law of God by Moses, if it were of perpetual reason and equity, it lies on every Commonwealth to establish the same, and to take yourselves as much bound to it as the Jews, why? for the Text tells us, the very righteousness of God is in it: And looke as he was then a hater of all wickedness with a perfect hatred, and as he was just, so he is still, hereof is no more pleasing to him, nor blasphemy, nor seducing, nor to change the way of his worship, and to draw men to ways wherein they cannot enjoy the Lord in peace; murder of souls is no more welcome to him now, than of old. And therefore if there were a Law to punish such with capital punishment, it is a like justice of God to enjoyne such Laws in every Christian Commonwealth. And therefore if we look at Gods justice as unchangeable, we may not prevaricate judicial laws, setting aside some typical considerations, or some peculiar consideration, in regard of their Polity: But such as were to punish men by death, or were received on moral equity and ground, looke what was for them to doe there, is the same proportion for us; put the same case, and you will finde the like reason for the same punishment. It is true, some ceremonies were there punished with death, and so the like kind of profaning the Sabbath, is as justly punishable with us, if profaned with an high hand; to gather sticks with an high hand, in contempt of the Sabbath of the Lord, is as justly punishable with death now as then. And so you may say of any other law justly punishable by death, and that are built on perpetual moral equity, Our God is the same God that he was; and so you shall have him count that righteous whiles the world stands.

For a sixt. This may serve to take off a corrupt interpretation which some have made of this place, or a collection that they have have gathered from hence, that the Angels of God are deputed to severall offices; here is one Angel of the waters; and some are deputed to governe the earth, some fire, some the waters and seas, as I might tell you, if it were meet to trouble you with humane inventions, and collections of mens brains; the collection is chiefly grounded on this place, but it is wholly mistaken, for the Angel of the waters here is not any particular Angel of God, any of those heavenly spirits, but the Angels and Ministers of Gods justice, upon metaphorical seas and waters. It is true, those here were Governours of the narrow seas and she that gave commission to execute the righteous judgement of God upon those rivers, she was Admirall of the narrow seas, but that is not the meaning. But the Angel that poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, it is he or she that did execute the righteous judgment of God upon the Popish Priests and Jesuites; and that did both Queene Elizabeth, and he that had a great hand in executing that judgement, and the Angel from under the Altar, they ratified that Law, and justified it when they had done. Now it is true, the Angels of God assist the servants of God in this glorious work, but they are sent forth, indifferently, to protect Gods servants by sea or by land: And I finde no Scripture to shew that they are more particularly sent to the sea, or to the earth, but indifferently to protect Gods servants in their out-goings and in-commings.

Lastly, it may serve to teach us a true estimation of Ministers. If Popish Priests be rivers and fountains of waters, drinking blood, because they have made Gods servants and Prophets drink blood, then it shews what place other Ministers be in, where the sea is cleare as glasse, like chrystickall, where you may see the face of Christ as in a glasse, 2 Cor. 3.18. what then? where the sea is pure, all Ministers of the Countrey, and Elders of Churches, carry forth the doctrine and worship of Christ, they are as rivers and fountains, and being living water, rivers of fresh water, and water all the Countrey. This is the office of them, in opposition to those in 2 Pet. 2.17. that are wells without water, without sweet water. Godly Ministers therefore are fountains of sweet water, and from them issue forth streams of living water. In Psal. 83. ult. All my fresh springs are in thee. I would onely apply it thus, and leave it and the Text with the time: That therefore looke as a man when he would goe forth to to a new Plantation, or sit downe in any place; or if he would set his dwelling house in a place, he would wisely fore- cast to have a fountaine of living water, a living spring neere to his house, or some sweet spring run neere him. Why? If he be without fresh water, it is a great want for the provision of his household: Water they must have, either a fresh tiver, or a fresh spring, the one of the two; if they can have both, they covet both; and there is great need of both, not onely to quench fire, and water gardens, &c. but for boiling of meat and drink, washing of cloathes, and sundry victuals. Water is ever necessary, as any thing; nothing more. This is mens care, when they goe about Plantations, or whether they plant townes or villages, or their owne dwelling houses, they have a care to provide for fresh water. All I would say is this, Take heed you doe not provide for fountaines of ordinary water, and neglect rivers of sweet water: That is,beare of going about such work, without carrying such fountaines with you, as may from the sea of pure Religion, pure doctrine, and pure worship, carry forth some such sweet streams as may make glad the hearts of your families, and Church of God where you goe.

But you will say, Have not Christians so much liberty, a company of godly men liberty to enter into covenant, and make some beginning of things, and so call some or other, whom they know are well gifted men, furnished with gifts, may we not call them to come and help us, and have we not that liberty purchased by the bloud of the Lord Jesus?

All this is true brethren, I would infringe no part of it: One- ly this let me say, you would be loth to provide no better for temporals, you would be loth to set a towne where there are no rivers nor fountaines; and if you doe sit downe where there are no fountaines, yet you have liberty to fetch water from other places, Christ hath purchased it: True, he hath purchased all liberties for his Church, but you will not think it wisdome to sit downe where there are no rivers, because you have no right to them by the bloud of Jesus; that would not be a sufficient reason in things concerning this naturall life: why then doe not build further on the bloud of Christ for spirituall rivers, then you will doe for naturall; but rather prize spirituall rivers above naturall, as more worthy then all naturall comforts to be looked after. Therefore when ever you are about such a work as this, take take the Lord Jesus Christ along with you, and take rivers and fountains of waters; that as you look for rivers and fountains for the refreshment of your cattle, and servants, and children, you may finde a living fountain of the bloud of Christ, conveyed and running in the plantation where you intend to sit downe; otherwise you will finde the springs there, and the fountains and rivers you sit downe by, rise up in judgement against you, that these are the things you sought for, and out of regard to these, you left the fountains and rivers of Gods house, the ordinances of God behind you, and goe and live in the outmost corners of a countrey, or in some other countrey, all is one; Therefore sit downe no where without good Ministers, if it be possible, and sure possible it is, else Christians may resolve to tarry where they are, as Ezra tarried by the river Ahava, in the 8. of Ezra 15. till he had got some Levites to goe with them, that they might goe and make a comfortable worke of it, that they might not leave the Ordinances behind them; and yet there were some there before, whither they went. It is true, some may goe and make a beginning, but yet never make a beginning, but where you may come and partake of the waters of Gods house every Lords day, and let them that cannot so travel, let them continue where they are, and drink of the waters of eternall life, rather then run such hazards. You have seene when some have made a beginning without Ministers, they have staid three or foure yeeres before they have got any help, and when they have got them, they have had much adoe to settle; they have been suddenly unsettled, though they have not gone rashly about it, but with good advice: but for want of this there, not taking these rivers and fountains with them, they have been at a losse, and therefore in such a case let it be the wilddome of sincere hearted Christians, that come from old England for liberty and purity of Ordinances, not to leave them now for fresh medowes and fountaines: and for want of planting ground, and the like, it will not be suitable to these ends for which you left your native Countrey.
Revel. 16. 8, 9.

And the fourth Angel poured out his vial upon the Sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which had power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.

All the seven Angels that are described to pour out the seven Vials of the last fierce wrath, are all of them said to come out of the Temple of the Tabernacle opened in heaven in the 5 Verse of the 15 Chapter: That is to say, all of them to proceed, and to come forth out of reformed Churches, such as had gotten the victory over the Beast, and his Image, and his Name, and the number of his Name. In the 6 Verse of this Chapter, they are all of them further described, to be cloathed with pure and white linnen, and to have their breasts girded with golden girdles; that is to say, all of them to be cloathed with the righteousness of Christ (which is pure linnen) both justifying and sanctifying of them, the one imputed, the other inherent, and all of them to be sincere professors of the truth of Christ, their breasts girded with the golden girdles of truth. Further, they are all of them said to receive a command from
The fourth Vial.

from God to pour out the Vials of his wrath, and all of them to pour out the Vials of his wrath upon the earth, in the first Verse of this Chapter: and yet it was but the first that poured out his Vial upon the earth; for the second is said to pour it out upon the Sea; and the third upon the rivers and fountains; and the fourth (you read in my Text) upon the Sun; and the fifth upon the Throne of the Beast; and the sixth upon the great river Euphrates; and the last upon the air: yet all are commanded (the whole seven) to pour out the wrath of God upon the earth, in the first verse. The earth being opposed to the Church in heaven, the visible Church open in heavenly purity; it is so ta-taken for some earthly, carnall, Antichristian state, or Church: but when it is not opposed to heaven, but other elements, then it is the lowest of all the rest; and so it is according to this double opposition interpreted in this Chapter. If you look at the earth, as opposite to heaven, the heavenly pure Churches, so he means the earthly and Antichristian Church, the Romish Popish Church that then was. Now if you say, as in the first verse it is said, The first only poured out his vial upon the earth;
now you mean the lowest element of the Antichristian state,
the common Catholicks, whereupon there fell a grievous sore upon all that received the mark of the Beast, and worshipped his Image. When those holy servants, and faithfull Ministers of Christ did discover the corruption of Religion in common Catholicks, the Catholicks were afflicted with much confusion and indignation; as being convinced, they were bedabed with grosse superstition, ignorance, and idolatry, and many other evils which you have formerly heard: So that you see, the first of them fell upon the Beast; and so from the first to the last, the first began with the Beast; and in the last, Babylon is fallen, in the 19 Verse of this Chapter. So that all these Vials poured out the wrath of God upon something or other of the Beast; the first upon the common worshippers of the Beast; the second upon the Sea; that is, the confluence of all the Ordinances, that is, such Ordinances as the worshippers of the Beast have in their Religion; and they discovered that Sea to be but the bloud of a dead man, not to have the life of Christ in it:
And the third poured out his Vial upon the Fountains and Rivers of water, which are the Priests and Jesuits of that Church,
The fourth Vial.

which carry that Religion up and down the earth, as the Rivers and Fountains do the water of the Sea (and of these you heard at large the last day:) And look as the opening of the Seals (mentioned before in this Book) did open the wrath of God, and his judgements against the Roman-Pagan Empire, and the seven Trumpets did found out the wrath of God against the Roman-Christian Empire and Church; so these last Angels, with the last wrath in the seven Vials, they pour it all out upon the Antichristian Roman State: So that all the judgments in this Book are still upon Rome; either Rome Pagan, or Rome Christian, or Rome Antichristian; the one falls under seven Seals, the other under seven Trumpets, and this last under seven Vials: So that if the earth, upon which the first Angel poured out his Vial, be the common sort of Catholicks; and the Sea, upon which the second Angel poured out his Vial, be their Religion, and convinced it to be the blood of a dead man, and no life of the blood of Christ in it, to wash sin from the souls and consciences of men, nothing else but unwholesome and unfavourable choking corruptions, ready to destroy all that were washed in it, or drank of it. And the third Vial being poured out upon the Jesuits and Priests, they were thereby adjudged to capitall punishment (as you have heard) for they were forced to drink blood, as they were worthy, having caused the Martyrs of Christ to drink blood.

This fourth Vial therefore comes to be poured out upon something of the Beast, as all the rest of the Vials were: The fourth Angel poured out his Vial upon the Sun, to wit, something of the Beast, which resembles the Sun in his world, even as the Sun is the greatest light in this material world, which God created in the beginning. In these words then you may see described, the pouring out of the Vial of the fourth Angel, which is set forth by the subject upon which it is poured, Upon the Sun: Secondly, by the effect which followed upon that, He had power given him to scorch men with fire; and secondly, Men were tormented with great heat upon it. And a third Argument, by which this Vial poured out, is described; is the event which followed, and that is double, Men blasphemed the name of God; and God here described to have A 2 power power over these plagues, as an aggravation of that blasphemy, to blaspheme the name of God, that had power over these plagues. And secondly, they are described by another event, their Impenitencie, their not repenting, they repented not to give him glory: So that here the fourth Vial is poured out, Upon what? Upon the Sun. What is the effect of that? Power is given to that Angel, to scorch men with fire; and men were scorch’d with heat: and the event of it was, they that were so scorch’d, continued still impenitent, they repented not to give God glory; but on the contrary, blasphemed the name of the great God, that had power over these plagues.

For opening the meaning of the words briefly; By the Sun cannot here be meant, that body of the Sun that gives light to us in these visible heavens: For how shall an Angel coming out of the Temple, out of a reformed Church, pour out his Vial upon that Sun? Or if he should be able so to do, how should he work any distempered heat in it, but it would annoy reformed Churches as well as Antichristian? How will it reflect a peculiar plague upon Antichrist? It must therefore be some other Sun, and indeed such a Sun as is wrapped up under the general Notion of Earth; for all the Angels poured out their Vials upon the earth; they had no other Commission given them to pour out their Vials, but upon the earth, in the first Verse. And therefore he that poured out his Vial upon the Sea, it was but an earthly Sea, a worldly Sea; and hee that poured his Vial upon the rivers and fountains, did but pour it out upon earthly rivers and fountains: and therefore he that pours his out upon the Sun, doth but pour it out upon an earthly Sun, not an heavenly Sun; I mean not any spiritual Sun of heavenly brightness or glory: Minde therefore, that it cannot be allowed to interpret this Sun to be the Lord Jesus Christ, as some good Interpreters have expounded it, (he is indeed the Sun of true visible reformed Churches, but not of Antichristian:) Now will it be in like sort allowed, to interpret it of the Scriptures, (as some of our best Interpreters have expounded it) for these are but one; for the Scriptures reveal Christ, and the woman cloathed with the Sun, that is Christ, she is cloathed with him as he is revealed in the Scripture, 1 2 ReveL 1. But I do not see how it should well be allowed, allowed, that that should be the Sun here meant: For first, the Angels that pour out these Vials, are all godly men, at least generally so reputed, and accounted, and acknowledged by the Churches; they are clothed with pure white linen, which is the righteousness of the Saints, inherent and imputed: They are also girded with golden girdles, sincere professors of the truth; and how these can be imagined to pour out wrath upon the Lord Jesus, or the Scriptures, it is not to be believed or conceived.

And besides, all these had command to pour out the wrath of God on those subjects, upon which they poured out their Vials, as in the first Verse. Now God forbid we should conceive, that any wrath of God should be poured out upon Christ ever since his Resurrection, or that any wrath of God should be poured out upon the Scriptures: For although they that thus expound this Vial to be poured out upon the Sun, do not say that the wrath of God was poured upon the Sun, but upon the Antichristian state; yet the Text tells us, they poured out the Vials of the wrath of God upon that subject; that they poured them on, they poured them all upon the earth: So that all these things are but earthly matters, and such earthly matters as have been open justly to the wrath of God. It is therefore but an earthly sea, and they are but earthly rivers and fountains, and it is but an earthly Sun, and an earthly air, corrupt air, an unwholesome Antichristian air, upon which the Vials are poured. So that I cannot go so freely along with that Exposition, that the Sun here, is Christ revealed in the Scriptures, or the Scriptures revealing Christ.

If any man shall say, but the Sun spoken of in the Trumpets, was Christ in the Scriptures; or the Scriptures revealing Christ, & those Trumpets hold forth a like degree of judgement upon the Roman-Christian Empire, as here upon Antichristian Rome: For upon the founding of the first Trumpet, judgement falls upon the earth, common Christians: The second Trumpet founding, judgement falls upon the Sea, (as in the 8 Revel. 7, to 12.) And the third upon rivers and fountains: And the fourth Trumpet founding, did bring an hand of God upon the Sun, a third part of the Sun was smitten; that is, the Son Christ Jesus was much darkned in that degenerated Christian-state, and

and so it was with the Scriptures, with the Church state, and with humane Learning, they were all darkened, as it is there described: But (minde you) the Sun is one thing to a Church that hath truth in it, though degenerated; Christ was their light, though they were darkened, in a third part: But now when Religion is wholly corrupt, that all the whole Sea is the bloud of a dead man; now the world is altered, and if you have a new world, you must have a new Sun: That was a Christian world, and Christ might still be the Sun, and light of that, though in many degrees corrupted; and the Scriptures might be still the light of the world. But now when you come to an Antichristian world, so wholly degenerated, that there is no power of Christ to be seen, as they administer any Ordinance; now the case is so far changed, that you must look for another Sun in another world: Here is another earth, and another Sea, that Sea was not like the bloud of a dead man (though corrupt) but this is; and those waters, though their Teachers were corrupt, yet it was but a third part; but here all is become bloud, and they drink of bloud, for they are worthy. And here is another Sun in this new world, and what must that be? In a word, there be others that interpret it of the greatest and most illustrious light, most eminent and glorious light in the Antichristian world: And what may that be? If you look through all the Antichristian world, what should be the most eminent, and most glorious, and most illustrious light that shines in the greatest glory amongst them all? What doth more readily offer itself then the house of Austria, the chief governour in the Antichristian state, of eminent luster, and hath been so for twoo yeers, as they call it, the Lumen, and Column of that state, the light and pillar of that state? And they that so expound it, they wrote just in this time when the King of Sweden came forth to represent the Angel, he with his followers, to pour out a Vial of God's wrath upon the Imperial state of Germany, and consequently upon the rest of that house that were allied to them, whether Spaniards or others; and that to the provoking of so much indignation, you know what scornfull derisions they put upon him, as if he came in like a Tinker with his Copper money, rather then a worthy Generall; and you know what indignation
The fourth Vial.

tion and wrath hath been kindled by that means against all Germany: what a world of blood hath been spilt; how fire and sword hath pursued those attempts to this very day? What might be said against this Interpretation, is not much, but yet so much, as to make some addition to this Interpretation.

The Papists will by no means bear and acknowledge it, that any Civil state should be the most Illustrious light of their Religion; they will tell you that the Emperour is but a borrowed light from the Sun, and doth owe homage to the Pope for his Imperial Crown, that have translated the Empire from Greece to France, and from France to Germany; They will tell you, the Pope is as much above the Emperour, as the Sun is above the Moon. And they are not ashamed to speak to the Pope, in the amplification of his glory, Thou art the light of the world, the flower of Paradise, the gate of Heaven: And if they make the Pope their greatest light, their most transcendent and Illustrious light, the Sun in the primest and chiefest glory, then you must look and search somewhat further, for some further Interpretation then meerly the Imperial state, or the state of that same Family combined and united unto it.

And yet neither would I wholly wave that Interpretation of the Imperial state, because the matter is not what Papists will acknowledge, or what the Church of Rome will own, Whether they will own the Emperour to bee the primest and chiefest light, or others; for the holy Ghost speaks of things as they be, as well as how they are conceived to be.

Now in Scripture Interpretation, the greatest lights are Magistrates, that hold forth the greatest lulltre and splendor, but yet in the Churches; and when you speak of spiritual Administrations, they that are to derive light from Christ to the Church, they are the greatest lights for spiritual things: But wee come to speak therefore of the great light they set up, they set up him as the chiefest and greatest light, which derives light to the very Scriptures; for they conceive that they should not bee Authentickall, unlese.
unless the B: of Rome count them so; and if he do count them authentical, then they shall be so, though they be Apocrypha; and no sense of Scripture allowed for the light of truth, unless it be acknowledged by him; nor no Decrees go for current, unless he ratifie them: So that that which they take for the light of their world, is chiefly the Bishop of Rome: If then he be their greatest light, then this Angel pours his Vial of God's wrath upon the Pope his transcendent light, whereby he gives authority to the Scriptures, to Doctrine, to Worship, to Government, to Councils, and whereby he gives power to all his Officers, to administer Discipline and Church-power in all Christendom, (as they call it) all Christian Churches over. Then they are the Angels that pour out the Vial upon that Sun, that take from him that transcendent Prerogative of the Sun, which is to rule by day, 136 Psal. 8. Take then from him his rule by day; for you must speak of things metaphorically in this place, though in the Psalm is meant another Sun; but in this Sun, take from the Pope, from this Sun Popish rule of Religion, the rule of all Churches, the Sovereign power in all Ecclesiastical affairs; and what then? Then you will pour out a Vial of wrath upon him: And so did Queen Elizabeth in her time; and the Parliament then by making the Popes Supremacie, and the defence of it, high Treason against her person, and the State of the Kingdom, and against the Lord Jesus: It poured forth such a Vial of God's wrath upon this great Light, the Antichristian State; that it rules no more by day, neither in England, nor Scotland, nor Ireland, nor divers other neighbour Nations, who by her precedent example did abandon the like usurpation, the supreme rule of the Pope in Ecclesiastical affairs, which is the very Rule of the Churches of Christ. Thus you see, take the one, or the other, both will stand together: Let the House of Austria be the Sun, as it is in his kinde and Sphere, the greatest light of all their created Civil power, and hath been a great light indeed, and both an ornament and nourishment to the See of Rome: Or take the Pope himself, who will be the greatest Church-light, and claims to himself Supreme power, not only in Ecclesiastical causes, but Civil too. It is no unusual thing in Scripture, to make a gradull Interpretation of dark Scriptures; as in the 17 Chapter, The seven beads beads (faith the Text) are seven mountains, upon which the woman sits; and (in the 10 verse) they are also seven Kings; the same that represent seven mountains, doth represent seven Kings. And so both these are great lights of that state, the Imperiall and the Spanish power combined in that house, by bloud and attinities, and the Pope himself in his sphere, are both the great lights of that state, and it hath pleased God to pour out his Vial of wrath upon them both, and both the one and the other suffer; and they shall suffer more and more, because they do not repent to give God glory of their due and deserved punishment, but continue still in their blaspheming against the Lord and his people; and when men grow worse and worse, both civil state, and Ecclesiastical state, both growing worse and worse, doubtles their plagues will be multiplied: Sweden began with one, and hath been followed: Queen Elizabeth in England, and others elsewhere have begun with the other, the Lord by sundry instruments in one kinde or other hath gone forth, and will go on still, to let them know that the most high hath power over all the earth, and will not be driven out: When once he begins to execute judgement, he will go on destroying to destroy; and though the ministers of this wrath may conflict with doubtfull and various events, yet the issue will be blessed; and Popish Princes and States shall stand a far off, and cry, Alas, alas, that great city Babilon, that mighty city; for in one hour is thy judgement come: That will be the small issue of the great wrath of God upon it; and how far both these have proceeded, you cannot choose but know: How far queen Elizabeth scorched that Antichristian state with fiery indignation, it is universally known; which provoked Catholick Princes so much, that what with pouring out the former Vials upon the Rivers and Fountains, when thee decreed it Treason for any to carry Popish Religion to England, and to reconcile men to that See, the pouring out of that Vial there, and this here, so far provoked them, that they brought in their whole power against her in 88, and would have swallowed her up quick, they were so exasperated with heat and fury; and had not the Lord by his out-stretched arm and wisdom prevented, there had been no hope of preservation, but desolation of her and her Kingdom. Thus have I shewed you, you, as shortly and plainly as I could, what should be the meaning of this fourth Vial, and the Angel by whom it was poured out. Let us shortly come to gather a note or two from the words, and very briefly. First this;

When the wrath of GOD is kindled against a State for corruption of Religion, he pours out his judgments against them by degrees; first upon the common sort of people, then upon Church Officers, and then upon the principall Rulers and lights of that State. That is the first note.

This is evident in the Gradation of the Text, here is the wrath of the Lord kindled against the Antichristian state, called here, the earth, an earthly Kingdom, an earthly state, brought forth of the earth, and minding earthly things, and all their Ordinances favouring of the earth, of humane inventions, and wisdom and power: The Lord then when his wrath is kindled, and sends forth Messengers of his wrath on that State, how begin they? They begin first with the earth, the lowest Element; they begin not with the Sea, nor with the Sun, nor with the Air, but first the Vial falls upon the Earth: Common Catholicks, they first feel the shame, and confusion thereof, (as you have heretofore heard:) Then, as he discovers their Religion to be generally corrupt, as the blood of a dead man; so hee pours out the next Vials upon the Rivers and Fountains of water, those that carry this Religion up and down the Countries and Nations, the Lord exasperates Civil States so far against them, that they force them to drink blood, their own blood, as they made Martyrs to drink blood; so the Lord gave them to drink blood, for they are worthy, (as you heard it opened this day seven-night.) He first begins with the common Catholicks, then with Priests and Jesuits: Well, doth he here stay, when the Lord sees what little fruit groweth hereby? Verily no; for here is no Reformation of the common sort, they still continue in their Ignorance, and Superstition, and Idolatry: And what are the Priests and Jesuits any thing reformed? It is nothing so, nor do the lights of that State, either the lights of the Imperiall world, of the Provinces, or their generall and grand holy Father the Pope (as they call him) none seek Reformation, what then? Then let the Imperiall State, and Pope, that claims Lord Para-

Paramountship over all, let him look it, the next Vial fals upon his head, and the Lord doth this by degrees; first upon his supreme lustre and glory, as he rules by day: And the next fals upon his Throne, and that is a great blow to him; and still the Lord goes on pouring to pour out, and striking to strike, till at length he crusheth the man of sin, and all his abettors. For, their religion is corrupt, and all that drink of it perish, and the common people, Priests & Jesuits shall smart; and then the Pope & Emperor, whoever are their great lights, let the be lights in Church or Common-wealth, (for I will exclude neither) they both partake in the sin, and shall partake in the punishment of it: The four Angels, they may be several persons, but they have one common work, they pour Vials upon the lights of both States, and truly so the Lord did in Christian Rome, this is Antichristian, but when Rome was once Pagan, and then became Christian in Constantines time, and under the Christian Emperors, Constance and the rest opened the doors of the Church so wide, that all the garden of God was become a wilderness by an inundation of carnall people, Christians in name, but Pagans in heart, that were let in; and then that which was once a garden inclosed, was now made a wilderness, when they took down the Pale, and let in all dogs and swine that will come in, the wrath of God breaks out against them, then the Trumpet sounds a shrill sound, and what was that? In the 8 of Revel. 7. The first Angel sounding, there followed hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth, &c. and that is upon the lowest sort of Christians, there was given grievous hail, cold hail-storm, they received not the truth in love, and being cold in Christianity, they were hot in Emulation and Contention. And then the second Trumpet sounding, there was as it were a great Mountain burning cast into the Sea, and there was a third part of the Sea became blood; there was high preferment cast into the Officers of the Church, and a great part of the Administrations grew corrupt. Then the third Angel sounded, and there falls a Star from Heaven, called Wormwood, Wormwood of Heresie, and corrupts the Priests; many were infected with the Heresie of Arius, and Nestorius, and Eutyches: Afterwards all Scriptures came to be darkened with:

Allego-
The fourth Vial.

Allegoricall, and Heretical, and corrupt Interpretations, that Christ is scarce discerned in all their writings, and the light of Scripture is darkened, and the light of humane Learning, that there is little light left. And then the next Angel, he sounds, and smoke comes out of the bottomless pit, and there comes Locusts upon the earth, and they have a King set over them, which is the Angel of the bottomless pit, which is the Pope over the Friars and Monks. So, thus the Lord begins to deal with men, first he falls upon them in one degree, upon the earth first, and then upon Religion in them, and then upon Ministers, the publishers of that Religion, and after grows higher and higher, till in the end there comes the Antichristian state, the seventh head, and he mounts all Christian Emperors, leads them all captive, and hath the Key of the bottomless pit to destroy their souls, whose name is Abaddon in Hebrew, but in the Greek Apollyon, and then comes the Turk in the sixth Trumpet, and he destroys and swallows up all: So the Lords manner is, first he breaks forth against the common people, then against the Ministers, then at last he riseth to the great Lords of the world, the Rulers of the State, they smoke for it at last. What should be the Reason of the Point? The Reason is,

Reaf. 1. First, because ordinarily the first beginning of corruption is with the people, and they being first corrupted, then indeed it is meet that they should first be plagued; for look as the Church grew to be corrupted in the Christian Emperors time, so the Church came to be plagued in Antichristians time; the earth was first corrupt, in the Christian Emperors time, and the first that is plagued is the earth, then the sea, then the rivers, & so by degrees; The Lord goes the same way in plaguing, as they did in degenerating, the same way in executing judgement as they in sinning.

Reaf. 2. And secondly, when the common people are corrupted, for their sin sake it pleaseth God either to send them corrupt Rulers like themselves, or else to lead their good leaders into temptation, to corrupt themselves and their people. You read, Prov. 28. 2. For the wickedness of a land, many are the princes thereof; many and wicked Rulers too; They never lived long, nor well, after once the house of Israel had cried out, What portion have we in David, or what inheritance is in the Son of Jesse? The Lord never gave them good King in Israel after, not in Israel I say, Judah indeed had sundry times good Kings, but for Israel (the 10 Tribes) that rejected the yoke, and the house of David, in regard of the hard payments that Solomons son put upon them; and therefore in their prophaneness cried out, Je.

Then immediately after that, the Lord never gave them any good King, 1 King, 2.
16. So there grows Religion to be corrupted in the people, and then for their wickedness God gives them wicked Princes; I gave them a King in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath. O
If ael thou hast destroyed thyself, Hos. 13.
10. Israel corrupts itself, and provokes God, and he gives them a King in his anger, and takes him away in his wrath: And it is written as a heavy curse of God, in Lev. 26. 17. If you still trespass against me I will set Princes over you, that shall hate you: Mischioevous Princes, odious Princes that shall be odious to God, and malignant to the people. If you still provoke me, and for all this turn not to me, I will set such over you, them that shall be odious to me, and odious to you, that shall make you more and more to corrupt your ways:
And if God at any time give them good Princes, he will lead them into temptation for their sin. In 2 Sam, 24. 1. you read there, the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he provoked David against them to say, Go number Israel and I will
The wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and

That look as a man catcheth cold on his feet, it fills the head with distempers: Catch but cold in the lowest part, about the ancles or feet; or suppose the stomack be somewhat annoyed through ill dyet, or ill digestion, what then? It strikes up to the head presently; you cannot annoy the feet, ancles, or middle parts, but the head will feel both: So, if either Ministers be corrupt, or common people, the head, the Rulers will straightway bee corrupt, it will not bee otherwise: If the Prophets prophesie lyes, and the Priests bear rule by their means, and the people love to have it so, what will be the end? Do you think there will come any Princes that will reform them? Do you think the Lord will take any course to reform such.
such great evils as these be? As evil first begins with the common people, so they are first plagued.

For a third Reason, as evil first begins with the people, and they are first plagued, and as for them it is derived to the Priests and Princes, and they are by that means corrupted, either are not good, or led into some temptation.

So thirdly, the Lord is deeply provoked against the lights and guides of the Church, whether Civil, or Ecclesiastical Churchmen, or Common-wealths men, the Lord is provoked against both, for suffering their people to bedable themselves with some corruption in Religion and religious conversation: In the 34. Ezek. 7, to 10. Hear this, O ye Shepherds of Israel; and he speaks (as both Interpreters expound it) both to Ecclesiastical and Civil Shepherds, to the Priests in the Church, and the Princes in the Common-wealth, he speaks expressly to both; Hear O ye Shepherds, because you have suffered my people to wander, and my flock to be a prey, therefore I am against you, and he professeth he will rend his people from them, and rend the very cause of their heart, and execute judgement upon them, and he will judge between the Rams and the Hee Coats, and tender Kids, and will deliver them, and set them one Shepheard over them, that shall be more faithfull to him and his people, even his servant David, he means Christ, and they that are of David's spirit, that shall in his name rule his people. So that (mind you) the wrath of God is carried an end in this course, he begins with the people first, because they are first corrupt, and then with Rulers, for had not they been soon corrupted, it had not been possible that the Church should so quickly have become a wilderness. So here he begins with the common sort, and then with Ministers, and then with the great Lights that rule by day, that rules the affaires of the Church and Common-wealth.

For the use of this point briefly;

It may serve then to be a watchword and warning to the common sort of Christians: First look you to it, men and brethren, and beloved in Christ Jesus, look you to it tenderly and strictly, that neither doctrine or worship of God, nor Church Government be corrupt, to your best discerning, but preserved by diligent examination of all things, according to the pattern shewed...
The fourth Vial.

Shewed in the Word, as it hath been hitherto held forth to you. Looke to it, that the Sea you wash and bathe your soules in be not defiled, let it be so clear that the vertue of the bloud of Christ may be discerned in it; otherwise (believe it) though you may think, it least concerns you: Let Church-officer look to it, and let Civill Magistrates see to it, it is their calling to look to Worship and Government in their time and place: though that be true, they must look to it, and God will require it else at their hand, yet if you look not to it, the wrath of God will be powred out upon you: If men unprepared shall most giddily rush into the Church, what will the issue be? The Lord will powre a cold haile-storme upon you: never such coldnesse fell upon men, as there will be, when they rush into Churches before they be warmed with the bloud of Christ Jesus, Rev. 8.7, that was the first Trumpet of Gods vengeance there, heavy, grievous hailestones, great hailestones; and which is wonderfull, you will think it marvellous, but it is true, as they were cold in Religion, so they were zealous for contention and Covetousnesse and Ambition, and personal respects, that if they got an opinion by the end they contended for it, as (pro aris & focus) for fire on the hearth, as if there were no warmth but in that, though the opinion were never so unfavoury: when men thrust into the Church and take it very ill if they be examined; What will the issue be? Nothing but cold, still, dead-heartednesse falls upon them, and then a wild fire of rage and crotchetly opinions, and then grow so zealous therein, as if religion lay in some quintessence notions of theirs: therefore first look for, and beware of corruption in the common people.

Then secondly, let the Lords Ministers (I speak to my selfe, Use 2. as much as any other) in a speciall manner look to these things, that we diligently looke to religion, and the purity of doctrine and worship, and of every ordinance of God, with circumspection, and faithfulness, and diligence, and sedulity, and watchfulness, that nothing of the holy things of God may be corrupted that are committed to us, for we shall next feel the smart of it: For as religion will be corrupt in the people first, and so far as that you shall have no power nor life of godliness in it, and the bloud of Christ will be as the bloud of a dead man: So then the Ministers of the Gospell must looke to it, for the next thing will bee some heavy judgment or other God will bring upon them if they be not vigilant to see that all things bee done according to the true platforme left to us in the word: you know the Prophet Malachy complaines of it in Malac. 1, 11, 12, 13, that men began to waxe weary of sacrifices, and snuffed at the cost of it, and brought the blinde and lame, and any thing for Sacrifice, and the Table of the Lord was polluted, and what then. And now (faith the Lord) O yee Priests this Commandement is for you, in the first verse of the second Chapter (it is a very sad word which the Lord speaks) if you will not heare and lay it to heart; what should they lay to heart? This hailstone Corruption of the people, this snuffing at the Ordinances if you lay not this to heart, I will send a curse upon you, and will curse your blessings, yea, I have cursed them already, because you doe not lay it to heart, and I will corrupt your seed, &c. in the 1, 2, 3, verse, and so he goes on very sadly in threatning the Ministers of God upon this point: The people corrupted their wayes, and were weary of holy duties, cold hearted, and only quick for contention and division; and what then? because the Ministers of God doe not bestirre them, the Lord brings a curse upon their blessings, their best gifts in heart, and outward blessings, he blasts both, and therefore it marvelously concerns Ministers to be most tender this way, to see that all be carried exactly according to the word of God.

And thirdly, this may be a word of warning to Magistrates as the greatest lights in the Common wealth, for (as I said before) I will exclude neither, for both are the Sun in their severall Sphear, a great light, and he speaks of the greatest light the Antichristian state had, and so I speak of the greatest light this state hath: Thus much let me say to you, if religion be corrupted, the people may first smart for it, (if there be any corruption it springeth there) and we shall smart for it before you; yet if this be not redresst, God will reserve a vial for you, he will pour out a vial upon the very Sunne, that you would think were out of gun-shot, but how high soever they be among the Stars of God, xalted above all their brethren, yet the Lord can tell how to call some vial upon your authority to eclipse, and darken, and staine it, if the Lord helpe

helpe you not to continue watchfull in this kind: It is true there is an order to looke to all corruption in doctrine, and worship, and government that are stirring in the Countrey: And it is true, matters of religion are first and properly considerabole in the Churches themselves, by the officers and brethren of the Church: But if Magistrates shall find Brethren or Officers defective, or neglective, it will be their parts to give free passage to all undertakings for redresse, and if anything come to your cognizance before it come to the Church, then it will concern you to stirre up the Church to looke to doctrine, worship, and government, and you will find in this case you will deliver your soules from danger, and Church-officers and people too, otherwise you see the danger of corruption in religion; if the earth be corrupt, the sea will be corrupt, and the rivers and fountains, and the Sunne will be corrupt, and all alike more or lesse afflicted and plagued of God, for toleration of such evils as are found amongst them. So much for the first point, let me speake a word of another, and so come to an end. The next note is this:

A wicked heart will not repent of sin, no not under the wrathfull hand of God, who hath power over his owne judgements, to give him the glory, but will rather break forth to further wickednesse, even to blasphemy against the name of God. It was said of Ahaz, that when he was in distresse on every hand, yet in his distresse he did trespass more against the Lord, 2 Chron. 28. 22. This is that King Ahaz: as who should say, brand him for an hypocrite and a reprobate, that in his distresse trespasseth yet more, why? for he went and sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which smote him, because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, &c. Instead of humbling himself under Gods hand to give him glory, he breaks forth into blasphemy, and hardens his heart, and repents not to give him glory, but waxes more fierce against the Lord, to blaspheme. And another prophan King of Israel, Joash, 2 King. 6. 31, 32, 33. He weares sackcloth indeed upon his loynes, but being in distresse, by reason of the famine, hee breaks forth into fury and rage; God did so to mee and more also, if the head of Elisha shall stand on him this day; hee meant to cut off Elisha's head by reason of the famine, when an Asses head was sold for fourescore peeces of silver;
and in the 33 verse, Shall I wait for the Lord any longer? There he breaks forth into blasphemy, hee is full of fiery indignation and blasphemy against the God of Israel; see you this son of a murderer? While he yet spake this, the Messengers came down unto him, and he said, Behold this evil is of the Lord, what should I wait for the Lord any longer? So you read in Isa. 8.21. They in their distress shall curse the Lord and their King, and look upward: This is the frame of carnall and wicked hearts. And the Reason is,

Reas. 1. First, from the Ignorance of such wicked spirits; their Ignorance is such, they know not who smites them, but think it is some chance; as the Philistines in 1 Sam. 6.9. If he go up the way of his own coast to Bethshemesh, then he hath done us this evil, but if not, then we shall know it was but some chance that happened to us: They neither see the hand of God that smites them, nor their own desert that provokes the Lord thus to smite them; and so, they repent not to give him glory, but blaspheme him. And a second Reason is,

Reas. 2. Secondly, from the prophane pride of a carnall heart, some kind of carelessness; and it is incident to all prophane kind of spirits, that they will not see the hand of God, nor own their own sinfulness: when the judgements of God are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness, Isa. 26. 9, 10, 11. But they will not behold the majesty of the Lord; when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see it, but they shall see it, and be ashamed, &c. They will not see it a good while, that either their own sin hath brought this judgement, or that it is a just hand of God upon them, they will not see such things as these. So you see the Reasons of the point; not to speak of what high reasons might be given, of Gods heave vengeance upon mens unprofitablenes under the hands of God, they grow worse and worse, 2 Tim. 3.13. That the Lord leaves them to hardnesse of heart, and gives them up to themselves to oblitinate their spirits, as Phar. 1obs, that they will exalt themselves against him; and though you bray a fool in a mortar, yet his folly will not depart from him. The Use of the Point is thus much;

Use 1. First, it may report to you from the Oracle of God, that certainly the Popilli State is going full to perdition, and the great lights of that State, both the lights of that State, great like the Sun.
The fourth Vial.

Sun in the firmament, be they Civil Magistrates in their sphere, in highest place; or take it as the Popish Prelacie do, they will be highest in both kindes, be it as it will be, as the common people have been visited with judgement, their Religion corrupt, and Priestes and Jesuits plagued, and the Lord hath begun to plague their lights in this world, and Church lights too: So make account of this, forasmuch as they repent not to give God glory, but break forth to greater wrath, and outrage against the Lord and his Church, and servants, and secret ones, what will the end of all this be? Never did any man strive against God, and prospered; what, under the mighty hand of God, under the Vials of Gods wrath, and still blaspheme the name of God, and still hope to prosper? Verily you may write upon it, God will wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such as go on still in their wickednesse, Psal. 68.21. Let them look to it, the Lord hath begun to pour out his wrath, and one Vial hath not done when another begins to work, but they are pouring upon the common people, and upon Priestes and Jesuits, and will be more and more, and so shall both the house of Austria, and the Pope himself, in their supreamacie and lordly authority; and howsoever they may have some refreshing, and succour, and supply in their declining state, yet as their apostacies and backslidings are perpetuall, as the Text faith they are, seeing they repent not to give God glory, the Lord hath set it down, (and the Scripture must be fulfilled) they will go on in their rage and blasphemie against the God of Israel, and what will the issue of that be? Truly, if men prosper in hardnesse of heart and blasphemy, then let Pharaoh prosper of old, and let all wicked States prosper; but the Lord sent judgement upon judgement, upon Pharaoh, first upon the waters, and then upon the fruits of the field, at length he came to Murrain of the Beasts, and then a plague upon their first-born; and when that served not, then the wrath of God came upon the red Sea, and over-whelmed them all: This is Gods manner of dealing, and let the Imperiall State, and all blasphemers know it, that they shall not prosper in stouting it out against the Lord, but (believe it) as they have begun to fall before reformed Churches, so they shall surely fall: As it was told Haman in Ester 6. 13. If this Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews,
The fourth Vial.

Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail, but shalt surely fall before him: So fall they will, and in falling they shall fall, and yet more and more fall, till the Lord hath cut them off, root & branch: there is more judgments, you shall read of a further Vial upon the throne of the Beast, and upon the air, and then Babylon is fallen, it is not long till then, there is but three Vials more, and whether some of them be not yet begun to be poured out, it is not yet so clear: Let them know it for their terror, and we for our comfort, the Lord will go on in destroying to destroy them. It is a speech the Lord often useth, in Isaiah 9. 12, 13, 14. Yet for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still: Why? For the people turn not to him that smites them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts; and when they do not turn to him, then the hand of the Lord is not drawn back, but stretched out still: that is the constant course of Gods providence, as the people turn not to him that smites them, so the Lord will go on, and cut off head and tail, branch and rush in one day, ancient, honorable, he is the head; and the Prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail, &c.

For a second Use of this Point.

This may serve to teach us, that the Lord is the chief Governor, and hath the chief power of all the plagues and judgments that do fall upon men: And that aggravates the impenitence of these wicked men, that they do not fall under his hand that hath power over these plagues, but still go on hardening themselves against him whose plague is upon them. Therefore he hath power over them, and he will maintain it, and the judgments shall go on destroying to destroy, till like Vials of quick-silver they have rooted them out from the land of the living: Is there any evil in the City, which the Lord hath not done? Amos 3. 6. If a man were to speak to Christian Princes in other parts, how might a man call upon them, to beware of timorousness, and fear, in provoking the displeasure of the house of Austria, or of the Pope? For the wrath of God is gone out against that State, and the Pope, and the Lord hath power over these plagues: Why should we fear all the power of the house of Austria, or Papall thunderbolts, when the Lord hath hath you under his hand, when he means to go on plaguing to plague? Shall men underprop this rotten building which the Lord intends to destroy? This cursed fabric which the Lord will ruinate? Do you think to strengthen your selves by them, when they are not able to help themselves? No, it is a time of Gods plague; and therefore it is a warning and Trumpet to all Christian nations, and to us, do not think if we shall not yield to this and that of Antichrist, then Churches and Magistrates shall never subsist, fear it not; I tell you, all the States that cleave to Popery, shall fall with Popery, if they continue in it: Indeed if the Lord rescue and redeem them with a mighty hand, and bow their power and Crown, to comply with the Lord Jesus and his people, they may save themselves and their Kingdoms; but otherwise it is not possible for them to prosper, in maintaining this ruinous Babylon that hastens to destruction. The Lords plagues they are, and it is not all the power of men, or Princes, no nor of Angels in heaven, nor devils in hell, that can take off the plagues that God hath set on.

Thirdly, it teacheth us what is the duty of all the sons of men under Gods hand, namely to repent of sin, which hath brought Gods hand, for this is an aggravation of the wickedness of these lights, that they repented not to give God glory, when the vials of Gods wrath was upon them, but still grew more wicked, even to blaspheme: What saith the Apostle Peter? Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time, 1 Pet. 5.6. Hath the Lord begun to smite the common state, and it may be the body of the country, in that which is the sinews of trading, in the scarcities of moneys? Brethren do you think it is not a judgement of God? Is not the silver and gold his? and hath he it not for this state as well as for others, if we had not some ways provoked him? Did he not take it away from them in Hagge, when they neglected Temple work? And did not he say, The silver and gold is mine, 1 Hag. 6. and 2 Hag. 6. 7, 8? Hath not the Lord blasted us, because we grew cold hearted, and formal in Church-fellowship, and confident, and warm and bold-hearted in matters pertaining to our selves and to the world, and in matters that tendedocument only to tumult? What then? In such a case marvel not, if the Lord send forth a Vial.
The fourth Vial.

Vial of his wrath upon us, and curse our blessings, that that which within these 4, or 5, years was but a drug, and men would not labour for money, they would have come, and be glad of it, they would have provisions. Now provisions are a drug, Beef and Butter, it is not currant now, men will give no money for it, they will not part with it: Is it not a Vial of his wrath, or at least a twig of his rod? And is it not meet now to repent, and give him glory, that hath power over this plague, that we be not senseless, and obdurate? And doth not the Lord say he will curse our blessings, he faith so to Ministers, and will any be free? Will any prosper when they lay not God's hand to heart, but make a trifling business of it? but make account the Lord calls men to serious consideration of it.

To make an end, let this be the last Use.

To teach you what the nature and practise of Repentance is: What is the nature and practise of it? It is lively set forth in the Text (I might be large herein) they repented not to give God glory: So there is the proper act of repentance, when it runs right, in a right channel, it gives God glory: What glory doth it give God? First, it gives him the glory of his Soveraignty, the Text is plain, as They gave not glory to God that hath power over these plagues; they are God's plagues, and he hath power to send them, and we see his hand in them, his plagues they are, and that is the first thing in repentance, to see it is the hand of God in this kind, and that kind, in any kind that may befall us, Give God the glory of his Soveraignty, who hath sent these plagues, and this will help us to repentance.

2. Give him the glory of his Justice, that hath sent them most justly for his part, and on our part most deservedly: Neh. 9.33. The faithful in Israel say, Thou art just in all that is come upon us, we have dealt wickedly, and thou hast done righteously. Thus repentance gives God the glory of his Justice, as well as of his Soveraignty: we have provoked God to plague us in this or that kind, whether I speak to publick States or private persons, if any evil lieth upon us, it is the hand of God, whether it come for one end or other, and (believe it) it is for us to give him the glory of his justice, as well as of his Soveraignty: We have given him just cause by our worldly mindedness, by our estrangement from the

the Lord, and spiritual work, and falling short of our spiritual aims and ends: we cut short our growth in Christianity, and the Lord cuts short our outward estate: Doe you think a Christian's outward estate shall prosper, when his inward estate grows leaner and leaner? And as you give him the glory of his justice and sovereignty. So,

3. Give him the glory of his truth, which these wicked persons would not give him the glory of: To acknowledge their religion was a dead sea, like Mere mortuum, to acknowledge the blood-thirstinesse of their Priests and Jesu's, they shall drink blood therefore, they would not acknowledge reformation, but blasphemed it as heretical innovation, and therefore the Lord had poured a vial upon their great lights in Church and Commonwealth, and will doe it more and more till they be consumed; they give not God the glory of his truth: As Joshua laid to Achan, Josh. 7. 19. My son give glory to God, and tell me truly what thou hast done: And he told him truly, there was some hope of some seed of repentance; and it is not possible a man should truly repent before God, in confessing what hath been wickedly done, if he denies any thing that his conscience tells him is truth: Nay, some give God the glory, and tell me now what thou hast done? If a man hide it under his tongue, it is not possible he should repent, why? for he cannot give God glory, he gives him not the glory of his truth, and then there is no repentance. And,

4. What doth repentance give God the glory of? as of his sovereignty, and justice, and truth, in making humble confession of it where we are called, if we have just occasion; so the Lord requires that we should give him the glory of his mercy and grace, that we look for all our pardon and mercy in the blood of the Lord Jesus, and in unfeigned seeking after fellowship with him, believing on his grace, confessing what is sinful, turning from our evil ways, laying hold of eternal life, & of every gift of the Spirit, that might quicken us in every spiritual duty, that we might depend upon his grace for pardon, and healing of our bottomless depth of unbelief for the changing of our hearts, and quickening of our spirits; this gives God the glory of his grace, thus repentance doth: In the 130. Psal. 3, 4. If thou Lord shouldst marke iniquity, who then should stand? There they give him the
The fourth Vial.

The glory of his justice; but there is pardon with thee that thou maist be feared, there they give him the glory of his pardoning mercy; thus ought all to do, that unfailingly desire to walk in the serious practice and use of repentance: You never repent kindly whiles a spirit of bondage lyes upon you, and makes you sensible of the wrath of God and hell, that alone will never bring forth kindly repentance, but when the Lord helps us to give him the glory of his power, that he sways and rules in all, and that we give him the glory of his justice, that hath Rightously plagued us, and the glory of his truth to confess truly what is done amiss, and the glory of his grace to pardon sin, and heal the soul, this is repentance, and without this there is no repentance: It is a wonder to see when people provoke God and the Church, how little able they are to give God glory, but take glory to themselves still, it was thus and thus, and might have been interpreted thus and thus, it is a wonder to see how little they give God the glory, our own glory lyeth so near us: And therefore it behoves us, as we desire sincerity, to repent; so to make conscience of giving him glory, let all run in that stream, that we acknowledge his justice, and truth, and mercy, and grace, and look up to him for receiving from him whatever is of his mercy and grace needful for us, and then we shall avoid those plagues and judgements which are threatened or gone forth against us, and shall recover from under God's hand, like gold out of the fire.
THE FIFT
VIALL.

Revel. 16.10,11.

And the fifth Angel poured out his Viall upon the seat of the Beast: and as the word is in the Original, the Thrones and his Kingdom was full of darkness, and they gnawed their Tongues for paine, and blasphemed the God of Heaven because of their paines, and their sores, and repenteth not of their deeds.

In these words you have described the pouring out of the Viall of the fifth Angel, and described it is,

1. Proper and primary [His Kingdom was thereby darkened]
2. The secondary and accidental events were three.
3. Anguish and indignation [They gnawed their Tongues for paine.]

A
The fist Viall.

2. Blasphemy[They blasphemed the God of Heaven.]

3. Impenitency [They repented not of their deeds.]

This Scripture and the interpretation of it, is the more difficult, because it is generally conceived that the exception of God's judgements upon the Beast, hath not yet gone beyond the pouring out of the fourth Viall, therefore conjectures about it, will be the more difficult, and it may be more uncertain: yet because the Scripture in itself is not dark, how dark we may be in our apprehensions: The Kingdom of the Beast is dark, but not the Kingdom of Christ. And the Lord hath promised a gracious blessing upon all that read, and hear the words of this prophecy, Chap. 1. verse 3. so that by the comparing of one part of this prophecy with another, and observing the due poise of every word in his place, with holy feare and reverence, the Lord is wont to lead his people into truth, according to the promise made to the Apostle, John 16.13. (which is fulfilled to every successor of theirs in some measure.) Let us therefore goe on in the feare of God to consider of these things.

First the difficulty chiefly lyeth in opening the subject whereon this Viall will be powred, for open that, and the rest will be clearer. The seat of the Beast is generally taken for the City of Rome, and it is confirmed from the like speech, Rev. 13.2. Where the Dragon gave the Beast his power, and his seat (or throne) and great authority, and therefore they gather from hence the ruin of Rome, applying also hereunto some prophecies of the Sibills, who in their Language tell us thus much, that Rome shall then be desolate, and be as if it had never been a state. Now though we have much cause to glorifie God for the labours of such of his servants as have given that exposition, yet I must confess I cannot rest satisfied with that interpretation: for I finde it clearer in the sequell of this Chapter, that Babilon (which is doubtlesse meant of Rome[As throughout the seventeenth Chapter it is at] is said to come up into Remembrance before God in the 19. verse of this Chapter, and that is in the pouring out the seventh Viall, which implyeth that before it came not up in remembrance before God in point of actual punishment, for things are said to come up into remembrance before God, when he:
The fift Viall.

he taketh in hand either to shew mercy to them, or to powre out wrath upon them, a signe that the Viall and fiercenesse of his wrath was not yet powred out upon Rome: besides it is expressed in this Text, that upon the powring out of this Viall, the Kingdome of the beast was darkened, but there is a great difference betweene darkning, and destroying; Egypt was darkened, before Pharaoh was desroyed, or the body of Egypt overwhelmed in the red Sea. Upon these grounds therefore I cannot conceive that it is meant of Rome, but of something else, which in Scripture is to be understood by [Throne] sometimes it is put for that forme of government and authority which any person or state sitting on that throne doth adminilter, as it is saide of Christ, that his throne is a throne of Righteousnesse, and that is not so much spoken of the place where he governeth, as of the government it selfe, so in the 89 Psalme 29, & 36,37. I will make his throne as the dayes of Heaven, and againe his throne shall be as the Sunne before me; It shall be established for ever as the Moone, and in Psalme 122.5. Thrones of judgement are distinguisht from the thrones of the house of David, to wit, such as David hath erected: so by the like proposition it is here meant of that forme of government, which the beast exerciseth in the Church both subjectively, that which himselfe doth occupy over the Churches subject to him, and effectively, that which proceedeth from him, and is exercised by others in other Churches according to the frame and forme of government received from him, and that is such a peerleffe kind of government, as wherein one alone doth rule; for a throne is such a kind of seate wherein one of peerleffe authority doth governe; as a Monarch in his owne Dominion.

Indeed the universal supremacy of the Pope both in spiritual and temporall things, whereby he challengeth transcendent authority over all Kings and Princes, that was violated by the fourth Viall of these Angels: but yet still here is another throne which yet hitherto remaineth unplagued, and that is his singular sole authority, and monarchical government, whereby he sitteth chiefe and onely Judge in Ecclesiastical causes in his own jurisdiction, and like unto which he hath established the government of all National, Provincial, and Diocesan Churches, and so this interpretation doth very fitly suit with the proper effect of the pouring out of this Viall expressed in the text [his Kingdom was darkened] and what kind of government is that? such as wherein one doth reign, as they are wont to say, there must be but one: One Prince in a state; this form of government himself doth exercise still in his own jurisdiction inviolately, and this he hath brought into all national and Provincial and Diocesan Churches in the world where popery hath prevailed; and which still continueth in some Protestant Churches, where though the Doctrine, and worship of Popery be abolished, and the transcendent supremacy of his government, yet the form of his government, monarchical, or sole and singular government by one, that is Episcopacy, is still continued. Who is then the fifth Angel that hath poured out his Viall upon this peerless government the Episcopacy? Though it be said this Viall is not yet poured out, and though it haply was not poured out with the writings of such men (who so conceived) were under their hands: yet Beza, and Cartwright did sprinkle some drops of this Viall upon this government, though the power and strength of the Episcopacy in their time was such as drunk them up like the dry Earth, that drinketh in the rain; yet will not God be so put off from his word, he poureth out more drops upon them by holy Baines his trial of Diocesan government, and godly learned Parkers Ecclesiastical Politie, but these were drops: you now see whole Vialls full of wrath poured out by the whole Church of Scotland, who have engaged themselves, and their state for ever in this quarrell, and have beene carried along herein, not in a way of popular tumult, but with such wisedome, courage, judgement and Piety, that you may see and say that it is not a Viall poured out by an unadvised multitude, but by an Angell of God, by the Heavenly Ministers of his wrath.

It hath beene taken in hand with serious and deepe and generall humiliation, judging themselves for their toleration of such a government amongst themselves, and so seconded in their constant fruits of Reformation, as that their very adversaries stand amazed to behold them, and these are not drops alone, but like unto great ground showers which grow unto a flood and overflow all far they have turned away the flood of superstition in their owne Country, by the Rivers of the power of God, and his Evangelical truth, so now they have also flowed into England, insomuch that a great many of the Commons of England and many noble Peeces doe begin to say that Episcopacy is a antichristian frame and form. which he brought in, and doth still countenance and animate, and while it continueth, popery will not fall: whereupon, it hath came to passe (if your intelligences faile not,) that many sad considerations have beene taken up in England, whether it be not best to abandon all such thrones: men will not fight for the defence of these thrones, nor draw their purses to maintaine such waire, but men begin generally to be taught of God, that this is not the forme of the government of Jesus Christ. Nor doe I know that any of the former Vialls have beene powred out by any men, whose loines have beene more gert with truth, and whose cloathing hath beene more pure, and white, then these servants of God have been gert, and cloathed withall. These things being thus understood, take you the sequell, and it will easily interpret it selfe; for doth not hereby the Kingdome of the beast (his monarchical forme of Church government) grow full of darkenesse? Is not Episcopacy now? the very word of the Text, as it were alluding to the Nation that darkeneth it? Episcopall government doth it not grow darke? yea full of darkenesse? Is it not scotized, darkned and beclouded with a Scottish mist? So as that it groweth base and vile, not onely in the eyes of godly wise, and judicious Divines, but in the eyes of good people; nor of godly people alone, but of many civill, and orderly mindes: mervail not therefore if it be said that the Kingdome of the beast (that is, this forme of his government) be full of darkenesse: And hath not this darkenesse procured other secondary effects? doe they not gnaw their tongues for very indignation, what doe you thinke of the chiefe Church governors of Scotland? and some of the chiefe of that order in England, and their chiefe companions (if your reports be true) doe they not get themselves into darke corners?

2. And for the second event [They blasphemed the God of Heaven] have you not heard that the powring out of this Viall hath beene by them accounted nothing else but Rebellion against the state. of the Kingdom have they not taxed that (which is the reviving of the Church and Commonwealth) to be the ruine of both?

And for the third event [They repented not of their deeds] have they no cause thank you to repent of all their oppressions and tyrannies over godly men, through many ages? for that their governments have been formidable to none but the peaceable men of the Land: if it be a drunkard or some base fellow that cometh to their courts, they say to him, what dost thou here thou simple fellow? pay thy fees, and be gone: but for the people of God, nothing will satisfy but their extirpation from their Ministry, livings and dwellings; they shall not be allowed to breath in the free aire, if any prison in the Country will hold them. And is it not to be repented of, the invasions of the liberties of Church, and of civill liberties which have beene by some of them desperately impeached, so as that neither subject nor Prince shall know what belongeth to either of them; and some of the throne of the beast will tell you, that betweene Prince and subject there is no memum, & tuum, but the Prince may say omne memum, are not these things to be repented of? And is there no superstition to be repented of? And have they repented of these things? doth any semblance of repentance appear? have they not still gone an end, even while this Viall hath beene in powring out to put new inventions upon God's people? have they not imposed an Antichristian Oath, that this is the onely government, and that they neither doe acknowledge nor ever will acknowledge any other, and is not this a blasphemy against the name and Crown of Christ Jesus? and yet they repent not of these deeds: therefore they have said not much amisse, that said that all the mischieves that have sprung up in any state in the World, where these thrones have beene set up, have sprung from them that fate upon these thrones. Thus you see what is the true and simple meaning of these words, and I durst not have spoken it, but that no other interpretation will well abide by the words of the Text. Babilon will not abide it, for that commeth up into remembrance in the seventh Viall; doe but consider all things together, and weigh the words of the Text well with what goeth before, and with what will follow after by the helpe of God, and you shall find this to be the true meaning. Nevertheless though these former and late attempts against Episcopacy may bee the beginning of this Viall, and
The first Viall.

Some good measure also of the pouring it forth, you may believe that it will not rest here, but as Moses said Deut. 32. 4. Perfect is the work of God, and as the Lord spake concerning Ed. 1 Sam. 3. 12. When I begin, I will also make an end, so (reserving all due honour unto those interpreters who rest from their labours and their workes doe follow them) I doe conceive, and believe, that this Viall will goe on from our native Countrey to all the Catholickes Countries round about them, untill it come unto the very gates of Rome it selfe. In the meane time all these Vialls are at worke, and one is not ended when another is begun, though that which most excelleth is most in observation, and the pouring out thereof, is the worke which the Lord calleth men principally to attend upon, and wherein God hath manifested his presence most, and will goe on still to manifest more of the presence of his wrath unto other states: now the points that arise from the words are two.

That forme of government, wherein one by sole and singular authority, doth govern the Church specially many Churches and most of all, all Churches do: a spring from the Earth and favour of the Earth, for so it appeareth to be from the Text, for all these Angels poured out their Vialls upon the Earth: Verses 1. Not as Earth is opposed to other elements, but as it is opposed to Heaven: so that as their Earth is earthly, so is their Sea, and their Rivers, and Fountains, and their Sunne: and this throne is but an earthly throne, you see no such throne in the Tabernacle of the Testimony opened in Heaven: so farre as Churches are Heavenly, these thrones are not set up in them: for this is it which John reprooveth (3. 10. 9.) in Diotrephes, that he loveth to be a primate and would not regard a letter from John himselfe though an Apostle; & for the brethren he would not receive them himselfe and forbad them that would, and cast them out of the Church, the true spirit of an earthly Primate, for they favour of earthly ambition and covetousnesse, love Baalims wages, they flock not to buy their places for silver, care not what they give for them, but having gotten them with buying, they must maintaine them by selling, they must fell Ordinations and Absolutions, and Dispensations, and must be maintained by the benevolences of their obedience Clergy, and in truth the summe of the matter is. quid mibi dabis? and what is all this but earthly bravery, if ever you have beeene at their thrones (though it were but the thrones of their chancellors):
The first Reason of the Doctrine is from that forme of Church estate, which Christ hath instituted in his Word, which is no other, but the government of a Church of a particular visible Congregation; He owneth no other, nor giveth any government to any besides them. If thy brother offend thee, goe and tell the Church, and must the offence stay till all the world be gathered together; or if it were meant of one Diocesan or provincial Church, when will they meete? therefore the Church that must hear all offences is the Church of a particular Congregation, which may all of them meete together in one place (1 Cor. 14. 23.) and then though offences come thicke, they may all be orderly heard and remooved. And consider moreover (that which further clears up this first ground) what variety of officers God hath given to this Church, not many Parishes to one Bishop, but many Bishops to one Church, so as that Paul writeth to the Saints at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons, Phil. 1. 1. And he sendeth for the Elders of the Church of Ephesus Acts 20. 17. Whom he calleth Bishops Verse 28. And they were more then one in every Church, according to Acts 14. 23. They ordained them Elders in every Church, directly contrary to the practice of the Lord Bishops of these days; These things we speake, that the people may know we set forth no new inventions, though it be true that there is a newnesse in all the blessings of the new Testament, whereas all the inventions of men wax old as doth a garment, and there is no new thing under the sunne, as touching mens inventions, but they will grow old and vanish away, as all Diocesan Churches will doe, which the Lord hath not instituted: Though indeed in the old Common wealth of Israel the Church was Nationall, and there was but one high Priest who was a type of Christ, but now Christ is come he hath delivered all his counsel to his 12 Apostles, and they have left the ordering of his Church to some pastors, and some teachers and some ruling Elders, and some Deacons. But besides these the Gospel knoweth no other.

The second ground is taken from the kind of power which God hath given to his officers in his Churches, hath he given to them a Lordly or a Ministerial power? surely no Lordly power, neither over their fellow Elders nor over the Church, But he hath in his Word prohibited both these. Math. 20.25,26,27. The Princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them, but it shall not be so amongst you, but whosoever will be great amongst you let him be your Minister, and whosoever will be chief amongst you let him be your servant. Amongst the Officers of Christ honour is carried by the most labour, and not by most outward splendor: But thosethat sit upon the throne of of the Beast do not labour in any kind of government but that, which is merely antichristian, to foment sin and let loose the reins of all prophaness: neither doe the officers which Christ hath set in his Church reach after outward honour, but the chief of them make themselves equal with them of the lower sort, as Peter (though an Apostle) when he writeth to the Elders stileth himselvem a fellow Elder 1 Pet. 5.1. and exhorteth them to feed the flock of God, not in Lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock;
so the Apostle in his second and third Epistle stileth himself an Elder, so farre is he from affecting Lordly authority: by all which we may see that all this kind of Lordly, and stately government is no way compatible to that government, which Christ hath instituted in his Church.

The third reason is taken from that authority which the Lord hath given to every Church over their Bishops, as well as to their Bishops over them, which cannot stand with Episcopall soverignty. It is true, the Lord hath given them power over the Church, let the Elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, &c.
1 Tim. 5.17. A power they have to call the Church together, as the Apostles did for the choice of Deacons, Act 6.2. And to open the doores of speech, and shut the doores of silence, Act 13.15.
A power they have also to dismiss the assembly as they see cause, for they that begin they also make an end, and send away the people with a blessing, Num. 6.24,25,26. Power they have to direct, to admonish privately, publicly, to rebuke with all authority Tit. 2.15. And sundry branches of rule may be deduced out of these: yet as true it is also that the Lord hath given power to the Church over their Rulers, as first to choose them, they ordained them Elders by lifting up their hands, Acts 14.23. And when there was an Apostle to be chosen in Judas his room, they out of an 120 persons chose two men, and presented them to the Lord, Acts 1.23. Secondly they have power to send them forth about the Churches service, as they sent Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem, Acts 15.2. And without controversy he that sendeth is greater then he whom he sendeth, Joh. 13.16. Secondly they have power to admonish them, if they doe offend, say to Archippus, take heed to thy Ministry, &c. Col. 4.17. And the Church contended with Peter for eating with the heathen, Acts 11.2. 3. And had he not given them the better answer, they would have proceeded against him: These things then laid together, what a beastly power is that of the Church of Rome, and of such as imitate them, as usurpe authority, and judgement over so many Churches, and will be judged by none?

Use 1. For use in the first place, this may be a ground unto us of just acknowledgement of the Lords faithfulness and truth, who is not unmindfull of all that he hath spoken by his servants the Prophets, but in due season doth fulfill his word. The Apostle John hath beene dead above 1500 yeares, he dyed with the end of the first hundred yeares after Christ, but the word spoken by him dyed not with him, according to what we read Zach. 1.5, 6. Our fathers where are they? and the Prophets, do they live forever? but my words and my statutes which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your Fathers? So (though John be dead) whatsoever John hath spoken with his mouth he will fulfill with his hand, and will not leave till he hath finished all the words that are written in this booke. And what marvelous stay in this to the soules of those that build their faith upon the word of God: He will ever be mindfull of his Covenant; Psalme 111.5. He did let none of the words of Samuel fall to the ground. 1 Sam. 3.19. He will not leave fulfilling, to fulfill untill he hath fulfilled all, and then Christ will come to gather his people to himself, therefore let not your hearts faile; because God remaineth faithful, and whether Zachary believe or no, the Lord will fulfill his Word, Luke 1.20.
The second use may be, to take off that amazement which hath been found in the hearts of some, concerning the undertakings of the Scots in our native Country, since the world began was it never known (for there are no Histories of note but are commonly known) such a pattern as this, that ever a whole Nation did rise to take up such a quarrell, with so much justice, wisdome and piety, a thing to be wondered at, that a whole Nation should carry such a matter in such a way: many things have been done in Holland, in Geneva, for reformation, but with much more tumult, which when the Papists have objected, our Divines have been wont to answer, that they do not excuse mens thrusting in their own weaknesses into Gods Worke: but wonder not overmuch if you finde it otherwise in this matter, for the Angels of God are their guides, so that their foote shall not swell, but they shall keepe their ranks, and places, and remember that they are subjects though they carry their swords in their hands. Just care is taken that there be no robbery nor pilfering, no oppressions, no violation of any mans bed, nothing taken up but it shall be duly paid for, and yet the proceeding made with such constancy, that (in a way of humility) the end must be attained, or else there will be no place in the conclusion. These are great things: but if men take them in hand that are girded with golden girdles, when their Bibles goe along with them, when Fasting and Prayers steerre along their course, you need not much wonder in such a case.

Thirdly, this may serve to teach us, that surely this worke will prosper, because the Lords Angel is in it: and the Viall of Gods wrath in his Hand, and he will not be beaten off; though some instruments may quake, yet will he still raise up more in their stead till those plantations be rooted out, according to the word of Christ, Mat.15.15. Every plant which mine heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up. In vaine therefore is it for men to uphold such sordy buildings, which will in the end be shaken down; whatsoever dammes men may make to uphold the Episcopaty, it will befall unto them as when men make dammes to stop water course, others come and cast in some small quantity of quicksilver, or Aqua fortis, which eases such holes through the stones that it will toone issue out the water, so this Aqua omnipotens, the vials of the wrath of God will at last confute and waste all things whatsoever stand up against them.

Fourth.
Fourthly, let it teach us to praise the Lord, for our gracious deliverance from the power of this Government, brought in by the beast, unto the government of Christ in his Church; for those that count it new Wine refuse it, it is old Wine unto us, let us therefore in the name of the Lord rejoice with trembling, for our great liberties; and pray that God will never leave, until he have rooted out not only the throne of the Beasts, but the Beast himself, that the world may never more be pestered with them.

Now from the effects that follow upon the pouring out of this Viall we may observe this second note.

Doct. 2. That upon the pouring out of the Viall of Gods wrath upon the throne of the Beast, their place, the Pope himselfe and the rest of their Prelates; and all their favourites and followers have not turned to God by Repentance, but have broken forth against him in indignation and blasphemy. His Kingdom was full of darkness, but what profit have they made of it? they gnawed their tongues through vexation, rage, and malignity of spirit against the Lords holy providence, and the successful proceedings of these holy Angels, they blasphemed the God of Heaven, and looke at reformation, as Rebellion, as it were the dissolution of all goodness, and at length they will say, that they fear Christ himselfe is become a Puritan, and have they repented of their tyrannies, and usurpations over Ministers and over Churches? but they have broken forth still more, and more against the Lord, his servants and Churches, and what more may come forth I know not, judge you what they speake in secret, when they write such things as these openly: we speak of the generality of Prelates, not of some to whom God hath given a better spirit than the spirit of the throne they sit upon.

Reason. The first ground hereof is taken from the nature of all these judgements, they are the last plague, Rev. 15.11. The very dregs and sediments of the wrath of God; and there is no grace of Repentance laid up in them, for the wrath of God is come upon them to the uttermost, wonder not therefore if you do not hear of many Bishops or Parites repentance though God may bring some of them to Repentance, yet the body and state of them is not like to repeat, but to belch out blasphemies against the Lord.

2. Rev. Secondly, the reason is taken from the cause that moveth God to give men up to such delusions; Because they received not the love...
The fifth Viall.

Love of the truth that they might be saved, therefore doth God give them up to the efficacy of delusions, that they should believe a lie; that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness; those that preached the truth and Doctrines of Repentance, and reformation, they branded them with the name of Puritans, they hated them with a perfect hatred, they loved not blessing therefore it is far from them, it is the nature and common fashion of superstition to leave men besotted in their own Religion.

This may teach us to looke at it, as a ground of Faith, that the Use 1. Lord will goe on to destroy the throne of the Beast; for when God taketh a sword into his hand, it is not his manner to put it into his sheath again, according to that which Amos viith Chap. 3.5. Shall one take up a snare from the Earth, and have taken nothing at all? no, the Lord will either subdue their spirits to unseigned Repentance, or else he will goe on inflaming to insnare them till he have swept them like dooing from the face of the Earth. For when Israel turneth not to him that smiteth him, then is not his anger turned away, but his hand is stretched out still, Psai. 9.12.13. Therefore men cannot more dishonour, nor oppose the Lord then by seeking to underprop this sandy building.

The second use of this point may be to teach us all in the fear of God, what to doe whensoever we see but drops of wrath powdered upon us, you see to whom it belongeth to be impenitent, to whom it belongeth to blaspheme the name of the Lord, even to those that sit upon the throne of the Beast, it is an Episcopall sinne, an Hierarchical wickednesse, a beastly frame of spirit, for men whiles they are under Gods Hand to grow more froward and discontented and filled with indignation. If therefore the Lord affliet the whole state of the Country, with any drops of his displeasure, let us not cry out upon the Lord and his dealing, nor upon the Churches, but let our unthankfull hearts for his mercies, beare the burden, and learne we to repent of our deeds, that know not how to keepe our selves close to the ordinances of God, when we grow not thankful nor fruitfull under light and liberties received.

B 3. The
THE SIXTH VIALL.

REVEL. 16.12,13,14,15,16.

And the sixth Angell poyred out his Viall upon the great River Euphrates, and the water thereof was dryed up, that the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared, &c.

In these verses the poyring out of the Viall of the sixth Angel is described.

1. First by the subject upon which it is poyred, the River Euphrates, which is amplifyed by the adjunct of greatness, [The great River Euphrates.]

2. Secondly, by the effects of it which are two,

1. First the water thereof was dryed up, and that is amplifyed by the end which God aimed at, in it [That the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared.]

2. Secondly, the warrlike preparations unto a great battell; and those are descried,

1. By the principal commanders in that preparation, and war, which are said to be three [The Devil, the Beast, and the false Prophet.]
The sixth Viall.

2. By the instruments, and Ministers of it, who are certain spirits, and they are described many ways, as,
   1. By their nature and quality [Unclean spirits.]
   2. By their number [three.]
   3. By, by their resemblance [Like Frogs.]
   4. By their original descent, which is threefold, [They come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet. And that descent is amplified by the Cause of it, for they are the spirits of Devils.
   5. They are described by their effects, which are three-fold.
      1. They work miracles.
      2. They go forth to the Kings of the Earth, and of the world, to gather them to the battle of that great Day of God Almighty, Ver. 14.
      3. They are efficacious and successful herein, they do gather them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon, Ver. 16.

3. Those warlike preparations are described by the watchword which the God of Israel giveth unto his own troops, and that is a word of watchfulness, behold I come as a thief, blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Thus standeth the Text.

Now for the meaning of it: It is the more dark, because it is, (though not altogether) yet in a great part to come; and such as shall seriously consider what is the meaning shall happily find it no small difficulty to satisfy themselves, and much more to satisfy others. Yet (by the help of God) let us endeavour to open some such part of the words, as we may be likely to finish at this time. First what is meant by the river Euphrates? Secondly, who are the Angels that pour out this Viall upon this river? Thirdly, what is the drying up of this river? Fourthly, who are these Kings of the East? These things contain the principal difficulties in the parts of this Viall, other things may more easily be opened, if these things be premised and cleared.

1. What is meant by the great river Euphrates? Some of our best interpreters (to whom God hath given most light in these spiritual mysteries) do understand it, properly for the river that did run along by the walls of old Babylon in Chaldaea, which made the city impregnable, and yet by the stratagem of Cyrus was dried up, by turning the Course of the streams to run in other channels.
channels, whereby the channel before the City was dried up, and the reedes burnt by the Souldiers, and the City sacked when Belshazzar was quaffing in the veselis of the Temple: this was foretold by Jeremy Chap 50.38. A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up, for it is the Land of graven Images, and they are mad upon their Idols. And Le. 51.31,32. One poste shall run to meete another, and one messenger to meete another, to shew the King of Babylon that his City is taken at an end, and that the passages are stopped, and the reedes they have burnt with fire, &c. Now they that interprete Euphrates to be the same river, doe understand that when God calleth home his ancient people, he will dry up Euphrates before them, so that they may assault the Turkish monarchy, and recover their ancient inheritance out of his hand. The reason which they give of it is, 1. Because they read of no Nation for whom God dryed up any rivers but onely for the Israelites for whom he dryed up the red Sea, and the waters of Jordan. 2. They say it hath been anciently foretold by the Prophet Jer. 44.27 & 51.10. & 63.11. In all which places God is described to have dryed up the waters, and rivers for them, that as a pledge of the like power to be manifested for them hereafter. 3. (Say they) the prophet Isai (Chap 59.20. alledged by the Apostle Paul Rom. 11.26.) foretelleth the calling of the lewes, and if this Viall speake not of their calling, it is spoken of no where in this booke, which is not credible.

Now although their reasons are not to be flighted, yet they doe not seeme to carry force enough to understand Euphrates literally, for Gods Hand may as well be seene in dryeing up the metaphorical rivers; Besides, Isai 44.27. Doth properly speake of Gods dryeing up the river Euphrates before Cyrus, which was then to come, but is not meant of this dryeing up in the Text, which is to be many hundred yeares after, and for the two other places mentioned, Isai 51.10. & 63.11. They onely recounts what God had done for their Fathers of old, whereupon they desire that he would not forfake them now, and so they are reported of as ancient passages of his power for them, but not as promises what he would doe for then afterward: Save onely as encouragements to their Faith, to expect great deliverances from the same hand.

And for the third reason: It is not necessary that it should be foretold in this Viall, or else not foretold in this booke: for the whole

whole 21, and 22 Chapters of this booke doe hold it forth, which are events of the pouring forth of the seventh Viall, and not of this sixth.

If then it be not meant of the naturall river, Euphrates, of what then may it be understood? There are some that understand it of something that is unto Rome, as Euphrates was to old Babylon. I shall tel you what I most incline unto, as far as the Text will permit.

Some say it is meant of Nations, and Tongues, and People, and Languages, for they are sometimes understood by waters: but Euphrates is but one river among many, and therefore why should it be meant of many Nations that should fall off from Rome? I cannot well close with that, nor is it necessary that Euphrates should be a name given to any one Nation, unless it were some one that might lie neere Euphrates, which no Christian Nation doth. And others there are that doe understand by it another resemblance, as it was a meanes to convey much maintenance to old Babylon, and therefore conceive it meaneth all the reve nueses of the Bishop of Rome whereby he is made rich, and wealthy. Now Christian Kings shall dry up this river Euphrates by taking away this kind of maintenance, and so by these Kings of the East they understand those Christian Kings, that shall take away these reve nueses; but neither can I well close with that interpretation; for you may consider it, that all these seven Vials are suitable to the seven Trumpets, though they fall out in different ages of that Church: The seven Trumpets brought in judgements upon Christian Rome, and these Vials are the plagues of God upon those very corruptions, which the Trumpets brought in: Now you shall finde that the effect of the sounding of the sixth Trumpet was, there were foure Angels loosed which were bound in the great river Euphrates, and those Angels were ready with an Army of two hundred thousand thousand; and they by general consent of all interpreters, are to be understood of the foure Families of the Turkes, that were bound by some incumbrances at the river Euphrates, but afterward broke fourth upon all Christ endome, and got Constantinople into their hands, and overwhel med all Asia. And besides to understand the Kings of the East to be the 10 Christian Kings will not accord, for they are not seated East from Rome, or if some of them be, yet nothing neere the number of ten. Therefore there be that say, that the river Euphrates...
THE SIXTH VIAL.

Euphrates doth here mean the Turkish Dominion, and that this river Euphrates shall be dryed up by the power of the Kings of the East, whom they interpret to be the Jews; and I would not hinder that thereby to make way for the recovery of their Land; And true it is that Euphrates in the first Trumpet did signify the Turkish power that lay by that river: In like manner it is expounded of the Assyrian monarchy, Isa. 8.7. When the Lord bringeth upon them the waters of the river strong and many, even the King of Assyria, and all his glory, and he shall come over his channels, and overflow all his banks, because they refused the help which God had given them at home. Now that Euphrates, and Mesopotamia, which then the Assyrian Monarchy had in dominion, is at this day possessed by the Turks, and if the Assyrian Monarchy may be resembled unto it, so may the Turkish also: this commeth neereest to the Text, yet I cannot say that altogether it suiteth with the context, nor that this sixth Angel should be meant of the Jews; and I would give you some reasons, why it cannot be the Jews, that must powre out this Viall, nor that the drying up of Euphrates can be meant only of the Turkish Monarchy, though they also shall be plagued by the drying up.

First, that the sixth Angel cannot be the Jews appeareth from what is said, Chap. 15.ult. That no man was able to enter into the Temple till the seven plagues of the 7 Angels were fulfilled, therefore the Jews cannot come into the visible Church in the time of this sixth Viall, till the seventh be powred out. But certaine it is these Angels who powre out the Vialls, doe all of them come out of the Temple, and are cloathed in pure, and white linnen, having their breasts girded with golden girdles, therefore they are all professors of the truth, and sincere professors.

Secondly, it is evident in the Text, that the way of the Jews is prepared, by the powring out of this Viall. And therefore they are not this Angel who powre out this Viall, but have a way prepared, onely for their Conversion, as an effect of this Viall.

Thirdly, all the Subjects whereupon these Vialls are powred are such against which the wrath of God is kindled: for they are the Vialls of the wrath of God that are powred: and they are all powred upon the Earth, by which is meant the antichristian state, and such things therein against which Gods wrath is kindled. Now the anger of God is not kindled against the river.
Euphrates more than against any other river, his wrath falls not upon rivers, though sometimes for mans sake it may; but Euphrates lieth not neere to the Romane antichrist, nor to any state subject to him. What should you say? is it not most likely to hould forth the Turkish Dominion? which God is angry with? Shall not Christian Princes powre out the wrath of God upon the Turkish Dominions? I would by no meanes say so: But let us consider what is the Fountaine, and what are the streames of this river, which did, and do still wash upon the Turkish Dominion, and which are indeed as Walles, and Bulwarks to the Turkish state? For this Euphrates though it be not here the Turkish Dominion, yet it is of the same use to them and unto the Pope, as Euphrates was unto old Babylon, which made glad the same, and conveyed maintenance unto it. Let us therefore consider what was the Originall of the Turkish Dominion, and you shall finde that it sprung from five severall streames. Rev. 9.20.21; where (having described the loosing of the foure Angels, which were bound by the great river Euphrates ver. 14.) and those were the foure Families of the Turkes, which at length were swallowed up by the house of Othoman; He saith the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship Devils, and Idols of Gold, and Silver, and Brass, and Stone, and of Wood, which neither can see nor heare, nor walk (this was their Idolatry) neither repented they of their murders, nor of their Sorceries, nor of their Fornications, nor of their thefts: So these were the five streames of this river Euphrates, that gave power to the Turkish Dominion, to wit, the Idolatries, Murthers, Sorceries, Fornications, and Thefts of Christendome, for by reason of these barbarous wickednesse of Popish Churches, and states, cloaked under a face of Religion, God brought upon them a barbarous Nation, that hath a Face of government, and yet knoweth not well what it meaneth, yet did not the Papists (whose sinnes these were) repent of their Idolatries, nor of their Murthers, which they committed upon the soules of men, and upon the bodies of Gods faithfull servants; nor of their Sorceries, of which many of the Popes themselves were guilty; nor of their Whoredomes, their stewes, and beastly uncleannesses; nor of their Thefts, Indulgences, and pardons for money, by which they drevened Christendome of their substance.

Now it these were the sinnes, which the Lord upbraideth Christian Christian Churches for not repenting of, though this barbarous nation did prevail against them, yet doubtless these are the walls of the Turkish Dominion, even those streams of corruption of Religion, which are the maintenance of the Sea of Rome to this day: thus by admirable wisdom the Lord hath expressed his holy Counsel: that his instruments by drying up these streams of Euphrates, these corruptions of Religion shall prevail at once both against the Turks, and the Pope together.

Who then shall be the Angel, that shall power out this sixth Viall? if they shall not be the Leves (as before we proved) then it must needs be some Christian states, and these are no other then the 10 Christian Kings spoken of Rev. 17. 16. 17. That shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire, and so you have all these expositions fall in together, they will runne in the right channell, and fully reach all that interpreters have sought after.

These Christian Kings shall so farre fall off from Rome, as that they shall dry up all her revenewes, when as they shall see and abhorre the vanity of their Images, and Temples, and Monasteries, and the unprofitableness of their expences, when they shall see the wickednesse of their bloody inquisitions, the unnaturalnesse of all those murders of Gods blessed servants, and shall see their witchcrafts, and sorceries; the horrible fornications, and whoredomes of their stewes: and when they shall see that all their devises to get mony are so many thefts, and robberies, (as it is the complaint of Pareus, a German interpreter, that two parts of the revenewes of the Empire did goe to the Bishop of Rome, and but one third to the Christian Princes) and a world of worke would be to tell you of all their Theeveries in England of old, and other Christian Kingdomes. Now when these Christian Kings are so far converted unto God, as that they shall see the wickednesse of all these abuses of Religion, they will then dry up all these revenewes, then will they suffer no more Image-worship, no more forgeries, nor murders, and when these things are thus removed, then is Euphrates dryed up, that maintaineth old Babylon; then is the Fountaine of the Turkish maintenance cut off also: For their rise was by these corruptions, and they stand, and will stand whilst these corruptions stand, but if these fall then is the river Euphrates dryed up, and a ready way made indeed for the Kings of the East.
4. Whom the most judicious Interpreters doe understand to be the Jews. 1. Because they are so by Gods calling, Exodus 19.

6. Ye shall be to me a Kingdom of Priests: And Daniel foretelleth, that when the Roman Monarchies are broken in pieces, by the stone cut out of the Mountains without handes, Daniel 2-45. (which is the Lord Jesus:) then the Dominion shall be given to the people of the Saints of the most high, Daniel 7-27. Therefore they are called Kings of the East, in the Greek Testament Kings from the rising of the Sunne, they shall have great power, and place when God shall bring them to it; Neither can any man tell but that some of these Eastern Kings in the East, Judges may be of the Families of the House of Israel: Sure I am when Joseph was lost, though his Father thought him to have beene utterly cast away, yet when he was found, he was found to be a great man in Egypt, and the Prophet Ezekiel understandeth by Joseph, all the 10 Tribes. Ezekel 37-16. And who can tell whether some of these 10 Tribes may not be found to be great men of the East, And I remember Lunius an exact Translator, and commentor upon the Bible, faith that which is called the Land of Sinim, Isay 49-12. May more probably be meant of China, and that the Greeke Geographers doe call them Sinae's, not Chinae's, which if it be the meaning there may be there many of them; and indeed he that readeth their story shall finde sundry memorable things in them that may agree to such as have sometimes beene Gods people, for though they worship other Gods, yet they have records, that their fathers did not so in ancient times; and it is reported of them that they make account that those are the best bookes, that bring a man to that estate wherein he was first made, which is no gentile-like principle, and the greatest preferents among them are of their Bookish men: It may be some of the ten Tribes or buried among them: yet it is not materiall to the Text, though if it be true, their Eastern situation will suit wel with the Text: but however it be, the truth is God doth by Covenant, account the whole Nation to be a royall Nation, and promiseth the Kingdomes of the World to be their Dominion, and that all enemies God will sweepe them off from the face of the Earth, as it is prophecied at large. Rev. 19. Now then if these be the Kings of the East, you will easily understand the evidence of other things in the Text: for what is the great rumbling blocke that hindreth the Jewes from

from closing with Christianity? They abhorre Images, and the juggling of the Fryers, and Monkes, who are not so cunning to devile miracles as the Jew is cunning to search them out, and to discover the legerdemaine of the Priests in them. To worship Idols of Gold and Silver is an abomination to them, and so are the rest of those five streams of wickednesse, which uphold the Turkish state: Let Christian Princes once arise and overthrow Images, represse their murders, remoove away their Fornications, Thefts, delusions, which they put upon Christianity, then shall there be a ready way prepared for their conversion, & no remaining impediment but their own corruption which God will mightily overpower; if once Euphrates be dryed up, down falls Popish, and Turkish tyranny together, and the Jews shall come forth marching to fight that great battell of the Lord God Almighty, then shall they see him whom they have piercing, and be zealous for God, as ever they have beene outrageous against him. And hereby you shall clearly see the agreement betweene Romans 11. 12, 15. (Where it is said, If the casting away of them be the reconciliation of the World: what shall the receiving of them be but life from the dead?) and 25. Where he saith, blindness in part is happened unto Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; the reconciliation lyeth here: The hardnesse of the Jews lieth upon them until the Christian Nations of the Gentiles, that have with the Pope apostatised from Christ, be come in, until they have dried up this River Euphrates, hardnesse lyeth upon the Jews, but then all Israel shall be saved, and after that looke for the rest of the Gentiles that never yet received the Gospel, to come in also: then will God bring them home mightily, and not till then: Thus you see the meaning of these words, wherein I have beene the more large, because in such Scriptures, the explication is as much to be attended as the application. Let us shortly touch upon a note or two.

Doct. 1. That the dayes are comming wherein Christian Princes, and States shall powre out the wrath of God, upon Popish superstition, and Idolatry, and upon all the Fountains, and streams of Turkish Tyranny.

For this sext Angell are those 10 Christian Kings spoken of Chap. 17. 16. They shall powre out this wrath. Therefore those Christian Kings went a wrong way to worke, when they thought to have overcome the Turk, and regayned the holy Land; It is strange
It is strange to see how the Turks prospered against them, and how much Christian blood Christian Princes spent to no purpose, in fighting against them? The way had been, first to have dried up all those streams of Superstition, and Idolatry, and to have thrown down that min of Sinne; that had beene the ready way to prevail against the Turk; but the season was not then come, it is now coming, and how soon it will come I know not; the Lord knoweth, but coming it is, as appeareth by the Context of this Viall with the former; yea they are in part fulfilled, and like the Speare of Joshua they will not returne, nor cease till all the Lords enemies be overcome; The judgements of God upon their common Catholikes; their worship and government, their secular, and regular Priests, upon the Sunne, the House of Austria, and the Papes supremacy, you have heretofore heard the judgements of God upon the throne of the Beast, which is the Episcopacy, is already begun, as you lately heard darkned it hath beene by the going forth of the Scots, and doubtlesse the Lord will not let it rest there untill it have gone over the Seas, and come to the Gates of Rome, yea to the Bishop of Rome himselfe, for after the Lord hath beene pleased to some the Churches from their Hierarchicall monarchy, then the next newes you shall hear of, will be, that Christian Princes begin to see the lewdnesse that is found in their worship, the wickednesse of their Murders, Sorceries, Fornications, and Thefts, whereby they robbed their soules, as well as their bodies, then will they dry up these streams, and to Euphrates (that did wash this Rome, and the Turkish Empire also) will be dried up: for this worke will goe on prospering to prosper, and though it may now and then be interrupted, yet when it beginneth, it will also make an end, for the Lord is Almighty, when he beginneth he will goe on to perfect his worke, and he will not leave unto old Eli roote or branch. It is easy with the Lord to advance the worke a little higher, and then the streams of their maintenance will be dried up by the hatred, wherewith they will hate the whore, and make her desolate, and naked: for the time is approaching.

The reason why the Lord will thus dry up the streams of Euphrates is, that he may untwist his own judgements in the same way wherein himselfe did twist them; we have before heard how his judgements fell upon the Christian World by the founding
The sixth Viall.

In the first place, this may serve to provoke us all earnestly to call upon the Lord, that he would stir up the hearts of Princes to consider, and open their Eyes to see how needful their attempts are to rise up against the Pope: and for that end that they may see that the jugglings of Popery are but Thefts, and Murders, and Superstitions: For when once those things are thoroughly discovered, the means of the maintenance of the man of sinne must needs be dried up: How much cause therefore have we to wrestle with God for such mercy, and that our prayers may be so much the more effectuall, strengthen wee our Faith, in this, that the Lord will doe it for he hath promised it, and hath begun to power out this Viall, and will not cease untill he have left the Pope neither roote nor branch.

Use 2. Secondly, this may serve to teach us, the ready way to subdue the Tyrants of the World, and to take away all their supprentance, their wallses and Bullworkes: How should you take Babylon? dry up Euphrates, and Babylon is taken with a wet finger, as when they dried up Euphrates, they found it but a worke of burning of Reedes, to take old Babylon. And how shall you overcome the Turkes? dry up but the Fountaines of the Corruptions of Religion, and you remoove Antichrist, and make the Turkes easily Conquerable, he will not be defenceable then, whereas now he standeth like a wall of brasse, and so will doe untill these streams of corruption be dried up: It was a notable practice that which the Lord directed his people unto Judges 10. When they cried unto the Lord to deliver them from their enemies that oppressed them: The Lord recounted the gracious deliverances which he had shewed them; yet ( faith he Verse 13.) you have forsaken me and served other Gods; wherefore I will deliver you no more; goe and cry unto the Gods which you have chosen, and let them deliver you in the time of your Tribulation. When they heard that they confessed their fin sin and put away the strange Gods from among them, and served the Lord; and his soule was grieved for the misery of Israel; then the Lord stirreth up the people to thinke upon Iephishah, and they easily goe through the worke of vanquishing the oppressing Enemies: In like manner bring but in false Doctrine, worship, and government into the Church, and you bring in monsters of men among you, the grand seignours of the World will oppose, and rule over you: On the other side let the Churches be reformed in France, in England, in Scotland, &c. Whatsoever other nations ther ebe by that have defiled themselves with Popish doctrine, worship and government, let them but fall to this worke of reformation, and verily the Lords Soule will be grieved for their misery, that they are so oppressed with a base Priest and his Clergy, who is in the mean while nothing else but a dunghill of corruption, and what need have we earnestly to strive in prayer with God for these things? and as great Nations are healed so are particular persons also by being purged from their Idolatries, Fornications, Thefts, and Murders, they are preserved from those personall evils which by Sea or Land might prevale against them. And the Lord is able to doe it for great Nations as well as for particular persons; for as he puts it into the hearts of Princes to agree and give their Kingdomes unto the Beast; so he can as easily withdraw their hearts from him, and cause them to see the vanity of their subjection to him: Let us therefore give the Lord no rest, untill he have fulfilled his word, and overturned all his Enemies.

That the pouring out of the wrath of God upon the Romish Superstition and Tyranny, as it will be the drying up of the Popish and Turkish Tyranny, so it will prepare a ready way for the conversion of the Iewes.

When they shall see Christ riding upon a white horfe, and going forth conquering to conquer, then shall they be gathered unto him,

Because popish delusions, Idolatry and Superstitions are the greatest impediments of their conversion. No man is acquainted with their writings but knoweth that these things stand in their way: when the streams of Idolatry, Sorcery, Martyrdom of the Saints of God, Fornication, and robbery be dried up, then will there be a prepared way for the glorious conversion of the Iewes, together with the rest of the Nations which cannot enter into the Temple until the seven plagues of the seven Angels are fulfilled, and then will they come in as honourable maids and attending upon the Queene; it will be like unto the resurrection from the dead unto them; many devises there are in the minds of some to thinke that Jesus Christ shall come from Heaven againe, and reign here upon Earth a thousand yeares, but they are but the mistakes of some high expressions in Scripture, which describe the judgments poured out upon Gods enemies, in making a way for their conversion, by the patterne of the last judgement.

This may serve to provoke us and all the Churches of Christ, to hold fast the purity of Doctrine, worship, and government in the Church of Christ: let no streams of Idolatry, nor love of the world, run in our hearts: If our Cows be our Gods, the Lord will power out a Viall upon then, that from 25s. they shall fall to 5s. price; the Lord hath sometimes threatened that he will famish all the Gods of the Earth Zep. 2. 11. So that all the Gods of the Gentiles shall not be able to provide, any more offerings to be brought unto their Altars, neither Apollo, nor Jupiter, nor Hercules can have any victuals: and so will God deal with our Cattell if they be our Gods, they shall either be worth little, or else he will deny us fodder for them; if they devour our spirits, and take off our minds from the Ordinances of God; he will rend away any thing that standeth between him and our souls; Therefore asever we desire that we may prosper, and that their may be a ready way prepared for our comfort, let no streams of Idolatry, be found among us, then will the Lord make way for many of his deserved ones to come in among us, or else will make us well without them; For all the silver and gold in the world is his, as the Cattell are his on a 1000 Hills. Only let us take part with this Angell in powring out Viails upon the corruptions that are found in our own hearts; looke that their be no corruptions in us, but such as are still drying and drying up, and see if God be not faithfull and gracious to us abundantly; stir we up ourselves therefore, and one another hereunto, and pray that God would stir up other Nations and Peoples hereunto, then shall we see Gods ancient people brought home, and the Lord shall be one over all the Earth, and his name one, which will prove a Resurrection unto all the Churches of the Saints.

The
And the sixth Angel poured out his Vial upon the great River Euphrates, and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared. (13.)

And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet, (14.) For they are the spirits of Devils working miracles, which go forth unto the Kings of the Earth, and of the whole World, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

These words (as ye have heard) is described the pouring out of the sixth Vial of Gods wrath. Described it is by the subject, upon which it was poured forth, and secondly, by the effect which ensued. The subject was the great River Euphrates. The effect that followed it, was first the drying up of the waters thereof; and that amplified by the end, that the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared. The second
The second part of the sixth Viall.

Second effect was a warlike expedition, or preparation thereunto; set forth by the principall Commanders, the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet, and by the instruments, who are here said to be for their nature Spirits, for their quality uncleane, for their number three, for their resemblance like Frogs, for their original comming out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet: And that amplified by the cause; for they are the spirits of Devills. And Lastly, they are described by their effects; which are three. 1 They worke miracles. 2 They goe forth to the Kings of the earth, and of the World to gather them to Battell, and thirdly they doe gather them into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. Thus is this war here especially described by their principall Commanders, and instruments. It is described also by the watch-word, which the Lord giveth unto his servants against the battell in that time. Behold I come as a sheafe, blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments left hee walke naked, and they see his shame.

We entred into these words the last day; And shewed you whom this Angell was, what is meant by the River Euphrates, who are the Kings of the East, and the way prepared for them: in a word (only to make way to that which remains) you heard this sixth Angel that powred out this Viall upon the great River Euphrates, cannot well be understood of the Jews powring out the wrath of God upon the Turkish Dominions; For it is evident from the last verse of the 15 Chapter, that none can enter into the Temple till these 7 Vialles be powred out. The lewes therefore shall not be called till the seuenthe Viall be powred out.

And they that powred out these Vialles were such as came out of the Temple, 15 Chapter 6 Verse, Out of reformed Churches, girt with golden girdles of truth; and clothed with pure, and white Linnen, which is the righteousness of the Saints. They that powre out these Vialles are godly Christians, professors of the truth in sincerity. Now the Jewes cannot enter into that estate till the seven plagues be fulfilled. Againse suppose the Kings of the East be the Jewes, as they are more then probably conceived by interpreters; yet they cannot be the Angell that powred out this Viall: For the Angell that powred out this Viall he dries up the waters, and makes way for their comming in, therefore it is not they that powred out this Viall.

Ye
Yee have heard that the River Euphrates cannot be properly meant of that River Euphrates that watered old Babell; because the wrath of God is not upon materiall Rivers, and Fountaines of waters, but onely upon such persons as dwell neare them, or may be watered by them: but the River it selfe cannot be it. It is not taken here for one of those Rivers and Fountaines of water which were turned into bloud, in the 18 Verse of this Chapter by the third Angell: for then if it had been so understood the wrath of God had been powred upon him in the third Viall, not in this sixt. The rivers there meant are such popish Emissaries, and Priests, as doe carry the popish Doctrine up and downe the Country; now Euphrates washed Babylon; and his rivers are dried up when Babylon is taken: now Babylon comes to be taken, and destroyed in the next Viall, not in the sixth Viall, as some have hertofore taken it: But Euphrates therefore being that which watered the City of old Babell, it must be something that doth the like office unto this new Babell, unto Rome: that waters the throne of the Beast; that waters the seat of antichrist. And yet (mind ye) so waters it, that if the waters thereof be dried up, there is way made for the Kings of the East to come in, and consequently way made for the ruine of the Turkish Empire, and Monarchy; For as yee heard these seven Vialls come in, in order as the seven Trumpets did; to remove the seven judgements they brought in, looke how the seven Trumpets sounded, and by their sounding brought in severall gradual judgements, so just in the same order are these Vialls powred out, and the former judgements removed. As the first Trumpet brought a plague upon the Earth, so the first Angell powred out a Viall upon the Earth, to remove that plague. The second Trumpet sounding brought a judgement upon the Sea; The second Angell powres cut his Viall upon the Sea; and so the rest: The sixth Trumpet (as yee heard) let loose the four Angells, the foure Turkish Families bound by the river Euphrates, which brought in the Turkish apostacy, and tyranny into the World. This Euphrates is such a river as waters Babell; and the drying it up did of old make way for the ruine of Babell. So will the drying up of this Euphrates dry up the force, and strength of the new Babylon; and so of the Turkish tyranny also. In one word, yee have heard, that which hath been the strength and fence of the Turkish Dominion, hath been the streames of corruption and false worship.
The second part of the sixth Viall.

in the Babilombe, for so yee read in the ninth Chapter of this booke, and the 20 and 21 verse: That for all this faith the Text, notwithstanding the letting loose of the Turkes from Euphrates, yet they repented not of the workes of their hands, that they should not worship Devils, and Idols of Gold, and Silver, and Brass, and Stone, and of Wood, &c. Neither repented they of their murthers, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornications, nor of their Thefts: So that it is evident the Turkish Empire was raised up, and stands to this day, as a scourge of God upon the idolatries, and superstitions of the Church of Rome, and upon their murthers, and witch-crafts, and thefts, by which the whole Christian world hath been abused these many hundred yeares.

So that then the Angeli that powred out this Viall yee heard to be those ten Christian Kings, of whom ye read more at large in the next Chapter: That shall dry up this Fountain: that is to say, the streames of antichristian worship, and pollution; all stop the course of it. They shall stop the course of those Murtherous inquisitiones; They shall stop the course of those Thefts; and indulgences and penances: they shall stop the course of those Whoredomes, wherewith Babylon hath beene made drunk: the cup of her Fornication. Now when this streame of corruption is dried up by the reformation of protestant Kings; it shall come to passe, that there will be a way made for the Kings of the East to come in: for yee heard, that by the Kings of the East are properly meant the Jews: as being of old called Kings, A royall Priesthood: so that way is made for them by this reformation of religion in Christendome: The removing of those abuses (to wit) of the corruption of religion, and popish superstition, and idolatry, way is made for their conversion: and doe but dry up those streames, and then you leave Babylon dry; and you leave the Turkish Monarchy weakened: for the staffe of the Turkish Monarchy is the superstition of Antichristianisme.

From hence therefore yee have heard already these two notes gathered, and handled: the first is this, that the dayes are comming, wherein Christian Princes shall dry up the streames of antichristian corruption in Religion: And thereby also dry up the Fountaines of the streames of the Turkish tyranny.

Secondly, yee have heard this note (also) gathered, and handled. That upon the drying up of the streames of corruption of of Antichristian religion, and of Turkish Tyranny, way is made for the conversion of the Jews, the antient people of God.

Of these two we spake the last day; and thus much was needful to be repeated, that yee might understand where wee are. To procede to the next note then, the third that concerns this Viall, but the first at this time. Let me first gather the note and then shew you how it rises out of the Text: then give some grounds of it, and make use of it as the Lord shall helpe, the note is this.

Upon the drying up of the streames of the corruption of religion in Christendome, the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet, shall send forth their choicest instruments to stir up, and gather together, both Popish and Pagan Princes, unto a great battell, to withstand the reformation of Christians, and the conversion of the Jews.

This is the somme. See all these points expressly, and distinctly delivered, and fully, in these two Verses, the 13 and 14. For further then so I shall not goe at this time. And this one note opens both these Verses, and all the passages therein.

First yee see upon the pouwing out of this Viall upon the river Euphrates, and the drying up the streames thereof, that is upon the drying up of the corruptions of religion, superstition, Idolatry, Murthers, and Whordomes: restraining and drying up all such Fountaines, what follows? He saith the Beast, the Dragon, and the false Prophet, sent out of their mouths three unclean spirits, like Frogs; which goe forth unto the Kings of the Earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

To open this doctrine, and the words a little:

First for the Dragon yee have heard it noted before (from the 12. Rev. 9. verse) him to be the old Serpent, Satan: but taken chiefly as he doth act, and govern, and dwell in the Roman state: And therefore he is described to have seven heads, and ten Hornes, in the third verse of the 12 Chapter. But take him as he is Satan spiritually, and he hath neither heads, nor hornes. Take him as he governes Rome and so he hath seven heads, and ten hornes. The seven heads are seven hilles: And the ten hornes are ten governemnts, who then is the Beast? the Beast (as ye have heard) he is described by the very same Characters, seven heads and ten hornes.
The second part of the sixth Viall.

hones, 13. Rev. 9. verse. It is said to be him to whom the Dragon hath given his power, and his seat, and great authority; it doth therefore hold forth the Roman state; not Rome Pagan nor Rome Christian (as yee have heard) It remains therefore to be Rome antichristian: which is that? The Roman visible Catholique Church: that is the first Beast, which claims all the power by pretence of religion, which old Rome, and the Roman Monarchy claimed by force of armes. Who is then the false Prophet? The false Prophet hee is never mentioned before in this booke, not by name; and yet hee is spoken of here as well knowne: It appears therefore, this false Prophet is the 2 Beast in 13 Rev. 11 verse to the end: The second Beast there is said to work Miracles: in the 13 Verse he doth great wonders, &c. And 18 Verse he deceiveth them that dwell on the Earth, by the means of these miracles, &c. And the same yee shall reade of the false Prophet in the 19 Rev. 20 Verse, The Beast was taken, and with him the false Prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the marke of the Beast.

And them which worshiped his Image, &c. The description is the same of the false Prophet, and of the Beast: both of them holding forth the head of the Roman Church: The false Prophet Balaam, the Bishop, (or Antichrist) of Rome. So that it doth imply thus much, that the Dragon, and the Devill himselfe did stir up, not the Pope onely, but the whole Catholicke Church, to gather into some councill, or some other solemn meeting, some chief concurse of them, who by common consent shall (out of their mouthes) that is to say, by their commands, their Cannons, and Decrees, for that is out of their mouthes: out of their commands, out of their edicts, out of their injunctions, shall send forth their uncleane Spirits; Spirits they bee for nimblenesse and activity, Spirits they bee for impetuousnesse, and strength, Spirits they bee also for close and cleanly conveyance: There is no stopping the gates against Spirits, yee cannot so stop the Cinque-ports but they will in; they will enter into any Court, Princes Palaces, or great mens Houses; there no hindering of them, they have a cleanly conveyance, and secret and close passage. And they are also Spirits of Devills. It is not the ordinary word Devill, but Damon, the which is wont to express Spirits for their knowledge, and learning: They are learned Spirits, and yet Devills for their deceit and mischief:

Yee
Ye are of your Father the devil, & the works of your Father ye will doe, John 8:44. Liars for deceit, & Murtherers for mischief; these are the spirits he sends forth, which surely coming as they doe, out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet, they are not spirits properly so called: They are therefore Emissaries sent forth by them, men of nimble wits, and parts, active for nimbleness, and close conveyance: and full of deceit and mischief. And these are the spirits are sent forth: and here said to be three spirits coming out of their mouths, not as if one came out of the mouth of one, and another came out of the mouth of another; but all three of them came out of all their mouths together at once. It is not rightly translated here, that he faith he saw them coming out; for the word coming out, is not in the original: but hee saw them out of those mouths, out of those mouths they had came; thence they had their originall, and from thence they sprang.

Much inquiry there is who they should be: I will not trouble you with variety of mens judgements. The Dragon is no more here the Turkish Empire then before, but the Dragon here is hee that is before called Satan, acting Rome, and so hath seven Heads, and ten Hornes; which are the Armes of Rome, as yee have heard before, not of Constantinople: And it is hee that consults, and conspires with the Beast of Rome to send forth these three uncleane Spirits. Now if you shall put all together that hath beene observed by different Interpreters, and consider withall what kinde of spirits the Catholique Church, and the head thereof (the Bishop of Rome) hath troubled the Church withall, yee shall finde they all fall under three sorts: three sorts of spirits they doe all issue from, and these have all inspired and breathed into them the very Character of the nature which is found in the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet. There are many rables of popish orders, which were endless to name now: But they are all summed up in three Heads: for all the other are but hangbies, and traines to them: all the Emissaries of Rome, the spirits whereby hee hath troubled the Church, they all fall under these three, either Cardinalls, Bishops, or Jesuites: and under the Jesuites I ranke all regular Fryers, they are all of them of one nature, regular men.
men, Cloyster-men; of which the Jesuites are the chief; and I would rather instance the Jesuites, because the rest of that rabble (the other orders of Fryers and Monkes) they are described not under the name of Frogs, but under the name of Locusts, chirping Creatures, as the Frogs are Croaking: and both come out of the bottomlesse pit: But the other are more like to Locusts, in the 9 Revelations 3 to 11. They be both of them mischeivous, both the Locusts, and the Frogs too; but the Frogs are a little too dull for this kind of employment, which is attributed to the Frogs: but these three the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet, send forth the Cardinalls, the Bishops, and the Jesuites: yee shall finde the quintessence of nimble wits in these Spirits; active and nimble spirits, yee shall finde them close and secret in their conveyances, like spirits: no part can be so secretly watcht but they will enter in, no Gates of Princes Pallaces to secret but they will enter them. And uncleane they be as neither fit for meat nor for sacrifice: as uncleane Beasts were. They are neither fit for Church nor Common-wealth: neither fit for the one nor the other, neither for meate nor sacrifice: uncleane also arising out of the mud; uncleane in their Doctrine, rooting out the Doctrine of Lise; uncleane in their conversation, as all false Teachers more or lesse bee, Jude 8. and 10 Verse. And making the Countries uncleane where they come: they let loose the raines and open a doore unto all Licentiousnesse and Prophanesse. Three unclean Spirits like Frogs. This description of them likening of them to Frogs doth exclude them from the Locusts, for they are not Amphibia (as they call them,) such as can live upon the Waters or Earth: for Locusts love not to be in the Waters; but these are indifferent on Earth or Waters: Therefore these three can indifferently live either upon the waters, or upon the Earth; and even as well in the one as in the other. It is indifferent to them whether yee imploy them in Church worke, they can domineer there; or whether you imploy them in state matters, they are as free, and as busy there, in the Courts of Princes, and the states of Commonwealths, and as impetuous there, and as active there, and as cunning, and as dominering, and Lordly there as they are in the Church.

And therefore looke as were the plagues of Egypt (which is called Sodom so are these plagues of spiritual Sodom. The Frogs they came upon them cunningly, and would come into the Kings Pallaces, and no place could be kept free from them: Even such are these three unclean spirits, no place can they be kept out from. And like unto Frogs are they for their continual croaking; nothing but one kind of tune: their own matters they never leave croaking of not like these Frogs here in America that have a several tune in each part of the yeare, but they are always in one, or two, or three at the most; either the Catholique visible Church, or the Pope the Judge of controversies, or of visible succession. And then looke as yee see it is with Frogs they are most busy with their notes when it growes darke, and in the heat of the day they are a great deal more silent, for then they get them downe into the mud; so it is with these unclean spirits, they ly close if the light of the Gospel shines forth brightly: And if it grow warme in the zeall of the spirits of Christians, then yee here no newes of them, but they are in some muddy places then, they are hustled then: if you should come with a Torch in the midnight they are silent and still then.

But now when there is want of light, or want of heat of Religion, then it is indeed that these spirits are most croaking, and tumultuous, and unquiet: but otherwise if the spirits of Christians and Statesmen grow warme in Religion, ther’s no noise nor newes of these spirits; so these are the three unclean spirits that come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet. And these three have left a spice of their own nature in them, the Devil hath left a spice of his murther and malice against religion, and well ordered government tending to disorder; the Catholique Church hath left them his state and preheminence, his Lordly Dominion and spiritual supremacy, and authority, carving all before him; The false Prophet hath left them corrupt Doctrine and corrupt worship; These corrupt all where they come, and with cleanly conveyance in the Name of the Lord, and thus saith the Lord: when indeed it is nothing but the mere inventions of the sinfull false hearts of the sonnes of men. To goe on a little further in the exposition of these spirits.

They are the spirits of Devils, That is to say all of a devilish nature.
nature; they are not God’s spirits: men they will be accounted to be, but they are spirits of the bottomless pit, the spirits of Devils, Devils for learning, and Devils for deceit, and Devils for mischief.

Working miracles.] It is a proper work of the second Beast, but they are all but lying wonders, they come (saith the Apostle Paul) with all power of signs and lying wonders. 2 Thes. 2. 9. And these being all thus furnisheth, the Text tells you,

They goe forth unto the Kings of the Earth. By Earth in this book is meant the Earthly Religion, and to the Princes of Earthly religion they goe forth, therefore they goe unto the Kings of the Earth, and of the whole World. They do not containe themselves in the limits of Christendome, but the other Princes, the Princes of the whole world (that is to say) to Pagan Princes. They would have power to prevent (if it were possible) this great mischief to themselves, that they might crush these Christian Kings that brought in the reformation; therefore they goe forth to the Kings of the Earth, and of the whole World, to gather them to battell, to the battell of that great day of God Almighty. That’s not the last judgement (as some have thought) there will be no warring then; but every day of great execution is called a great day of God Almighty. But that we shall speake to (God willing) when we come to it, of that great day of God Almighty.] But what day is that? yee have it expounded in the 19. Rev. 17. It is the day of God’s great Supper; that ye may eat the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of Captaines, and the flesh of mighty men, &c. This is the great day of God Almighty, on which these worldly and wicked, these Papish and Pagan Princes with all their power, and all their forces, and armies they are able to make, shall come forth against the Lord Jesus, and against these Christian Princes, that have beene serious, and studious in the reformation of Religion, and in the drying up of these streams of corruption. Thus you see the words opened, and the plain and true meaning of them. I cannot speake of the comming of Christ now, and of the gathering together to the great battell of Armageddon, and I would not open more than I am able to finish at this present. Therefore now consider the Doctrine againe, and the truth of it, how it doth plainly arise from the words of the Text.
The second part of the sixth Vision.

Upon the powring out of the sixth Vision (that is to say) upon the drying up of the current, and streames of the corruption of Antichristian religion, or Christian religion (for Antichristian religion is but the corruption of religion in Christendome.) The Dragon (that is to say the Devil) and the Beast (that is to say the Roman Catholique visible Church,) and the false Prophet (that is to say the Pope the head of the Church) did send forth out of their mouths (that is to say out of their commands) three unclean spirits, (that is Cardinalls, and Bishops, and Jesuites.)

To stir the Princes of the Earth, and of the whole World, (that is both Popish, and Pagan Princes) to a great battle. To what end? ye may see by the occasion of it, is was upon the powring out the Vision of the wrath of God upon the streames of corruption of religion, therefore they would turne the streams against, to prevent the way of the Kings of the East (that is) the conversion of the Jews, by bringing in old Idolatry and Superstition, spiritual Adulteries and Whoredomes, and Witchcrafts, for the maintenance of the Sea of Rome.

Thus you see the point plain from the Text, neither is there any difficulty that remains for the opening of it, that I doe discern.

Now then for the Reasons of the point, and so briefly to come to the use. The reasons are two, why that upon this drying up of the streames of corruption of Religion these three great commanders should thus send forth such kinde of Emissaries, instruments that will bee active, and nimble to gather such a fearfull Battell against the Lord, and against his servants.

The first reason is taken from the nature of their Kingdom. Reason.

Antichrists kingdom is contrary to the Kingdom of Christ; his Kingdom is not of the Earth, theirs are from beneath; his Kingdom is not of this World, But theirs are of this World, These are of the World, saith John speaking of Antichrist, in the 1 John 4. Chapter 6 Vers. And therefore (minde yee) the weapons of their warfare are carnall, full of malice, and full of envy, and devilishnesse; their instruments are not spiritual, but carnall, and worldly. And therefore being thus shaken as they are, their returne is not to Fasting and Prayer,
The second part of the sixth Viall.

or the power of the holy Ghost, or the power of spirituall gifts, or so forth; these are estranged from them: And now they fall to carnall policy and worldly power, and devillish engines, and instruments, these are fit for this use. This is one Reason.

2. The other reason is taken from their implacable malice and hatred against the reformation of religion, and the conversion of either Jew or Gentile, to the saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus, thering is nothing more grievous to these spirits then the prosperity of religion, they gnash their teeth for paine in the former Viall, this is that will vex them more then all the rest, to see these Rivers dried up, and these streams dried up, and now the holy City of Rome blasted; this doth stirre them up to implacable malice, and mischief: and now they care not who they confederate withall, so they may crush the Christian Princes and hinder reformation; It was truly prophesied of by the Apostle Paul, That evill men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 2 Timothy 3,13.
So it is with these evill men here, if they see they cannot get victory over Protestants, though they have pretended warre with the Turk for the recovering of the holy Land, yet now they will consent with him; they sticke not who they agree with, so they may maintaine their war. To come then briefly to make some use of what ye have heard: the use of the point is thus much.

First, it may teach every noble wit, and every active spirit,
and every man of cleanly conveyance, not to pride him-selte, much lesse to bleffe himselse, in such gifts and parts:
what ever they be pride not your selves, bleffe not your selves in them; you see heere is a Generation of nimble spirits, and active wits; cleanly spirits, spirits of as neat and cleanly conveyance as ever the World saw; men full of wit, and full of dexterity; men good for Church (as they count it) not-table there; and not able for the Common-Wealth; they are marvelous fit for all kinds of employment in their owne wayes, and thats very large for their owne ends; and yet see they are but made instruments to the Dragon to the Beast, and to the false Prophet: So that verily if a man now should take pride in his gifts, and bleffe himselse in the activenesse of
of his spirit, and cleanly conveyance, applaud himselfe in such kinde of enlargements as these be, I tell you the Devill hath as quick wits as you are; and as active spirits as you are; and men of as dexterous conveyance as you can be; And therefore never pride your selves in these, they are such as are as fit instruments for the Devill as for Christ, and many times the Lord Jesus takes lesse delight in such as these, then hee
doeth in plainer and simpler men; See of your calling Brethren ( faith the Apostle Paul ) in the 1 Corinthians i. 26. How that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called. It is I say ( therefore ) an abase-ment unto all flesh, and unto all the glory of the flesh; all flesh is as Grasse, and the goodliest of flesh and blood, is but as the flower of the Field that faeth away: take it at the best its but a Flower, but take them as they may bee improved by Satan none more mischeivous, none more active instruments for the Devill, for sinne, for Corruption then these fine quicke wits and spirits bee, These nimble wits, these active spirits; pride not your selves in these things I say;
these are the most dangerous if the Lord set not in to take hold of them; pride not your selves ( therefore ) in these things, The more learned and witty you bee, the more fit to act for Satan will you bee if the Lord leave you, the more neat handed, and quicke witted and nimble spirited you bee, the more notable, and profitable will you bee for the Devill, if hee take hold of you: pride not your selves ( therefore ) in these, much lesse allow your selves in sacrificing of these to Satan: But see you doe sacrifice your wits, and spirits, and dexterity, and what ever you bee, or have as a living sacrifice to Christ Jesus, to his advantage: or else they will bee improved to the service of the Devill, and his instruments, The great and monstrous Beast, the Roman Catholique visible Church, and the head thereof, the holy Father the Pope, as they call him.
Secondly, it may take off the fond doting of the sonnes of men upon the learning of the Jesuites, and the glory of the Episcopacy, and brave estate of the Prelate. I say bee not deceived with these pomps, and empty shewes,
The second part of the sixth Viall.

and faire representations of a goodly condition before the eyes of flesh and blood, bee not taken with the applause of these persons, yee have many at this Day, that stand and wonder upon the reading of the Jesuies, at the witty inventions, and marvelous dexterity of judgement. They are strong persuaders, and strange practitioners of what they take in hand: marvellously are men taken with the strength of their judgements, and the strength of their wits; And dote marvellously upon the Cardinalls, and upon the Bishops, and upon the Jesuies, and upon holy Catholique Mother Church, and their holy Father the Pope. These are the gods many of them doe adore.

I pray doe but looke well upon them all, what are they? all of them? Let but the holy Ghost give his judgement of them, (who is onely wise) let his Counsell bee taken, and what? They are spirits indeed, but uncleanse spirits, spirits of Devils, that come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the Beast, the Roman visible Catholique Church is in the esteme of the Holy Ghost a monstrous Beast (as yee heard in the 13 Chapter Revel. 1 Ve.) And the head of the Popishe Church a false Prophet. And what are these nimble wits, and goodly glorious persons yee speake of? uncleanse spirits neither fit for meat nor sacrifice, neither fit for Church nor Common-Wealth. Oh ye will say they are fit for both; But faith the holy Ghost they are Frogs, and not Church-men (as they call them) and unclean, and not fit for civill use: neither fit for Church nor State; but fit to corrupt both, and breed corruption in both: Frogs they are and their Songs are much what as Frogs are, if yee mind them their note is always much at one, either visible succession, and that's one note; the Judge of controversies, which they say must bee the Bishop of Rome, and the Roman Catholike visible Church the holy Mother Church as they call it, these are their notes, their Song, but it is but a Frog-like Song whatever they thinke: and yee shall ever finde it, that when Religion hath beene most lightsome, and Princes and States-men have beene most warme in Religion, then yee shall here no noise of these these Frogs, they ly close in the mud; But when Religion grows darke once, the shadow of the Sunne growes low, and large, when Christians wax cold, and Courtiers begin to be Popish, or carnall, or I cannot tell how conformable to the corruptions of the times, then they begin to croke loud, and all things must be as they will have them: but I say take them as they be, and they are but uncleane Frogs, that doe corrupt both Church, and State. And ( mind yee ) they are confederate with the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet: Yee shall finde it in time that they will be confederate with Turke, or Russian, Indian or Infidell, they will be ready to confederate with them all, and make no scrupill of these things. And yet they (as men thinke) are the onely Patriarkes, and make the greatest shew of religion: bee not deceived, you see how the holy Ghost describes them. And letthose that are of God learne what they are.

And thirdly, this may serve to teach Christian Princes, and States, that when Religion comes to bee reformed, they must looke for battells, and great battells: There is no hope that Satan will rest, the Dragon cannot rest when his Kingdome is shaken; And hee hath such of his confederacy, the Beast, and the false Prophet, that cannot be still, Especially when the streames of Rome begin to decay: the streames that doe water and refresh Rome. Then looke for Warres, and Tumults of Warres, great Warres, musterings up of Popish Princes, and their Armies, and pagan Princes, and their Armies, there will be no backwardnesse in these earthly spirits, in this case, to the captivating of all (if it were possible) to the maintenance and supportance of Rome.

And last of all, and so. I make an end. Let this bee the last use, It may serve to be some ground of itay unto Christian Princes, and such as shall bee instruments of this reformation which this sixth Angell brings with him, Instruments of this wasting and drying up of the corruptions of Religion which shall make Rome; I say though great Warres may arise from all the chiefe Princes of the
The second part of the sixth Viall,

VWorld, both Popish and Pagan, and a great day of battle it will bee when ever those dayes doe shine forth (as hastening they be,) why yee shall finde this to be the comfort of it, a great day it shall bee, It is so said in my Text, but not a great Day to the Beast, nor a great Day to the Dragon, nor a great Day to the false Prophet, (They looke for a Day of it,) but it shall be a great day of GOD Almighty: men are afraid if they shewe they shall bring Warses about their Eares, true they shall doe so, they will arise at once: but though the battle will bee great and terrible, yet never the lesse most comfortable to the People of God: It will bee a great Day indeed, but a great Day of the Lord God Almighty, that hee may offer a great Sacrifice to himselfe by the hands of his servants, that all the foules of prey and the beasts of prey may all of them come, and eate the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of Captaines, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of Horses and of them that sit on them; and the flesh of all men, both free and bound, both small and great; It will I say bee a great Sacrifice to the Beasts of prey, and the foules of prey: It shall be a great day indeed, but it shall not be a great day to the Papists, not a great day to the Dragon, nor to the Romish Catholique Church except it be a great day of their destruction, and that it will be indeed, as yee shall see when this battle is to be fought in the nineteenth Chapter, and they shall never trouble the World more, that will be the issue of it; The Dragon is referred to a further day; but yee shall bee bound for a thousand yeares, and afterwards shall make a great battle with the Saints, but after that shall be taken, and then cast into the lake for ever; But this will be a great day of God Almighty, wherein hee will powre out all the falls of his wrath upon the enemies of God, and his people; that the Name of the Lord GOD Almighty may bee prayed from the rising of the Sun to the going down thereof.

And therefore great and wonderfull are the Works of the Lord that hee doth receive for ever after, wherein the loftiness of man hee will lay low, but his name only shall be be exalted, *E*say 2. 2. Speaking of a farre lesse day then this that I am now speaking of; It will bee a great day to the glory of God, and the good of his people; To the inlargement of the Church of Christ, but of destruction to the enemies of the Lord Jesus: That they may be overthrowne, and taken and cast into the bottomlesse pit, never to rise up againe.
Behold, I come as a thief: Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

We have heretofore heard that these words set forth a description of the pouring out of the sixth Vial. Set forth it is by the subject, upon the great River Euphrates. By the effects, they were double: First, Immediate, the waters thereof were dried up. The second was Accidentall, and mediate, warlike preparation. The former effect of drying up the River, was amplified by the end; That the way of the Kings of the East might be prepared. The accidentall effect, (which was warlike preparation) was set forth by a double argument: First, by the efficient, principal and Instrumentall. Secondly, by the watch-word which the Lord gives his people. The efficient were (principally) the Devill, the Beast, and the false Prophet. The Instrumentals were certaine spirits, for nature: three spirits for number: Unclean for quality: Like Frogs for similitude: Out of the mouth of the Beast, the Dragon, and the false Prophet: For their originall which are described by their effects, which are three: They work miracles; They goe forth to the Kings of the earth, to gather them to battell: And thirdly, They doe gather them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. The watch-word which is the second Adjunct, observed in this warlike preparation, is the watch-word of the Lord Jesus to his people (in the words of my Text) there are two parts... of it: First, a description of the manner of his coming: by a comparison taken from the manner of a theefe: Behold I come as a theefe. The second is a word of promise, unto such as watch and keepe their garments at that time. The promise is first of blessednesse to them: And secondly, the prevention of the discovery of their owne nakednesse and shame: Blessed is hee that watcheth and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked; and they see his shame. Not to repeat what hath been delivered, that which offereth it selfe here to our consideration, is a two-fold doctrine.

Dott. 1.

When Frogs, and unclean Spirits, (that is to say) when Popish Instruments shall goe forth To gather the Princes of the earth, and of the whole world, unto battell: And those Princes shall go forth to battell against the Lord and his people. It is behoefull for the people of God, to behold the Lord Jesus comming against them, or comming to them as a theefe. That's the note: when the Lord exposes his people to great trials, by the busy diligence of those Frogs, or by the violent rage of the Beast and Kings of the earth, against Religion: The Lord then calleth his people to behold him comming uppon them, (I meane upon all the professors of the Gosspell) the Lord calleth them to looke upon him comming at them, or comming to them as a theefe. Behold (faith he) I come as a theefe. When doth he say so? when these Frogs were let forth: Those unclean spirits of Devils sent forth to stirre up the Kings of the earth, and of the world to gather them to battell, against the Lord, and against his people, and against Christian Religion, and them that maintaine it. Then, Behold, I come as a theefe: They are the words of the Lord Jesus. Because the notes are double, that the Text holds forth; I must be briefe in either of them.

As a theefe.] The Scripture hath respect to a foure-fould manner of a theefe comming. He doth not come as a theefe in Justice or robbery: That the holy Spirit of the Lord Jesus cannot be capable of. How can hee steale any thing from us, which is not his own: There is nothing but it is his, and therefore in that sense he cannot be said to come as a theefe, (But yet) as a theefe he can come suddenly, and he can come secretly and sily, yea, and he can come also violently, and terribly, as a theefe.

Thus he can come, and thus he is described in the Scripture to come; which, though some think it to be at the last judgement, yet I cannot so conceive it; for here's a world of businesse that is to be translated after this Vial is poured out: above a thousand years after this, before the coming of Christ to the last judgement, but his coming in any notable judgement, his coming, especially if it be a coming suddenly, and secretly, and powerfully: It is coming as a thief, as ye have an instance of it in Rev. 3.3. to the Church of Sardis, I will come on thee as a thief. How like a thief? Thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. And so in Luke 12.39. If the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. But coming suddenly, and secretly, at unawares therefore it comes to passe, that the good man of the house is asleep, and the thief breaks thoro w and steals, when all is light then he comes, like a thief in the night, 1 Thes. 5.2. Your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh, as a thief in the night. So like a thief hee comes suddenly, and secretly. Thirdly, he comes as a thief, to take away, and bereave a man of such goods as he carnally keeps, not to steal from him, but to recover his own: Though not as a little thief stealeth, yet as a just recoverer of his fathers goods, out of the hands of those that have not been faithfull in improving of them. John 10.10. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come, that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

And so he may come also to kill; but not unjustly, as a thief, but verily as a just Judge, upon those that do not watch, and keep their garments: He may take their garments, and leave them naked, that men may see their shame, and justly too, because they have not watched, but have suffered themselves to be defiled.

Thus then Christ will come at that time (yea shall have many men serious of reformation, when the Lord shall dry up the River Euphrates, that makes glad the city of Babylon) when the ten Kings shall come to make the Whore desolate: the Lord will then come and try all those Kings and their soldiers, who ever they are he will try them: in the Frogs he will try them, secretly and sily, for they will not cease to be enchanting, as secretly as they can, into the hearts of Kings, and all godly spirits, to turne things backe againe into the former course of corruption: into those idolatries and thefts, which made glad the City of Rome, and which did uphold the Turke.
And in the Kings of the earth, and of the world, he will come upon them as a thief violently and terribly, to shake the hearts of all the Kings of Christendom (as it's called) to withdraw them from the Reformation of Religion, which they shall be zealously addicted to; suddenly to drive them to their former superstition of their fore-fathers. So in one sort of these he will come as a thief, secretly and slyly; in the other sort of these, he will come as a thief, violently and terribly.

Reas. 1. If ye shall ask the Reason of the Point, the Reason is shortly this; First, it is taken from the instrument in which Christ doth come, for Christ is many times resembled by the instruments which he useth; if he useth instruments of a still voice, then he comes not with a rending, but with a still voice: so ye read in 1 Kings 19.12. So here he comes in these unclean spirits, for the Lord acts them; he comes in Potent Princes, for he is said to come in the likeness of these, he comes in them both; and he is said to come as a thief, in the likeness of these Frogs, because they come in his likeness. Ye shall have many false Prophets come in my name, (saith Christ) Mat. 24.24. Take heed of them, for they shall deceive many; they shall come secretly, and slyly, and play legerdemain, and by that means deceive many; and they shall come outrageously, first against the Lord and his people; and the Lord comes forth in their rage; that look as it is said (by some Interpreters) of Paul, 1 Cor. 15.32. He fought with beasts at Ephesus, after the manner of men; they interpret it thus, not that ever he was put to any such trial (that any probable Stories mention) in Ephesus, or any where else; but he fought with beasts at Ephesus, after the manner of men; because the men of Ephesus fought with him after the manner of beasts: So Christ is said to come in these men, because they come in the name of Christ, and plead for the Catholic Church of Christ, and the Vicar of Christ. Behold, I come as a thief; they are all but thieves, though they pretend to come in the name of Christ; that may be one part of the meaning; But yet notwithstanding, this that followeth do I most of all cleave unto, not excluding that.

This may be another, taken from the authority of Christ, and power of Christ, in leading a people into temptation, what ever the instruments be; I say it is the Lord Jesus that leads his people into all kinds of temptation, whatsoever the instruments be: If any Prophet be deluded, it is Christ the Lord hath deluded that Prophet: Or if any Tyrants be set up, it is the Lord that sets them up: Or what ever unclean spirits come against his Church, it is the Lord that stirred them up, it is the Lord that stirred them up unto this battell against his Church, it is the Lord that stirred them up, what ever the instruments be, be they Frogs, or unclean spirits that gathers to the battels of Pray; And therefore we are taught to pray in (that which is commonly called) the Lords Prayer (Mat. 6.13.) Lead us not into temptation: We pray to the Lord, that he would not lead us into temptation: As who should say, to the Lord it belongs, to bring one creature against another; the devil against Eve, and Eve against the devil; the Lord it is that brings the evil, whoever be the instruments; it is the Lord that brings his challenge into the field, he brings Goliah into the valley of Elah. And therefore when it is said, 1 Chron. 21. 1. that Satan rose up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. In 2 Samuel 24. 1. it is said,
The anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, to say, Go number Israel and Judah. The Lord was angry with the people, and then he let Satan loose to tempt David to number the people: It was the Lords doings, though it was Satans act. And so, when Micaiah in his Vision saw the Lord sitting on his Throne, and all the hoste of Heaven standing by him, on his right hand, and on his left. And the Lord said, Who shall persuade Abab, that he may go up, and fall at Ramoth-Gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. At length (saith the Text) there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will persuade him.
And the Lord said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his Prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also:
(faith the Lord) Go forth and do so. 1 Kings 22. 19, 20, 21, 22.
So that (minde you) whoever goes forth, the Lord sends him, the Dragon, the Beast, and the false Prophet, may give one Commission, but the Lord gives him permission; yea, and (I may say) Commission too: For in effecting the thing, the Lord doeth it; that as David faith of Shimei, The Lord hath bid him curse me: (that is to say) he hath given him effectuall liberty, and opportunity to do the thing, as if he had given him a command to do it. If a false Prophet arise (faith the Lord in Deuteronomic, Chapter 13. Verse 12.) and give thee a sign, and a wonder;) saying, Let us goe after other gods, Thou shalt not harken unto the words of the Prophets, or unto the dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your hearts, and with all your soules.

The Lord will suffer such to come, and this he doth to try his people, so that (mind you) it is the Lords doings, it is he that commands a thief, when he comes like a thief: it is the Lord that sends forth such that are clothed with sheeps skins, but inwardly are ravening wolves; though they have no direct commission from God, yet they have such secret permission from God, and commission by giving them opportunity to do that which they come for; that indeed the Lord comes: Beloved, think it not strange (saith the Ap: Peter, i. Pet.4.12.) concerning the fiery trial, which is come to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you. He means the ten Persecutions, the Persecutions in Nero's time, and those that were to follow. Let no man think it strange; why? for judgement must begin at the house of God, so that (mind you) all the fiery trials, what were they but the judgements of God: God sends them forth in his fatherly wisdom, and by his Soveraigne Authority, to try the patience, and wisdom, and watchfulness of his people: And therefore it becomes the people of God, when they see such creatures budge, and when they see the Kings of the earth stirre: then, Behold, faith the Lord, I come as a thief, suddenly, secretly, slyly, and violently.

And the use of this point serves to teach us neither to justify men, nor to condemn the Lord Jesus, for that were a sinful violating of the Scripture. Let it be therefore a caution to teach us to avoid both these, and neither to justify theft, nor to condemn the Lord; it is not the Lords meaning, but make account of this, though the Lord come as a thief, that doth not justify theft, but aggravate the sin of theft: If a thief shall make use of the opportunities, which the providence of God puts into his hand, of the nimbleness of his wits, and the authority he hath in his speech, and the power he hath with Princes: I say that man that shall abuse such things as are given him of the Lord, this doth not excuse their sin, much lesse justify it, but it aggravates it, and they shall find it so one day. It is a very divine speech of our Saviour, John 19. 10,11, Pilate faith to him, Knowest thou not that I have...

power to crucifie thee, and have power to loose thee? I will answer. Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered mee unto thee hath the greater sinne. And it implyes also (and it had been a wholesome lesson for Pilate to have suckt out of it) that it was the greater sinne in Pilate, to abuse his authority, to condemn the Lord Jesus.

For Judas to betray Christ to the Jewes Ecclesiastical Authority: and for the Jewes to deliver Christ into the hands of Pontius Pilate, it was a great sin, and so much the greater, because Pilates authority was of God: and they would arme the sword of God against the Lord Jesus: And if Pilate had the power given him of God either to crucifie Christ, or loose him: if he shall abuse his authority, in putting Christ to death, as he did: Then he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sinne: But thou then that dost abuse thy power, to crucifie me, shalt bee found very sinfull in the end: So that, that will not excuse any Instrument for abusing the power for such an end. If God raise up Pharaoh (Exod. 10 16.) to make his power knowne, and to declare his name thoro' out all the world: If he shall abuse this Authority, the more heavy will the wrath of God be upon him; and it will not be for him and such like to complaine against God; and say he hath ordained me to it; Oh man who art thou that disflitcst against God: for God never doth it, but being over-justly provoked by the creature. Therfore so much the greater is the sin of any that will abuse their wits and parts in a way of sin against God: And therefore it must teach men to beware of exculing theft: And neither is their unrighteousnesse in Christ, For the Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works, Psal. 145.17.

He doth not these unclean spirits, (Cardinals, Bishops and Jesuits) any wrong; but even as the Seraphims cryed one to another, so let us learn, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hostes; the whole earth is full of his glory. When is this? When he sends Isaiah to harden the hearts of the people, and make their ears deaf, Isa. 6. 3-10. So that let the Lord and his Throne be guiltlesse, and let guilt lye upon these theeeves; theeeves and robbers, let them bear the burthen of their own sins.

If we ask how this can be imagined? Ans. All this acting with theeeves is an accidentall concurring; in all these things the Lord doth no act but holy and good: neither his efficacy in co-working with them; all this efficacy is only an accidental concurrence. God gives them the gift and the opportunity which they will abuse: And so these Kings of the earth are justly deluded, because they received not the truth in the love of it. 2 Thess. 2. 10, 11, 12. Thus is the Lord and his Throne guiltless, but all the theft and robbery lies on the instruments (which the Lord doth use) in their own abuse; he that rides a horse which halts, every step he takes, the halting is not the owners that rides him, but the horses. And so when the Sunne hardens clay, it softens wax; and when it draws stinking savours out of the dunghill, it draws sweet savours out of the garden: hardening to the clay, and stinking savours to the dunghill, is not properly from the Sunne, but in themselves, occasionally from the Sunne. Even so it is in this case. This evil lies not in the proper act of the Lord Jesus, but accidentally only from him. Thus therefore the first Use; for a second Use,

It may serve to teach the people of God thus much, when ever you see evil spirits, the spirits of error, let loose; and when you see great men come on you with violence and rage, how then? why then to behold the Lord coming upon you himself: He comes upon you, and he comes then upon you as a thief: you must therefore behold the Lord in all the changes that befall you; looke at the Lord in them, The Lord hath given, and the Lord hath taken, blessed be the name of the Lord: Thus Job, (in Job 1. 21. and Chap. 2. 10.) when the Lord sorely visited him, in his cattell, and servants, and children, and in his own body, he see the Lords hand in all the sad changes that passed over him: and it is a notable speech he hath in Job 16. 11, 12, 13, 14. God hath delivered me up to the ungodly, and turned me into the hands of the wicked, and God hath delivered me. He sees the hand of God in all, and there's marvellous benefit in that: First, it keepeth a man (always) patient and meek in all: Psal. 39. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth because thou didst it. He sees it is Gods hand, and therefore he patiently submits thereto, he hath not a word to say, but meekly submits; the Lord doth all, comes upon me as a thief, Blessed be the name of the Lord.

I was worth thus much within this twelve month, and now not worth halfe so much; Blessed be the name of the Lord. I was rich in cattell, or in this or that commodity, but now the prices are are fallen, they are not worth half; nor (it may be) one third of that they were; the Lord hath done this, he hath come upon us on a sudden like a thief; and blessed be his name for it.

Secondly, it helps us in the use and improvement of them all, it naturally leads men by the hand, to humble themselves under the hand of God: and this is the only way to obtain deliverance, 1 Peter 5. 6. Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Its not the casualties or calamities of the Country that comes either by chance, or fortune, but from the Lord, he taketh away all, by one means or another, takes away all; whether by our pride, that we must have every new fashion, and be like the men of the world, in houses, apparell, and the like, or daintiness, that we must have our varieties, be it what it will be, though it cost never so much, and no matter what follows, though it eat up our estates, and brings us into want: The Lord hath made use of our folly, and pride, and daintiness, our idleness, our covetousnesse, (or what ever it be) to bring us into poverty, the Lord hath done it; and let the people of God see the hand of God in it.

Thirdly, it leads you by the hand in all the sad changes that passe over you, to look to the Lord, and to wrestle with the Lord, and not to stand wrestling with men: Jacob he is in trouble, and he wrestles with the Lord, Genesis 32. 26. And so it behoves the Lords people to wrestle with the Lord, and not to stand contending with the Bishops, nor with the Jesuits, as it may be men may do: No, no, prevail with the Lord, and get him to turn all things about; and if Jacob get God to bless him, Esau shall not (then) curse him. I will not let thee go till thou bless me; and if the Lord bless Jacob, Esau shall be cursed.

And lastly, it will help you to quit your selves like men in all the things that do befall you; as Paul saith in 1 Corinthians 16. 13. God hath set us (faith the Apostle) upon a Theatre, (as the word is in the original, 1 Corinthians 4. 9.) unto the world, and unto Angels, and unto men; therefore faith he, quit your selves like men, as Heb. 10. 35.) Cast not away your confidence, which hath great recom pense of reward; for ye have need of patience, &c. It behoves Christians to quit themselves like men, sanctifying the Lord in all conditions, in afflictions and crosses, wrestling with him to turn away these things, and to turn us from all our evil ways; and then walking in a holy self-denial, and integrity of heart and life, giving every man his own: And so while we walk in paths of holiness and righteousness, in humility and meekness of spirit; unclean spirits may come out against us, and the Lord come as a thief upon us, and yet when he doth, we shall keep our own garments. So much for the first Point.

'The second Note is this; that

Doctr. 2. A watchful Christian that keeps his garments in times of fraudulent, or violent calamities, or trial, injoys his own blessedness, and prevents the shamefull discovery of his own nakedness.

It's evident in the Text, Behold, I come as a thief: Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. He that watcheth, and keeps his garments, when Christ cometh he is blessed, that is, he injoys his own blessedness, and increaseth it, and establisheth it; and he shall by this means prevent the discovery of his own shame and nakedness, or his shamefull nakedness.

Quest. What are these garments, garments in the Plurall Number?

Answ. They are interpreted briefly in the 19. Chapter of the Revelation, Verse 8. The fine linen is the righteousness of the Saints. There is a double righteousness of the Saints; there is an inherent righteousness, and an imputed righteousness: An inherent righteousness, He that doth righteousness, is righteous, 2 John 3.7. There is a righteousness therefore of a man's own, to wit, spiritual graces; as, Zachary and Elizabeth were both righteous before God, Luke 1.6. And it is well observed by some holy Divines, that he puts a double Epithet upon this righteousness of the Saints, a double commendation; they are pure, and they are bright, this fine linen its both pure and bright; for the words are in the original ἔλαιόν ἐμου ἡμῖν (and they well observe it) pure, because imputed, righteousness is pure indeed, and hath no spot in it, but it is not bright, you can see no great matter in it, it maketh no great show before men: A man may be very much defiled, and be subject to many scandals, and yet cloathed with the garment of imputed righteousness; the righteousness inherent is the righteousness of a godly heart and life before men; Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, Matth. 5.16. The righteousness of Christ imputed puted (I mean the righteousness of Christ received by faith, and imputed by grace, is a pure righteousness that shines before God, and not before men. But the righteousness inherent, that's not pure, (but very bright) before men. There is therefore a righteousness that is very bright, that's the righteousness inherent, expressed in our conversation; and there is another righteousness, to wit, the righteousness imputed, which is incomparably more pure: As it hath been said of old, There is not the poorest Saint, though Lazarus on the dunghill, but is as pure as the Virgin Mary, Phil. 2.8. So then those are the garments, cloathed in bright and in pure garments: And these garments are the righteousnesses of the Saints. Garments, why? To cloath our nakedness, for our natural corrupt estate is nakedness: Now both these are given to cover this nakedness of ours; these Indewments, rightly so called; Indewments, or Induments, Knowledge covers the nakedness of our Ignorance; Zeal covers the nakedness of our Lukewarmness; Wisdom covers the nakedness of our Folly, Faithfulness covers the nakedness of our Unfaithfulness and fall-heartedness; Humility covers the nakedness of our Pride; Patience covers the nakedness of our Passion; Chastity covers the nakedness of our Wantonness; and the Righteousness of Christ covers all: And as garments cover the nakedness, so they keep us from the injuries of weather, wet and cold, &c. so do these garments keep us from all injuries in the world; all temptations from the devil, or our own corrupt lusts: And they do adorn us also, in the sight of men, and make us beautiful, amiable, and glorious, as our garments which are not only for necessity, but comeliness.

Now, Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments: Which argument, that our garments are kept by watchfulness; watcheth unto what? Watcheth unto prayer, 1 Pet. 4.7. Watch (faith our Saviour to his sleepy Disciples) Mat. 26. 41. And, Watch unto the Word: Wherein shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereof according to thy Word, Psal. 119.9. Watch unto Prayer, and watch unto the Word, and watch unto your conversation and ways, and then keep your garments and your selves clean; and then watch to the special duties of your calling: Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh shall find watching. (Luke 12.37.) Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down at meat, and will come forth and serve them. Then Peter said unto him, (ver. 41.) Lord speakest thou this Parable to us, or even to all? And the Lord said, Who is that faithfull and wise Steward, whom his Lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when he cometh shall finde so doing: in the 22 and 43 verses of the same Chapter. When a man watches to the improving of his calling, unto those good ends, for which God hath given him it. Why? Blessed is that man, which when the Lord cometh, he shall finde so doing. And fourthly, he watches unto his own heart, that he does not trull to his own righteoulhe; and runs away from God by deceitfulnefe and unbelief of his own heart: Take heed (faith the Apostle) lest there be in any of you an heart of unbelief, to depart from the living God, Heb. 3. 12. And so, Watchfulness is opposed unto Drowsiness, especially in good duties, Luke 6. 41. It is opposed to Sensuality, Luke 21. 34, 35, 36. It is opposed also to carnall Security, 2 Thess. 5. 2, 3, 4. So see now by this means, whilest a man watcheth unto prayer, watcheth to the Word, watcheth to his calling, and watcheth over his own unclean, corrupt, and deceitfull heart; Hence it comes to passe, that he keeps his garments so bright; in one word, he keeps faith and a good conscience, and faith helps him to keep his garments: He keeps holiness and righteounes, and all is kept in this holy way. So that by this means, what ever theues or robbers come, a mans garments are kept clean; he is not gulled out with those Frogs, nor frighted or tyred out with these Kings of the earth. So that by this means he doth not shew his own nakednesse, but doth enjoy his own Blessnesse.

Reaf. 1. For the Reason of this Point briefly, and so come to the Use. The Reason is taken from the Lords graciousnesse, and tender respect to a watchfull spirit.

It is (as I remember) one of the abundanteft promises of grace that is made to any estate of Gods people, that he makes to a watchfull heart, in the fore-named place in Luke 12. 37. Blessed are those servants whom the Lord when he commeth shall finde watching: why, wherein lyeth their blissnesse? The Lord (faith the Text) shall gird up himselfe, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. A wel-girt Christian hath ever a well-girt Christ to minister to him; that as his garments are girt to him, and the loynes of his mind girt up, and his Spirit attentive to watch over himself, and to watch to his calling; The Lord Jesus will watch over him, and he shall enjoy him; and his blessedness: And wherein lies our blessedness? But in the enjoyment of Christ: Christ will be ever with us to help us to pray, and to hear our prayers: He will be with us to serve us, he will supply us, and carry an end all our works for us.

And a second Reason is taken from the wofull nakedness of corrupt nature, especially in a Christian profession: A well-girt Christian will blush and be ashamed for any mist-carriage before God and men. O my God (saith Ezra) I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee my God, for our iniquities are increased over our head, &c. Ungirtness, or looseness, fills a Christian with shame. I say, if this be the shamefulness of sin, the nakedness of it, that a man is not so ashamed of the nakedness of his body, as a Christian of the ungirtness of his spirit; why then (mind ye) he that watches and keeps his garments, he enjoys his own blessedness, and prevents the shamefull discovery of his own nakedness. The use of this point is thus much.

First, it may teach us, how to esteem truly and rightly of the use of nature both of sin and righteousness, how to take a true estimation of both. Look at your passions, and look at your lusts, and look at all your natural parts: what are they all? (if they be not over-powred with holy gifts of grace) they are the very nakedness and shame of a man. If a man will have his own will, and not God's will, the shame of stubbornness lies upon that man's heart. A spirit that is not lively and wakefull, but heavy and drowsie, it is a shamefull nakedness. Covetousness is the very shame of a man; Pride is the very shame of a man. A man thinks himselfe the goodliest of all, and is shamefull in the eyes of all. Wantonness is the very shame of a man. A man thereby makes himselfe one of the fools in Israel. So all errors in a man, they are the shame of a man; and to all the sinfull miscarriages of a man, they are the shame and nakedness of a man, that he may blush to behold, and to think, and to hear of. And it will be a greater shame not to behold them, not to be willing to see them, when he is justly taxed with them. You think you will have your own will, and will shift off well enough all that is laid against you, verily it is the shame of your nakedness. All passionate, and proud carriages expressed in word or deed, are the shame.
The third Sermon upon the sixth Vial.

Shame of a man's nakedness. And idleness in a man's calling, is the very nakedness and shame of a man. So on the other side, what is righteousness? the white linen of a Christian? pure shining garments? They are such, that if the Lord look upon a man, he is pure in his eyes; if the world look upon him, he is bright, yea, it even dazzles the eyes of wicked men. I say, it is the honour of a Christian, it is the comeliness of his person. There is no garment, that becomes a Christian so well, as to be clothed from top to toe with the pure garments of Christ's righteousness imputed. Inherent righteousness is not so comely, save in the eyes of men. A tender conscience, a spirit easy to be entreated, is a comely spirit; a man void of passion, that hath the bridle and reins of his affections, it is a great beauty to a man; both righteousness inherent, and righteousness imputed, they make us walk so, as no man shall see our nakedness and shame. Diligence in a man's calling, and trustiness and faithfulness are comely things in Christians. A well-girt Christian the Lord will keep, that men shall not see his nakedness; though in many things he may fail and be ashamed, yet the Lord keeps him that men see not his nakedness. That is the first Use. And the second is this:

Use 2.

It must teach us holy watchfulness in all our Christian conversation, especially in such times when these Frogs are croaking, and these active spirits are leaping up and down. There are many spirits of Error, as it is generally complained of (and I fear too justly) up and down the country: Some ye know, and more will know, and the sooner the better. Beware of them, look well to your garments, keep faith, and keep a good conscience: Keep them too, and you keep all your garments: Faith looks to your holiness, and a good conscience to your righteousness: Be watchful to Prayer, and watchful to the Word, and watchful to your callings, and watchful to your own deceitful heart; when you see the false Prophets stir, when you see errors stir: Keep your garments close, and so much the closer, when you see such spirits stirring; and now (I doubt not) it is a time when evil spirits are busy, and stirring in our native country. Oh that the people of God might be but watchful. Now Jesuits, and carnal hearts will be busy. Oh that all, high and low, of all the Nations of the earth were awakened, not to be interested by them, that will strive to carry Religion in the old
The third Sermon upon the sixth Vial.

The streams of Euphrates, that makes glad none but Cardinals, and Bishops, and carnall hearts; whatsoever is a support to new Babylon, or old; whatsoever maintains Popish Idolatry, or Turkish Tyrannie: But to bestir themselves like men, that so the work of the Lord may go forward, and the streams of the River Euphrates may be dried up; what ever maintains Popish Idolatry, or Turkish Tyrannie, that all this were dried up. What a cause of joy would this be to all the people of God! If ye hear any ill news from our native country, you will hear nothing but shamefulness discovered. If men be not watchfull, shamefulness in Doctrine, and shamefulness in Worship, and shamefulness in Government will be discovered, if men be not watchfull at this day: For now is the time that God goes about to pour out the Vials of his wrath upon the Throne of the Beast, to dry up the Episcopacie. And ye shall finde great way made for the drying up of the river Euphrates, for it will suddenly be dried up. I say (therefore) it behoves men in this time especially to be watchfull; and therefore let us pray for our Brethren, and for ourselves in this regard, that the Lord would gird them and us close, that our lamps may be burning, as men that are bound to dry up this river Euphrates, that makes glad Rome, but sad the hearts of Gods people.

Last of all (to make an end) it will be a ground of comfort to all watchfull souls, to whom Christ comes as a thief; and yet when he doth come he finds them watching, and girt: (If the good man of the house did know when the thief would come, he would surely watch, and not suffer his house to be broken through, &c.) I say in such a case as this is; if the Lord give up the spirits of men (as I doubt not but he doth) those that are so, take it for your comfort; yee that are close girt, carry it home as an encouragement unto continuall watchfulness. Such as walke before him spiritually and watchfully, marke what the Lord promiseth you, for yee see what the blessednesse is which the Lord promiseth. He shall not have blessednesse only, but he is a blessed man. Blessed is he that watcheth, he shall enjoy the Lord Iesus Christ, and all Sovereigne good. He will gird himselfe, and will sit downe at table and minister unto you, Luke 17.7. A man will not say so to his servants. But (mind yee) here's a difference, that if so be a man have walked with a watchfull frame of spirit, the Lord will serve him. A man that hath kept his garments without spot, the...

The Lord so well approves the frame of his spirit, as that he will gird himself, and will serve him, (that is) ready prepared to do such a soul good.

He shall finde him at supper, he shall finde him at the ordinances, at every spirituall duty he shall finde him; at least, it will not be long, but he shall finde him. I set aside extraordinary cases of tryall, times of temptation and tryall, which may come upon any of Gods servants; and these shall not be long. The Lord will hide them under the shadow of his wings, and preserve them from shamefull falls; or will hide the shamefulness of them; and the Lord will for the present be girt close to you: He will be ever and anon helping you in all trials and temptations, when you have most need of him, then shall ye finde him ready to be most near you. And therefore it is a marvellous comfort, and stay to a Christian whom the Lord helps to be thus watchfull: He will be a Sun, and a shield; and no good thing will he withhold from them that walk thus uprightly with him.

Psalm 84. 11.
THE FOURTH PART UPON THE SIXT VIALL.

REVEL. 16. 16: And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

These words are the last part of the description of the Event that followeth, upon the pouring out the Viall of the sixt Angell, and in them is set forth the Efficacy of those three Spirits of Divells: who as they are described, by their effect of working miracles, and going forth to gather men to the Battell of the great day of God Almighty, ver. 14. So they do prevail, they did gather them together into a field, wherein the Battell was fought, and that is called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

The place itself is of much difficulty, and much variety of Interpretations hath been made of it, I may not so much as reckon them up, much lesse spend time to refute them.

In a word, two things are chiefly to be opened; First who is that [He] of whom it is said, [He gathered them together &c.] Secondly what is this place. Thirdly why is it described in the Hebrew tongue. Fourthly what is this unto Christian Kings. And lastly wherefore is this Battell fought here?
The sixth Viall.

1. He gathered them together. Some understand it of the Lord God Almighty, and so it might well be meant, for it is he that gathereth the Nations together into the Valley of Iehosaphat, Joel 3. 2. Though that be not meant of this Armageddon, but is spoken of, Rev. 20. 8, 9. The Lord indeed, may not bee excluded from this worke, yet because the same word is used, ver. 14. and it is an usual phrase in that language, to joyn Vertes of the singular number to neuter Substantives of the plural, therefore I would translate this Verbe of the singular Number in the plural, and say | they gathered them, they went forth to perswade them, and they did prevayle mightily with them. For the word in the native and proper meaning of that Language, is to be translated in another Language in the plural Number rather then in the Singular.

Into a place called [Armageddon] there bee that translate it to signify the destruction of a Troope, now that may agree to any place under Heaven; And I know not then why it should be expressed in Hebrew: A Greeke word might have expressed it as well. Some doe interpret it to bee the Mount of delights, which the Turkes shall compass; but you shall finde that this is not that Battel; that is it which shall be fought in the Valley of Iehosaphat (though they be usually confounded by Interpreters) but that Battell to which they are here gathered, is fought in the 19. chap. ver. 17. to 21. The Battell of Gog and Magog, which is in the valley of Iehosaphat, is spoken of in the 20. chapter of this booke; therefore you read that the Devil was bound a thousand yeares, and then loosed out of Prison, and at length cast into the Lake that burneth with fire, and brimstone; (Rev. 20. 10.) where he found the Beast and the false Prophet, who were both cast in before, Rev. 19. 20. So that I dare not understand it to be meant indefinitely, nor of the Mount of delights; for I know not why they here spoke of (to wit Christian Kings) should goe to Jerusalem to fight this Battell; their businesse will lye nearer home. And whereas many thinke that the Iewes shall have a great stroke in this Battell, I dare not consent unto that, because there is but a way prepared for them in this Viall; they shall come in the seventh Viall; These things put me off from closing with these, and such like Interpretations: what then may be the meaning hereof?

Armageddon
Armageddon doth signify the hill of Megiddon, for Maygeddon, and Megiddon are but different writings holding forth the same thing: But why should it be called thus? shall this battell be fought there? there is no light for that. But as bee sometimes calleth Rome by the names of Sadome, and Egypt; and Babylon, because of their neere resemblance one to another: So this is called Armageddon, because of the neere resemblance of that battell fought in this field, unto those battells which were fought in Megiddon in old time; For it is usuall in the Prophecies of the New Testament, to allude unto things spoken of in the Old. Now you may remember that three great battells have beene fought in Megiddon, and I conceive that the Holy Ghost maketh the events of the battell here fought, to bee like the events of those battells.

First there was fought the battell of Deborah and Barak against Iabin and Sifera which (the text saith) was by the waters of Megiddo, Judg. 5. 19. This battell ended in a memorable and joyfull victory, celebrated with a joyfull Psalme, Judg. 5. This overthrow there given was dreadful to all their adversaries, they destroyed them all, and saved not a man of them: an eminent victory it was, and therefore Deborah prayeth, so let all thine Enemies perish O Lord, ver. 31. And David prayeth concerning Gods Enemies, doe unto them as unto Sifera, as to Iabin at the brooke Kifon, which perished at Eudor &c. And like hereunto will this battell in Armageddon be, when those Canaanites which have oppressed the Church of God shall be oppressed, and crushed in pieces by the 10. Kings that shall rise against them.

There was a second battell fought at Megiddon, and that by Iosiah and Pharaoh Nechoh who met Iosiah at Megiddo, and slew him there, 2. Kings 23. 29. whereupon there grew a great Lamentation, in so much, that all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Iosiah, and Jeremiah lamented for Iosiah, and all the singing men and singing women spake of Iosiah in their Lamentations, 2 Chron. 35. 24, 25. And hereupon Jeremiah wrote the booke of Lamentations, as if he had seene the City ruined, their wives ravished, their children tossed upon the speares of their Enemies, because the breath of Church and Common-Wealth, and every Family was choaked in the death of Iosiah. And the like Effect of mourning shall this battell fought in Armageddon.
The six Vials

geddon woorke in the Jowot, and shall become the rise of their calling, when as they shall see the mighty power of Christ in rooting out all Image-worship, and worshippers that have so long time hindered them, from coming to the knowledge of the Messias; then shall there be a great mourning amongst them, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Mageddon, Zach. 12. 10, 11. Therefore it is spoken of in the Hebrew tongue, because this shall befall the Hebrew people, as when you read, Rev. 9. 11. that the King of the bottom-little pit hath his name in the Hebrew Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue Apolion, it is to be understood that he is a destroyer both unto the Jewes and Gentiles: and if you shall af-fterward heare of some that sing Hallelujah, know of a truth that it principally concerneth those, in whose language it is spoken, (for every Nation is to praise God in his owne Language:) so the battell will be fought in Armageddon, because as it will be a great destruction to Gods Enemies, so it will produce a penitentiall, and comfortable mourning at the length unto the Jews.

But why is it called the Hill of MEGIDDON, these battels were fought in the valley? therefore the Holy Ghost would not express it barely by the name of Magidido, that so he might point besides these, at another battell which was fought in the hill of Megiddon: now the hill that looked over this valley, was Mount Gilboa, where the battell was fought by the Philistines against Saul, upon whose overthrow David was established in the Kingdome; the men of Israel and Saul, and his sonnes fell downe slaine in Mount Gilboa, 1 Sam. 31.
2. 8. From hence went Saul to enquire of the Witch at Endor, and that was in the valley of Megiddon; so they were nigh one to another, for Baraks battell with Sisera was fought neere Endor, Psalm 83. 9, 10. Thus wee have an allusion to all these three notable and memorable battels, whereas had he said in a place in the Hebrew tongue Gilboa, then had hee limited the allusion unto Sauls battell, who was indeed a destroyer of Religion, but so other effects of this battell fought in this Text, had not beene pointed at. Therefore that he might graspe in all those Events, which those battels that were fought about Megiddon brought forth, he faith the place was called Arm-geddon; and it is an usuall thing that battels in the hill are pur-scud
The sixt Viall.

sued to the valley, and in the valley to the Hill: the hill and the valley lying neere together. And indeed the same Events will this battell bring forth, which fell out upon all the former battles at Megiddo. So then the summe is, that these spirits went forth to gather these Popish and Heathen Princes together, into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon, where the battell shall have the like success, that it had of old unto the destruction of Gods Enemies, the utter ruine of Antichrist, as of Saul, the setting of the Kingdom of Christ upon David, unto the conversion of the Jews, who shall upon this occasion mourne bitterly over him, whom they have pierced. Onely let us a little further cleare one scruple which may somewhat remaine; why shall the Jews come in mourning at this victory? shall they mourne with Indignation for the success of Christian Princes, and States? or shall it bee a mourning of compassion for the destruction of Rome? no veruily, the text is plaine, they will rejoice for both, and joyne together with the rest of the Christian Churches to praise the name of the Lord with Hallelujah in the 19. chapter of this booke and the 1. ver. After these things, (that is after the destruction of Babel) I heard a great voice of much people in Heaven, saying Hallelujah: So againe ver. 3. 6. they shall praise God with an Hallelujah, as well as the Latines with a Lauda Dominum: It is therefore neither a mourning of Indignation for the success of the Saints, nor of compassion for the Rivers of Babel; but (what is it then?) It is a mourning of compunction whereby they, (seeing in this battell that Christ is indeed the true Messiah,) they shall mourne that they have beene so long estranged from him; for two maine stumbling blocks will this battell remove out of their way.

First, that which is their great stumbling block, to wit, the Pope, who is counted the Father of Christian Churches, and yet him selfe liveth like an Epicure, and maintaineth Idolatry and superstition; and though many in the world abhorre his wayes, yet they looke at them but as S. Cts, and inferiour people and States, in respect of the Pope and Popish Princes; but when they shall see that the Zeale of Christian Princes hath dryed up those streams of superstition, to the utter confusion of the man of sinne, then will they also see, that Jesus whom they have resisted all this while, even that Jesus is the Messiah.
2. There is also another stumbling block, which some of their more learned stand upon, that when the Messiah comes, he shall destroy the four Monarchies (spoken of, Dan. 2. 45. The stone that was cut out of the Mountaine without hand, brake in pieces the Iron, the Brass, the Clay, the Silver, and the Gold: Now (say they) if your Jesus be the Messiah, how commeth it to passe the Monarchy standeth upon his two feet, the Turk and Pope? but they might have considered that the Lord Jesus hath been crushing them a great while together, and he never told them that he would doe it as soone as he came, though he will never leave untill he hath crushed them to the dust, and when once this battell is fought, that there shall be no more remaining, but what is the Jews worke to doe? then shall they see the Prophesy of Daniel fulfilled, when the battell in Armageddon shall end in the destruction of the man of Sinne, and then shall they see Jesus Christ held forth in the purity of the Gospel, contrary whereunto no word of the Prophets shall bee found, and then shall they see him whom they have crucified to be indeed both Lord and Christ: Then shall they see that the name of the Lord Jesus, which they now curse in their Liturgies is blessed for ever, now they will grieve that they have cursed his name blasphemously, praying that it might perish from under these Heavens, and from above this Earth: for these things will they mourn bitterly.

Objeft. But you will say, that to see the success of a battell, is not a sufficient meanes to convert a people to the Lord, that are fully possesed with their owne wayes: Here indeed may be a removers prohibens, that may somewhat help forward; but it is needfull unto their Conversion, that some word of God be set home to their hearts to convince them, that the curse of the Law which belongeth unto them, it is Christ onely that hath borne it for them.

Anf. It is no small meanes of conversion, to see the Lord bearing witness against the corruptions of Religion, in destroying the Enemies of his people. You know the story of Icthro (who was a Prince or Priest of Midian,) when he commeth to see his sonne Moses, who told him of all the great deliverances that God had wrought for his people, Exod. 18. 8, 9, 10. what faith he? now I know that the Lord is greater then all Gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them;
The sixty till.

This is the effect of his hearing of the wonders that God had wrought for his people: so that you need not doubt it, but when these battles are fought (though they shall bee noe parties on the one side nor on the other) yet they shall hearc what will be reported upon this occasion, in the publick Ministry of the word, which will bee sufficient to convince (as a Priest of Midian; so) a Jew, that this is the Lord Jesus, who hath to fulfilled all that he hath spoken of in his word. And moreover I doe believe, that great will bee the power of the Ministry of the word in fighting of this battle, by declaring the powerfull presence of Christ with them, and for them; thus shall the sword of the Ministry of the Gospel prevail mightily, by animating Christian Princes and people, according as it is laid, chap. 19. 21. of this booke; the remnant were slain with the sword that proceedeth out of his mouth, that is, out of the mouth of Jesus Christ; and when the word of Christ goeth along with the sword of Princes, you need not wonder if it doe not onely prevail against the Beast, and false Prophet, but also to make Satan fall downe from Heaven like lightning, even out of the hearts of the Jews, from deceiving them any longer.

Thus much for the opening of the words, which though it have beene long and difficult, yet many times things most difficult to open, are sweetest to chew upon, as in all bones, and the like; let us therefore from hence observe this note.

That the Event and success of the great, and last battle, which Christian Princes shall fight against Antichrist, and his Adherents, shall be like in success to the battles fought at Armageddon: that is to say, desperate destruction to the Enemies of Gods people; joyfull victories, and Triumphs to the Churches of Christ; godly sorrowes and penitentiall mourning to the Jews.

All these several Events are inclusively spoken unto, in this word Armageddon, and each branch of them are expressly mentioned in this booke, and other Prophecies of Scripture.

First, that there shall bee great and desperate destruction to the Enemies of Gods people, you read in chapter 19. that it will be so great that the Angel landing in the middest of the Sunne, cryed with a loud voyce saying to all the soules, that flye in the middest of Heaven, come, and gather your selves together to the Supper of the great God, that yee may eat the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of Captaines, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men both free and bond, both small and great: therefore this battle must not bee fought only with the Ministry of the Gospell, (though that will mightily concurre) but with the sword, and Weapons of warre, else the soules of Heaven would have little flesh to eat, upon battles fought by the Ministry of the word: but Word and Sword fighting together. Thus will there be wrought a great destruction to Gods Enemies, to satiate all the soules of Heaven.

And there will bee great rejoicing and Triumph to the Churches of Christ, as you read of their songs of praise, for the victory gotten by Deborah and Barak, over Jabin and Sisera, Judges 5. So here there will be many Hallelujahs, chap. 19.1. to the end of 7. which they sing againe and againe to the Lord.

And thirdly it will be matter of penitentiall mourning to the Israel of God, Zach. 12. 10, 11. when they shall see Christ coming in his glorious power, it will break their hearts with holy mourning over them, and this shall be fulfilled when the new Jerusalem shall come from God out of Heaven, as is prophesied in this booke, chapter 21. 2. 10. Then shall the Tribes of the Earth mourn bitterly after Jesus Christ.

Why will the Events of these battles be the same?

Reas. 1. First, because Gods Enemies will bee like in their sinnes, unto those that fought against Israel of old; Therefore they must partake in the like Judgements, wherein are they like in their sinnes? In their oppressions of the people of God; so Jabin mightily oppressed the children of Israel, Judges 4. 3. And Saul was a malicious persecuter of David: So nath the man of sinne, and his Adherents beene malicious persecuters of the Saints of God. And Saul tooke Counsell of the Witch at Endor; So have these beene famous for their witch-cratts, neither did they repent of their forceries, chap. 9. vts. Now as their sinnes are like, so shall their punishments bee, because of the unchangeable wisedome and Justice of God, who punisheth now as he did of old, Psal. 83. 9, 10. The likenesse of their sinnes, the likenesse of Gods Justice, bring forth the like kinde of Judgements, now as of old.
The first Viall.

If you shall ask the Reason why there shall be the like occasion of rejoicing.

It is because the Lord shall in like manner avenge his people now, as he did of old,

Judg. 5. 2. where the calleth upon God's people to praise the Lord for the avenging of Israel: So shall he now judge the whore, and avenge the blood of his servants at her hand;

Rev. 19. 2. And looke as of old they went on destroying, to destroy the Enemies of the people of God until they had consumed them: So shall the people of God now doe until they have extinguished utterly the name of Popery, and made it like dust upon the face of the Earth: and as there was way made of old for the glorious Kingdom of David; So shall there be way made by these Warses, for David to be the Prince of God's people for ever, as the Prophet Ezechiel foretelleth, chap. 34. 23, 24. and 37. 24. 25. not in visible presence; I dare not take up such carnal imaginations, as that Christ shall come bodily, and reign upon the Earth, but by his Spirit, and in his Servants, he shall reign upon the Earth: And all these things shall give the people of God great, and wonderful causes of rejoicing.

If you shall ask in the third place, why God's ancient people the Jews shall be called to such penitentiall mourning.

The Reason first is taken from the fence, which they shall have of their owne sinne, a sprinkling whereof we sity

Acts. 2. 37. when they were pricked in heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the Apostles, Men and Brethren, what shall we doe? Such will the fence of their sinne bee hereafter, as will affect, and afflict them with affliction like that of the Jews, for the death of Jostab; yea it is set forth in Zach. 12. 10, 11. by the deepest mourning that can befall a family: they shall mourn as one mourneth for his only sonne, and bee in bitterness, as one that is in bitterness for his first borne; It is true, the losse of some wife may be greater then the losse of some sonne: but he speaketh there of the mourning of Husband and Wife together, and they can loose no greater outward blessing, then their first borne: And such was mourning for the death of Jostab, wherein they saw, the ruine of Family, Church, and Common-wealth: Therefore Jeremey complaineth, that the breath of their Nostrills was taken away, Lament. 4. 20. They mistake that thinke it was spoken of Zedeschiah, for the

Cc Lamentations
The sixth Viall.

Lamentations were written upon the death of Josiah, 2 Chr. 35. 25. which was a bitter mourning to them all: and such shall be their mourning in their return to the Lord, when they shall see that the death of Christ hath beene the ruine, & desperate destruction, and damnation of all their Families for these many Generations, & that all the Calamities that have come upon them for these 1600 yeares, have sprung from this, that their Fathers have put Christ to death, by which means they have bin runnagates upon the face of the earth, the fence of that horrible sin & misery which they have brought upon themselves and theirs, by the death of their Josiah & Messiah shall thus deeply affl. & them.

2. The second ground of their mourning, will spring not only from the sight and sense of their sin, but of the wonderfull & unspeakable grace & mercy of God unto them to give them that Son of his who hath given himself to death for them: they shall be so ashamed, & confounded, with the sense of God's tender mercy & loving kindness towards them that have bin such bloody Butchers of him as that they shall be swallowed up in the sense of such unspeakable grace. Conviction for sin doth greatly help forward legal humiliation; but for a kindly and spiritual mourning, men must looke upon Christ not only as killed by them, but as killed for them: Thus shall it bee with them according to what is foretold, Mat. 24. 30. When the same of the Son of man shall appear in heaven, then shall all the Tribes of the Earth mourn, speaking of the twelve Tribes of Israel who shall mourn, because of him that commeth to shew such mercy to them who have dealt so unworthily with him. This is the mourning which will befall this people, like that of Megiddo, when this great battle shall be fought.

For use in the first place, were I to speake to such people as were likely to be insnared with these Frogs, & spirits of Divells: This might teach them diligently to beware of such, and in case any of them should come over into this Country, Jesuits, or Cardinals or Bishops, doe not hearken to their whisperings, whatsoever they shall present unto you, for this will bee the issue of it, who soever they be that hearken unto them, they will never leave them, till at length they have brought them to this field of destruction, they will goe forth to gather the Princes of the Earth, and whither will they gather them? even thither where will be the Fatal ruine of them all: And therefore let all Christian Princes understand it, that they cannot listen unto these Frogs, Popish,
The sixth Viall.

Bishops, or Cardinals, or Jesuites, or who ever they be, that come unto them on this errand, but they will by this meanes bring their Kingdomes to utter destruction: Be wise now therefore, O ye Kings; be instructed, ye Judges of the Earth: you see what wondrous worke will be made at length by those Frogs, they will bring you into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. King James (who made a Paraphrase upon it) doth interpret it to signify the destruction by deceit, as if it were compounded of two Hebrew words, which may to hold it forth; But oh that it had beene as well believed as told; how many sad changes, and Agitations throughout all Christendome, might have bin prevented that have risen upon hearkning to those Frogs destruction and Calamity are in their wayes; keep your selves therefore farre from all fellow ship with them, that will be your wdleome.

In the second place; this may reach us to rejoicce at home, Pse 2. though wee doe not live to see these victories obtained: I know not what you that are young may live unto, for the nearer these thing come unto their accomplishment, the swifter their motion will be, as it is with all natural motions: but however wee rejoice together in beholding them by Faith, although they yet be not come; when David rejoyned in Christ, Psal. 16. 9, 10, and faith, therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoyned, my flesh also shall rest in hope, for thou wilt not leave my dead body in the Grave, neither wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see Corruption; this David in spirit, long before, and looked at his owne Resurrection as seal'd up unto him in the Incorruption of the body of Jesus Christ: If David can rejoice to long before in beholding this, then ought wee to rejoice in beholding before-hand the destruction of Gods Enemies and his gracious deliverances of his people; for wee may see it before our b, Faith, and behold it with confidence in the truth of him that hath promised it; for so also did Abraham, John 8. 56. Your Father Abraham rejoyned to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad; and why should not the Faith of Christians bee now more cleare eyed, than at that time; it was to behold the truth of his promises, and rejoice in the accomplishment of them?

Thirdly we may from hence gather some ground of Faith, to Pse 3. beleive that there will come a time, when the Jewes will generally mourne for the sight and death of Christ, as much as ever they mourned of old for the death of Iosiah: and least you should say that Parabolicall Scriptures are not Foundations of Faith, (and yet any Scripture truely expounded is ground sufficient for the truth it holdeth forth;) yet you may find sundry other Scriptures that speake expressely to their Conversion.

Rom. xi. 11, 13, 15, 25, 26. I would not Brethren that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, that blindness in part is happened unto Israel until the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in, (that is, until men turne backe from Antichrist unto Christ;) until they see Christian Princes more sincere in the worke of God) and then all Israel shall be saved, for though they were call off for their own fakes, yet are they beloved for their Fathers sake, v. 28. For if thou wert cut out of the Olive Tree which is wilde by Nature, and wert grafted contrary to Nature into a good Olive Tree: how much more shall these which are the natural branches bee grafted into their owne Olive Tree? For (sith he) God is able to graft them in againe; and he will doe it, or else the Apostles Argument will not hold. As that of the Apostle to the Corinthians, 2. Cor. 3. 14, 15, 16. Even unto this day when Moses is read, the Vayle is upon their heart: but when it (that is, Israel) shall turne unto the Lord, the Vayle shall be taken away: this is not spoken of two or three sprinklings of Israel; that doth not make up an Israel, much lesse all Israel, as Paul speaketh in the place fornamed, and what mystery were it, if it were meant onely of those that were brought home by Peters Ministry? But that blindness is come upon them, till the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in, and that then all Israel shall be saved, this is indeed a Mystery to the Gentiles, as the calling of the Gentiles was a Mystery to the Jews. Thus wee see there are cleare Scriptures for it, when we do see, we may more freely take up parabolicall Scriptures, perceiving what they worke upon, and build our Faith on them, thereby to be strengthened in Prayer, for such a blessing, that they may come and sing Hallelujahs with us, and we may sing praises with them.

Forthly, wee may learne from hence, the true nature of Godly sorrow, both in the cause of it, and in the measure of it. For the cause of it wee must see him from whom all saving repentance doth flow, even Christ whom we have pierced, and then indeed we mourn aright, when we mourn over him.
him. It is not saving Repentance, that which the Law worketh, though it doth indeed make way for it, but they see, him and mourn over him: the sight of him worketh godly sorrow in the heart.

And what is the measure of it? it is even such as for the losse of a man's only Sonne, and his first borne, the staff, and stay, of his name, and life, and of his prosperity: Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I goe childlesse, faith Abraham? such as was the mourning of Judah, and Jerusalem, when they saw Family, Church, and Common-wealth all plucked up by the rootes in the losse of one man: such is the mourning of every godly soule, seeth all his hopes plucked up by the rootes for the want of Christ.

But you will say, is it not godly mourning unless it be so great? may not a man mourn more for losse of Church and Common-wealth, and for his onely Sonne then for Christ? I answer, mourning for one of these may indeed make more noyse; but not be a greater mourning: when a man mourneth for his first borne, the windowes of Heaven are open, the Judgements of God are open, and the Fountaines of the great deep are open; this or that deep Affliction feth upon a man, nature setteth a man on worke to mourn, and grace doth not hinder it, but when a man mourneth for want of Christ, the windowes of Heaven indeed are open; but this mourning findeth much opposition, below even from our hearts within: a small shallow channel coming downe from a Hill, will make a great noyse; when a man mourneth for his onely Sonne, it commeth downe from God as a Judgement, downe hill, nothing hindereth but this mourning for Christ is like a stream that goeth up hill, (as it were) and through many reeds and flagges, and therefore no wonder if it maketh not such a noyse, though it bee a farre greater streame then the other. Such is this spiritual mourning: for in these things it doth exceed all other griefes and mournings whatsoever.

It is more durable then any other sorrow, our time in this world will never weare it out; whereas other sorrow, though it be for a man's onely Sonne will not last away, time will weare it out.

It is an Increasing sorrow: other sorrows are more moderated.
The first Viall.

derated every day than other, but this groweth still more and more powerfull, and will eat up all other griefes: If a man have but a wound in his conscience, it will weare out all other Crewnes, but a wounded Spirit who can heare? Prov. 18. 14. It is a very strong mourning, as we may perceive, Ps. 102. 3. 4. &c. where the Holy man complaineth, that his dayes are thereby consumed like smoke, and his bones burnt as an hearth, his heart is smitten and withered like grass, so that he forget eth to eat his bread. &c.

This godly sorrow is also more pure than any other sorrow, having not so much mixture with lusts, and Carnall Affections;
when David mournes for Absalom, there is much Carnall Affection in it, in so much that loath doth perceive it, and dealeth sharply with him for it, but this mourning for Christ being heavenly, is not so clogged with those boisterous dutesnces which other mournings are filled withal.

See a broad difference in the cause and object of this mourn ing: when a man mourneth for Christ as wronged by him; and yet seeth himself saved by Christ: as this object is transeend int so is the mourning transcendent also, therefore it is said, Rom. 8 26. The Spirit maketh Intercessions for us with groanes that cannot be uttered. Thus being set upon Christ, and tormented by his Spirit, it is eternall in the causes of it, and will lift up the loue above all undermoone discouragements, that a man will looke upon them as things, which God hath given and taken, and his griefe concerning them will vanish away; but this being settled upon eternall obj. As can end no sooner then life it selfe: And if cur life in this world were eternall, so would this mourning be, although indeed when this life shall have an end, it will be swallowed up in a perfect fruition of Jesus Christ.

In the last place, I would commend this unto all the children of God, that they Regulate their mourning according to this mourning: Let us mourne for Christ, and for his death, and bee easily sensible of the great injures which wee have done unto him,that to our griefe may swallow up all the batenesse of our hearts, and all worldly sorrows which cause death.2 Cor. 7. 10.
But godly sorrow worketh Repentance never to be repented of.
Let us therefore in all cur private and publick Administrations mourn after him, and mourne for him, that thereby wee may be kept from such entanglements, and discouragements as might interrupt us in our Christiant Course upon other meaner occasions.
THE SEVENTH AND LAST VIAL OPENED.

Revel. 16. 17,18,19,20,21.

And the seventh Angel poured out his Vial into the Ayre, and there came a great voice out of the Temple of heaven from the Throne, saying, It is done.

And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mightie an earthquake, and so great.

And the great City was divided into three parts, and the Cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came into remembrance before God to give unto her the cup of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

And every Island fled away, and the mountaines were not found.

And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

These words describe unto us the pouring out of the seventh Vial, by the seventh Angel; and set forth it is by a threefold Argument.

1. First by the subject upon which it fell, it fell upon the Ayre. It is translated [into the Ayre] but the same word in the third and fourth Verses is translated upon (the Sea) and upon (the Rivers and fountains of water).
The seventh Vial.

water:) so it fell upon the Ayre, otherwise to say, into the Ayre, might seeme to looke at some further subject, whereupon it fell, but that is not the meaning.

Secondly, by an adjunct accompanying the same, to wit: [A great voyce on: of the Temple of heaven, &c.] for I cannot call it an effect, but an adjunct it was.

Thirdly, by the effects, and they are threefold.

First, of Terrou and Horrou. [There were voyces, and thunders, and lightnings] all which doe strike Terrou and Horrou into the hearts of men.

Second effect was changes, and alterations of states [And there was a great earthquake] amplified by an argument taken from the lesse [Such as was not since men were upon the earth] so great for amplitude, so mighty for power.

Third effect was, the working of distracting, and destroying calamities upon three severall sorts of subjects.

First upon Cities, and among them,

First, the great City was divided into three parts, which (with leave of Interpreters that take it to be a distinct City from Babilon) I take to be meant of Babilon, which now came up into remembrance before God, and that is rendered as a reason how shee came to be destroyed, for shee came up into remembrance before God, to give her the wine, first of distraction, secondly of destruction.

Secondly, the cities of the Nations fell, the great Citye was destroyed, it fell to ruine.

The second sort of subjects upon which this distraction fell, were [Every Island, and every mountaine] the Islands fled away, the mountaines were not found.

The third sort, was the sones of men, and the plague that fell upon them was a great haile out of heaven, which is amplified.

1. By the measure or weight of it [every stone about the weight of a Talent]

2. By the effect it wrought in men, [They blasphemed the God of heaven] let forth by the cause of their blaspheming againe repeated, because of the plague of the haile, for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

Let us first open the words, and then summe them up into some doctrinall observations.

1. What
The seventh Vial.

1. What (in the first place) is here meant by breath in: for all the Vials are Vials of wrath, & therefore poured upon subjects of God's displeasure. Now God is not offended with the ayre, which is his creature, but as you read in the first verse of the Chapter. All these Angels received a commandement to pour out their Vials upon the earth, and that is meant of the earthly Antichristian Church, and they all fulfill this Commandement upon whatsoever they pour out their Vials; it is still upon the Antichristian state: nor are the messengers of God's wrath (which come out of the Temple, and have their loynes girded with golden girdles) provoked against the Ayre, which themselves doe breath in; nor could a plague be upon the Ayre, but it would fall upon Christian Churches as well as Popish. Others doe interpret it (with much more probability) to be upon the kingdom of Satan, for he is called the Prince that ruleth in the ayre, Eph. 2. 2. he also raiseth up storms in the ayre, and fiery meteors therein, Job 1. 16. So they conclude that wherefoever the Devil hath to doe, whether it be in Popery or Paganisme, this Viall is poured upon all his kingdom. I thinke the doctrine is truly gathered from this place, that the holy Ghost intendeth to pour out a judgement upon all his kingdom: yet I cannot say that the words doe so properly hold forth a judgement upon the Element of ayre: for all the Vials are to be poured upon the earth, the Antichristian Church, called earth in opposition to the heavenly and pure Church mentioned Revel. 15. 5. there being in it the whole Fabricke and Syteme of the world: there is an earth, and that is the lowest and basest common sort of Catholickes in that world; and there is a Sea, their corrupt Religion; there be Rivers, and fountaines of water, those that derived their corruptions into all countries (Priests and Monkes &c.) there is a Sunne in this world, the great light thereof: the family of Austria in the common wealth, and the Popes supremacy in the Church: there is the throne of the beast, the forme of their government, and manner of judicature: Afterwards comes in Euphrates, the streame of all those corruptions that make glad the Citye of Rome: Therefore this Ayre seemeth to be the Ayre of that Antichristian Church: Looke therefore what you can conceive to be the Ayre, which this Antichristian Church doth breath in, and that is the subject whereupon this Viall is poured: And although indeed indeed Mahumetry, and Paganism come to be afflicted here by it; yet is it but an effect of pouring out this Vial upon the Ayre. Now if you looke into Chap. 9.1,2. of this booke you shall finde that the Ayre of this worldly Church is the smoake which arose out of the bottomlesse pit, and darkned the Ayre, so that you could not see the Sunne, much lesse the Moone and Starres: and what was that smoake out of the bottomlesse pit, but the darkenesse of ignorance from whence sprung all those Locusts, and that King over them, ver. 11. the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, he destroyeth the hope of the conversion of the Jewes: and in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon, he destroyeth them also, and sprung out of this ignorance. There is a double use of Ayre, and this darkenesse corrupted both. 1. There is an use of it for sight; for through the Ayre, if it bee cleare, you see all the heavenly lights, and by their help, all inferiour bodies. 2. It is the breath of life, which maintaineth the life of men, and is the supportance of their vitals. And in both these things doth it fitly resemble heavenly, and saving knowledge, by which, 1. In the first place, we see Jesus Christ the Sun of righteousness to our justification; by which we see the Moon, that is, the true state of Churches according to the Gospell; by which we see the Stars, the people of God, and who indeed are his people, that shine like lights in the world: And hereby they see all things here below, and judge rightly of them. And 2. by the same saving knowledge doe we breathe in our vitals (that we may so speak) our spiritual life; By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justifie many, Esay 5.11. And this is life eternall to know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent, John 17.3. Now if this Ayre be choaked, you can neither see Jesus Christ to your justification, nor breath in any ordinance of his to your salvation, nor can you see what is the true Church, nor who are the true Saints of God; you can rightly discerne of nothing, if once the Sun, and the whole body of the ayre be darkened; but if now there come an Angel that shall poure out his Vial upon this smoake of the ayre, and dispell thereby the clouds of darkenesse, and ignorance; then shall you clearly see Jesus Christ, and the true state of his Church, and of all visible Saints, then shall you draw in true and lively breath from every ordinance of God. This is therefore the ayre whereupon this Vial shall be poured, and that will be the dispelling of the darknesse.
The Seventh Vial.

The Lord will send forth such a bright and clear knowledge of his Christ, and Church, and Saints, and holy things which will prevail so far, as to dispel all the fogs and mists of darkness, not alone in the Antichristian State, but in all the world: so that all Nations shall be brightened with the knowledge of God: All Asia shall see the vanity of Mahumetry, and all the Pagan Nations, the fondness and blindness of their Superstitions, and the Jews shall then see, and bewail their blindness, and wretchedness in standing against Jesus Christ: So that most true it is which godly Interpreters have said, that hereby all the kingdoms of Satan are threatened, though it be rather an effect of it, than the true, and proper fence.

2. What is then the adjunct that followeth, or goeth along with it: [There came a great voice out of the Temple of heaven from the Throne] And that Throne is set in the Church. Rev. 4.2, 3. Behold, a Throne was set in heaven, and one sate on the Throne, Which is the Lord himself: who is resembled by three precious stones, holding forth the three persons in Trinity: A Jasper having (as they say) a white circle round about it, representing the Eternity of the Father; a Sardine stone, of a fleshy colour, representing Jesus Christ, who took our flesh upon him. An Emerald, being of a green colour, refreshing the eyes of those that looke upon it, representing the Spirit, who is (as the Rainbow) a token of faire weather, and is a comfortable refreshment wheresoever he commeth. Now this voice comming from heaven, and from the Throne, it commeth also apparently from God, saying, It is done; that all men may see it to be the revealed, and holy will of God, that all these things should be thus accomplished.

3. It is done what is done? for here is no nominative case before the verb. But this is that which is done, the mystery of iniquity is abolished: And the mystery of God is fulfilled: For of this it was spoken, which you read Rev. 10.7. where the Angel (that stood upon the Sea, and upon the earth) telleth us, That in the days of the seventh Angel, when he shall sound (whose Trumpet is sounding to this day) the mystery of God should be fulfilled; And that standeth chiefly in two things.

1. In the destruction of all his enemies.

2. In the accomplishment of all his gracious promises to the conversion of the Jews; and both these shall be accomplished in the pouring out of this Vial, as we may reade at large, Ezek 39, 17. to the end of the Chapter; where the holy Prophet speaketh of this very time, when the enemies of the Church shall come out against them, there will be a final accomplishment of all the mysteries of iniquity; and of all the hostility of the Lords enemies against his Church: It is also the accomplishment of all his gracious promises, and therefore he faith Rev. 21, 6. When once the new Jerusalem commeth downe from God out of heaven, then Christ himselfe faith, It is done. All his promises are now performed and his great workes now fulfilled; this is meant, when it is here said, It is done; And the Lords voice it is, for had it been the voice of some Church-Officers alone, it might have reached to the Church, but not to the ends of the world: but when the Lord himselfe speaketh, whose voice is like the voice of thunder, then is it heard from one end of the earth unto another. All men shall see the great workes that he hath done upon the face of the earth, Poper, and all false Religion abolished; the Kingdome of Christ established, from the rising of the Sun to the going down thereof. This is the Adjutant.
The seventh Vial.

Now for the Effect: There is an Effect of Terror, and of agitations, and changes, and an effect of destroying calamities, for I cannot well gather the notes that arise, unlese these things be all opened, then I conceive they may be handled with brevity.

4. For the effect of terror: the thunderings, and lightenings, and the voices, are the same with those that are said to come out of the Throne, Rev. 4, 5. Like unto that dispensation of old, Exod. 20, 18. Wherein were thunderings, and lightenings, and in stead of voices, there is put in, the noise of the Trumpet, and these held forth the terror of the Lord in giving of the Law, in so much that Moses himselfe said I exceedingly feare, and quake, and much more did the people feare and tremble: for such is the convincing dreadfull power of the Law of God, that let a man but heare it, and have it effectually applyed, and it will make the meekest and most innocent of the servants of God to tremble; It will make the mountaines and hils to tremble. The voice of Gods servants is like the voice of a trumpet, Esay 58, 1, piercing deep into the eares and hearts of men, but the voice of himselfe exceedeth. So the meaning is, That upon the pouring out of this Vial upon the ayre, there shall be terrible thunderings, and lightenings, and voices like sounds of Trumpets upon the hearts of men, that shall make them tremble.
The seventh Vial.

The Lord will so terribly affright, and amaze the sons of men with the power of his holy word, and will, as that it shall suddenly break forth all the world over; for in this manner doth the Lord begin his saving dispensations towards men, even with terrible lightenings, and thunderings, and earthquakes, thereby partly convincing men of sin, and subduing their hearts, and confounding their malicious enemies. For the next Effect.

5. There was a great earthquake, &c. And that importeth agitations and changes, and not terror only; they are such as will not cease, until they have removed the things that are shaken, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain, saith the Apostle, Heb. 12. 26. 27. Interprete the Prophecy of Hagg. i. 2. 6. It argueeth (faith he) the removing of those things that are shaken; and he interprets it concerning the Church estate in that place; and he will also shake all the Kingdomes of the world, as the same Prophet Haggai told Zerubbabel, Chap. 2. 21. 22. saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth; and I will overthrow the throne of Kingdomes, and I will destroy the strength of the Kingdomes of the Heathen, &c. And so the Lord did overthrow the great Persian Monarchy by the Grecian, and the Grecian Monarchy by the Romane, and the Romane by barbarous Nations, and the Lord hath bin shaking them ever since, and will shake them hereafter with such a shaking as never was the like: you read of a great earthquake, when as Rome, of Pagan, became Christian, Rev. 6. 12. But that was a small shaking, unto this earthquake, for still the Persians are Idolaters, and many Pagans in the world; that shaking brought in a forme of Christianity, but the saving knowledge of Christ was yet in a great measure wanting; that forme of Christianity which then came in, made way for Popery to creep in fast into the Churches, but this will shake out Popery, and when by it the Popish aire is smitten, the Lord will also shake all the world by it; and the time doth hasten.

6. Now for the third effect, which is a distracting, and destroying calamity upon Cities, upon Islands, and Mountaines, and upon men: Among cities, here is the great Citie, and the cities of the Nations, and Babylon. Some good Interpreters looke at Babylon to be Constantinople: For my part I dare not think but one of these is put expensively for the other, Babylon for the great city: Now that great city which is spiritually called Sodome, and Ægypt,
The seventh Vial.

Egypt, Rev. 11. 8. is that great city, which reigneth over the Kings of the earth, and that is Rome, as all confess; and that Babylon, Chap. 17. 18. and this is the same city, which the Kings of the earth, and the Merchants of the earth doe mourn for when she is destroyed, and say, Chap. 18. 10. Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city, &c. and that also by their confession is Rome. And so this Latter mention of it, doth but shew the reason why it commeth to be divided into three parts, and why the cities of the Nations fell, for Babylon, came up into remembrance, &c. The great city then is Babylon, and that is divided into three parts: I should not thinke that it is spoken of the breach of the naturall walls of the city by the earthquake, but it will be divided into three factions; some will stick fast unto Popery, and others of the people of God that before durst not openly profess Religion, will now renounce Popery, for such there shall be in Rome when it is neere to be destroyed, unto whom it shall be said, Rev. 18. 4. Come out of her my people, &c. and what the third part may be, there is not light, for in this place, what light other places may give, we shall (if God please) see hereafter, meane while it is sufficient to understand that it will be divided into three parts: and what if the third part be a Neutrall betwene both the other?

7. What were the cities of the Nations? Those are they that trod the Church of God under foot, Rev. 11. 2. such they were who did subject themselves to Popish Government, the cities of those Nations shall fall, whosoever they be that are found adoring Rome, they shall fall: for Babylon herself shall come up into remembrance before God, to give unto her the Cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath, which shall infatuate her untill she be utterly destroyed by those ten Kings that shall hate her, and eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

8. And every Island fled away, and the mountaines were not found.] He speaketh not of earthly Islands, but you must understand that he speaketh of the mountaines, and Islands of the Antichristian state: what are the mountaines? They are the places where they went a whoring after their Gods in old time, Jer. 3. 6. She is gone upon every hight mountaine, and under every greene tree, and there hath played the harlot, there they had built them Chappells, and there they had placed their confidence, in respect of which when when they come to repent; they shall returne, and say, ver. 23. Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitudes of mountaines,answerable unto which are the great temples built unto false Gods they shall flee away: In the new Jerusalem, Rev. 21.22, there was no Temple scene, no Temple consecrated to this or that Saint shall be found therein.

What are the Islands? They are grounds separated from the earth, by the Sea: The Sea is the corruption of Religion, upon which the second Viall was poured. Therefore such places as are consecrated by Popish Devotions, as Church yards, and such other Popish grounds, they are these Islands, that shall flee away; you shall no more heare tell of consecrated Church-yard, or any such matter all the world over. Then will fall to the ground all your Cathedrall Churches, and all those high Places that over-toppe the people of God, and hinder the growth of the things of God neere about them, though those things that be superstitionally set apart for holy ends be never so glorious, they shall be all banned and vanish away, there will be no more noise of them.

9. And upon men there fell a great hail out of heaven.] The Allusion by some, is thought to be unto the hail spoken of Jofh. 10. 11. which the Lord cast downe from heaven upon the Cananites, so that more died with hailstones, then they which the children of Israel flew with the Sword: but I cannot say, that hail storme is here alluded unto: for here men did not die upon it, but blasphemed onely; unlese it should be spoken of their everlasting death in hell, but that were a common judgement to all the wicked: but I rather thinke it is an allusion to the hail storme in Egypt, whereof the effect was, that they sinned, and hardened their hearts yet more, Exod. 9.34 Well then, if it be such an hail as doth not kill men, but provoke them to blaspheme, what kinde of judgement might it be? Interpreters doe not tell us: So that we can take no better course to know it, then to see what allegorical hail stones meane in Scripture, for by comparing Scriptures together, you shall have the full meaning: for every part of Gods Counsell. For this end let us look in Esaý 28.17. where the Prophet telleth us that the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, when once Christ is laid in the foundation, ver. 16. then all the rest of the refuges of the sons of men,

men, that are lying refuges, shall be swept away: There is also another allusion putting hereunto in Ezek 13. 11. 13. where the Lord threatened against the wall that is daubed with untempered morter: there shall be an overflowing shower, and ye O great hail stones shall fall, and a stormy winde shall rent it. So then, this kind of hail storme is such a plague of God upon men as shall destroy all their lying refuges, and men shall then insult over them, and say, where is the daubing wherewith you have daubed it? So then, at this time the Lord will send an hail storme that shall discover all the counterfeit Religion: in the world, all the juggelings of their Miracles, all the faire seeming pretences of Popery, or any other Religion, all their doctrines of merits, and confidences in their prayers to Saints, and Angels, and superstitious Devotions, an hail storme shall fall upon them all in such sort, that you shall see the vanity of them: And all the world shall see, that all Religions besides Christianity, are but a refuge of lies, and in the end their juggelings, and sophistry shall be blowne up, and blasted: Some shall be shaken out of them, & sealed upon better bottoms, & others will be provoked to blaspheme, they will so vex themselves with extremity of anguish, for that they are thus bereaved of their old comfortable good dayes; and oh the joyfull festivals that they were wont to keep in their Abbies, and superstitious places, for the losse of which they shall blaspheme the Lord, and true Religion, and all the instruments of the Gospels propagation. Such a thing as this we reade of Rev. 11. 15. When as the seventh Angel sounded, there were great voices in heaven, saying, The Kingdomes of this world are become the Kingdomes of our Lord, and of his Christ, &c. There it is said, Ezek. 13, but here (the thing was then in doing, but now it is done) Then the Nations were angry faith the Text, ver. 18. and a great hail there fell, when they began to become the Kingdomes of Jesus Christ, and there was an earthquake, ver. 19. but never such an earthquake as this will be; so mighty, and so great, that will blast, not Popery alone, but all the Hotamocks in this countrey, and all that are found among other Indians in other parts of the world, an Haile storme shall fall upon them all, and blast all their green groves, and arbours, wherein they were wont to be worshipped: Thus have you seen (as the Lord hath been pleased to help) the meaning of these words:
words: Let us now gather one note from them; For I would not long dwell upon these Ænigmaticall, I meane Parabolicall Scriptures.

The Doctrine is, That when the darkness of Popish, and helish ignorance is dispelled, so that a man may clearly see heavenly light, and breath in heavenly knowledge, then, It is done: That is to say, then all the mystery of iniquity is abolished, and the mystery of God is fulfilled. For thus you see it is evidently here expressed in the Text. The seventh Angel did pour out his Vial upon the Antichristian ayre, and that was such an ayre as was darkened with the smoke of the bottomlesse pit, as with a foggy mist. Now when this ayre shall againe bee cleared, and the foggy darkness thereof dispelled, so that men may have the true use of it, to see through it those heavenly bodies which were darkened by that smoke, Rev. 9.2. then shall men see Jesus Christ to be all in all unto Justification, Sanctification, Consolation, which in Popery you could not: then shall the true Church be seen, which like the Moon, borrowed all the light it hath from the Sun: (true indeed if the Moone be taken for the world, then she treadeth it under her feet, Rev. 12.1.) In Popery you could not see what a true Church was, they will tell you of this and that Church, but they are no true Churches. But when this vail shall be removed, then shall you clearly know that the true Church is not a Catholike visible, nor a Cathedrall, nor a Diocesan, nor a Provincial Church. Then shall you see the Stars of heaven, you shall know who are the true officers of the Church, not Paratours, and Proctors, Deacons, and Archdeacons, Bishops, and Archbishops over many Churches, they are not the lights which the Lord hath set therein: And you shall then see who were the true members of the Church, Not the Canonized Saints, not such as Saint George, who was an ancient Heretick, but you shall see them to be such as are spoken of, Phil. 2.15. blamelesse, and harmless, the Sons of God, without rebuke, shining as lights in the world; then shall you see the Scripture more clearly, true doctrine, and worship, and government as it is held forth in the Gospell of Christ, and when you shall see these things, then, It is done; Even all that God hath to do in the world, for any further Reformation expect it not, Rev. 10.7. when the time is come that the seventh Angel hath blowne his Trumpet, the Lord
The seventh Vial.

Lord will not delay, but it shall then be fulfilled, and the Lord will clearly manifest to all Nations the great grace which he hath to show to the sons of men, and this is long agoe foretold,

Esa. 25. 6, 7, 8. In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the Lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the Lees well refined: And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and that is the pouring out of this Vial upon the ayre, for the face of the covering: is the ayre in my Text, Then will the Lord make a feast of fat things, then will he swallow up death in victory, and wipe away tears from off all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall be taken away from off all the earth: this is also prophesied of, Esa. 11. 6, 7, 8, 9. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all mine holy mountaine, and the reason is: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the Sea: and then, It is done: The mystery of iniquity is abolished, there is no more darkness, nor destruction, and the calling of the Gentiles, which was a mystery to the Jewes, shall be then fully accomplished, and the calling of the Jewes, which the Apistle calleth a mystery to us Gentiles, Rom. 11. 25. shall be then fulfilled, and so the mystery of God is finished.

Reaf. 1. Three Reasons doth the Text give us hereof. 1. First, from the manner of the entrance of this heavenly glory into the hearts of men, whether it come into private persons, or publique States; It commeth terribly with lightnings and thunderings, the which comming from God, doe so terrifie the hearts of men, and the state of the world, that they shall see plainly how they have beene deluded with desperate follies, and when men are put unto such an earth-quake in their spirits; this will be the point they come unto: Men and brethren what shall we doe to be saved? as did the Jaylor when he had been soundly shaken with the earthquake, Acts. 16. 26, 30. and so it will be with Kingdomes, when God hath in like sort shaken them, they will contend for true Religion, and will not then be baffled out and deluded with vanities, as now they be: when the spirits of men are terrified, and they feele no salvation in their Religion, they know not what shall become of their precious soules, this will set all the world on worke to looke about them: for upon this ground you shal see Indians, and Jews, and Pagans gaping after after salvation, when they see by these terrible stormes, and thunders, that all their Religions are but so many refuges of lies, then is there worke in hand indeed, which when God hath begun hee will also finish it unto the day of Christ, and it will be such an earthquake, as was never heard of in the world: Heretofore so long as this worke was found among poore Christians, the great Lords of the world persecuted them, and divised all manner of cruell torments for them: but when they felt that the wrath of God was kindled against them, then their hearts fell, and they were all in a combustion for the state of their soules before the Lord: now they were glad to renounce their Jupiters, and Junos, and to embrace Christianity, and to hearken to a better Covenant: this is the effect of thunderings and lightnings, and voices it done blasteth Idolatry, and forceth man to seake after a clearer passage to heaven.

The second Reason is taken from the power of the living knowledge of Christ to dispell this Popish ignorance, and to carry an end the heart of a man with such power, that he can no longer lie at quiet in his naturall estate; but it worketh in men these four ef-effects.

1. It subdueth and tameth the hearts of men that now they will joyn themselves unto the people of God, Esai 11, 6, 7, 8. the Wolfe shall lie with the Lambe, the Leopard shall lie downe with the Kid, &c. So great is their change in their hearts, that mens Ravenous tyrannies are taken away, and there is wrought in them, a kindly sweete unhaken frame, that will so breake forth against Gods people as formerly; thus doth the earthquake shake out drosse, and corruptions, and establish the heart in a sweete gracious frame of Spirit.

2. Secondly, The knowledge of Christ will breed division, as well as conjunction; Think you (faith Christ) that I am come to send peace, I tell you nay, but the sword: To set men at variance among themselves, the father against the sonne, and the sonne against the father, and the mother against the daughter, &c. And this division is made in Cities, and in Kingdomes, Act 14, 4. The city was divided, and part held with the Apostles, and part held with the Jewes: so it is in the Text, the great city was divided into three parts, some are hardened in their ignorance, and some are drawne out of it, and a third part will stand Neuters beetween

bbb 3 both
both to see, which way the ballance will turne, and these are also hardened in their blindness.

3. Thirdly the saving knowledge of Christ hath in it this power to cause men to rise up in arms against all the enemies of the Gospel of Christ in a lawful way of God: There is a power in true Religion, that maketh the hearts of the timorous to be stiffe, and strong, that where as men were before afraid of the power of the house of Austria, and of the King of Spaine, and of the rest of the Catholike Princes, there is a power in the Spirit of Christ, that will dispel all these, had but men the zeal of God in their hearts, it would make all these fears to be like Scarcrowes, and makes men bold to bid battle unto all those that stand out against Religion, so farre as the Lawes of a State may bear them out.

4. A fourth power of this knowledge, is to blow up all the inventions of men in the worship of God, whereby men have deluded themselves and others; when once mens hearts are lifted up in the waves of the Lord, as it is said of Jehoshaphat that his heart was, 2 Chron. 17. 6. and then he took away the High places and groves out of Judah: So when the zeal of God lifteth up the hearts of his people, then will they not endure a consecrated place in all the world where they come. And when this Viall is poured out, the earth shall be full of this knowledge of God, and then all the Chappels of Ease, and Churches of State, and Temples of glory, whereby the world hath beene deluded, they will not leave them a stone upon a stone that shall not be thrown downe: This is the second Reason, taken from the power of saving knowledge, which subdueth mens wilder natures, worketh holy division, giveth courage, and the power of zeale against all superstitions, and inventions of men, though now in some places you may not passe through with a burden, nor looke upon the wall thereof. The zeal of the Lord of Host will blow them up, those places will be laid open to the rest of the streets, and become but common soyle, they will not then be regarded but trampled upon.

Reason 3. The Third Reason is from the just judgement of God upon all that are not effectually wrought upon by this saving knowledge of God, if men come not in some measure to a perfect accomplishment of Gods worke in their hearts, there will fall such a plague of haile upon them, as will teare away their vail, and rend away their hypocrishypocritical shifts, and goodly pretences, and wash down their untempered dawbings, wherewith they have dawbcd the walls of their standing in the Church of God: He will so rend them to pieces, that if they will not come in, he will leave them to such open blasphemies, that you shall clearly see there is no more hope of their conversion, nor salvation.

The use of this point in the first place, may serve to teach you a just reproof of the Popish conceit, That ignorance is the mother of Devotion, unless they mean it of their own devotion; True, it is the mother of their devotion indeed: so long as their people are hood-winked with it, they will think they doe God good service, if they be in the Church, though they understand nothing there; and if when they die, they be buried in a Church-yard, they think they are the better, and yet better if they be buried in a Church; and yet better, if it be in a Chancell, and better then so, if it be under the Altar, and better then that, if a Fryars Cowle be wrapped about them. This is indeed the mother of whippings, and scourgings of auricular confessions, and of all Popish superstitions; for in truth, take away this ignorance, and all Popish devotion doth of it seise all to the ground, if once this vaile be removed from the face of all Nations.

Secondly, Learne from hence to see what great need we have all of us to grow up in saving knowledge, and in prayer, for the increase thereof, that we may propagate the same daily more and more; you see what wonders it will doe, Gods people of old prayed for us; Psal. 67. 1. God be mercifull to us, and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us: And for what end? That thy way may be known upon earth, and thy saving truth among all Nations. And when once the light of the Gospell is dispersed, it will bring in all Nations, it will thunder upon them, and never leave until it have changed them. If this knowledge of God come amongst an army of men, they will not touch any thing that is their brethrens, not meddle, not take with any to doe them harme, no mans purse shall be taken from him, no mans goods taken away without due recompence, only they will not be deluded with shaddowes, nor suffer mountaines to overtop them, neither will

will they be encompassed with hands: they will raise such an earthquake first, in Church, and Commonwealth, as you will at length wonder at, for though it begin in a corner of the world, it will not cease till it have shaken all Christendome, for when men once begin clearly to see which is the true Church of God, that it is not Cathedrall, nor Provinciall, nor Diocesan, but congregationall only, the officers whereof are godly Pastors, and Teachers, and ruling Elders, and Deacons. And when they see that the Saints which they have embraced, and esteemed, are not the true Saints of God, nor the Churches, nor those the officers of Christ wherewith they have been gullèd: but they see now who are the Saints of the most high; and can put a difference now between precious and vile: In this way men will go on to raise such an earthquake (and that not besides the Law neither) that if any City rise up against them, fall it must, and stoop unto them, and at length Rome itself shall fall, and all the Cities of the Nations that cleave unto her, and every mountaine shall be rooted up, and all their consecrated places shall lie level with the common soil, this will the Lord bring to passe, and will not leave till he hath wrought his great work in the world, this is his revealed will, and it will not fail until every jot and tittle of it be fulfilled. Let us therefore pray both night and day, in season, and out of season for our brethren in our native countrey, for whom God hath wrought all these great things, and for whom greater things yet remain to be done, for whom our work is to wrestle with God, that they may not perish for lack of knowledge, nor mistake a false Church for a true, (and false it is, if it be either Cathedrall, Provinciall, Nationall, or Diocesan) But pray we, that they may see the Moone, which God hath set in the Firmament, even the true forme of a Church of the new Testament. And also that Christ may be better known in all the parts of his Kingly office, and government in his Church, that they may see who are Papists, and who are the true Saints of God, and who are counterfeit, that they discern between clean and unclean: for if the saving knowledge of God grow up unto any ripenesse among them, it will not beare many things that are there remaining, many dawblings dawbings with untempered morter there are that must be beaten downe: And great pity were it that they should want any light which might possibly be afforded unto them, and marvellous usefull will it be, that we should not be wanting on our parts to help with what light we have, that so there may be no more refuges of lies in that land, I say this is mightily to be wrestled for, both in prayers, and in all Christian endeavours: for verily this is the worke of God, meet for every man to set his heart, and hand unto, even to pull away the vaile of darkness from all faces, and from all the mindes of men, and to discover clearely the Gospell of Jesus Christ, and all the holy wayes of his sanctuary, that every man may see, and see clearely, that men may not make a dawbing of part Reformation, and part Superstition, part Popery, and part Protestantisme, part uniformity, and part conformity; O that an haile storme might not be wanting to batter downe such dawbing, that the work of God might not cease, but amount unto the praise of the glory of his rich grace in Jesus Christ, and extend unto the accomplishment of every holy word of his truth.

The third use may serve to instruct you in the wonderfull successe of small beginnings in the things of God; that a womans throwing of a sorry chaire at a mans head (though the partie might be punishable for such a miscarriage) should raise such a contending for reformation, that both kingdomes must either stand by reformation or else fall to ruins: First, the women backe on the men, and then the men must for shame backe on their wives, and greater men backe the meaner, to bring forth such a great reformation: And how should this come to passe? Truely in the eyes of men it is wonderfull. But you know the least thing you cast into a streame, will runne downe the streame, you neede not force it; you have cast it in where nature hath set a course to carry it along; And how much more shall things runne an end, when the God of nature hath set them a course? when he powreth a Viall upon the ignorance and darkness of Popish superstition, then great works therein, will be done, for now a man underworkes the Lord, when he doth what his word hath spoken, and what his hand hath gone before us in: And when the ordinances of God say, it is spoken, then the providence of God will say, it is done, and then if you fail along with God's providence in God's ordinance, you need not fear, nor wonder, if weak beginnings come unto great issues: For now you take opportunity by the foretop (as they are wont to say) if you carry along business according to the word, the Lord will carry things end mightily in your hands beyond all your expectations, or imaginations, for there is no resisting, nor controlling the work of God.

Use 4. The fourth use may show you the great danger of such, as stand out against the reformation of Religion, the Lord will throw down his haile upon them, and rend their hearts and indignation, and blasphemy: He will go an end with his work, though they swear, and storme, he will pursue the enemies of his grace with his wrath, till he have utterly confounded, and consumed them from off the face of the earth.

Use 5. In the last place this may serve to teach every man in particular: (I am forced to speak unto kingdoms and states: but let it not be in vain; let us be acquainted with every part of his counsel, and will, and this is a main part thereof, and we may not shut our eyes from any known truth; for God would have the veyle taken from all faces.) you may have a true platforme of this worke in any godly man's heart: If the Lord mean to finish the mystery of his grace in thee, he will power out a Vial upon the vaile of thine ignorance, and will open thine eyes to see that thou hast run a carnal cursed course of life, he will come in with thundrings, and lightnings, and voyces, such as where with Moses himself shall be terrified. He will come in with an earthquake into thy heart, terribly shaking thy sinful corruptions, and then he will worke a real change in thee, that nothing in heaven but Christ, nor in the earth in comparison of him. The Lord will not suffer you to rest, until you have closed steadfastly with him, the knowledge of God hath given you will bring this matter to passe, he will not leave you until you have gone forward to a division from your sinful lust, and carnal companions. And whatsoever his work be, you must doe it, even unto the fulfilling of the mystery of God; and whosoever riseth against you, you must plead for Christ with the weapons of your tongue; and whatsoever High mountaine riseth in you, any gifts, or parts, good duties, any greene graffe that groweth in you; the haile storne of Gods wash will drive you from trusting on any such common grace; all dawblings with untempered morter you cannot skill of; whatsoever doth not make to the building you up in away of saving grace you are unskilfull in, therefore you are desirous still to close with Christ; nor can yee rest, until you come to settled peace in him: This is such a mystery of God, as hee will not rest, nor suffer you to rest until it be done; and if his Word will bring it to passe in a whole countrey; then sure it is enough to effect it in thine heart: See therefore that you doe not dawbe up your selves, nor others with untemprd morter; satisfie not your selves until you be shaken out of all such common apprehensions as hypocrites are wont to rest in: rest you not, untill you finde Christ manifested to your spirit as yours; grow up in a I ambe-like frame of spirit and way, untill the mystery of God be finished in you; and untill that mystery of Iniquity that hath beene wrought in you be abolished.
